Raleigh Hollowell Defeats Veteran Graham Byrum

In a very close election for May or of Edenton held Tuesday of this week Mayor Ernest Kehayes defeated Leroy H. Haskett, a form er Mayor whom Kehayes unseated in the 1955 election. Kehayes polled 570 votes as against 496 for a majority of 74 votes. He led Haskett by 124 votes in 1955.

Kehayes overcame a lead set up by Haskett after three wards wer reported, when the former Mayor held a slim 4-vote majority. How ever, when the First Ward, the last to report, turned in a majority of 71 votes for Kehayes, he led the ticket with 74 votes ahead of Haskett.

Each candidate carried two wards, Kehayes claiming the First Ward, his home ward, by a count of 203 to 132. He also carried the Third Ward, 146 to 117. Haskett's strongest ward was in the Second where he polled 170 votes to 151 for Kehayes, and in the Fourth Ward Haskett had 77 votes to 70 for Kehayes.

James M. Bond, who was unop posed for Treasurer,' polled 890

In the race for two Councilmen at-Large, J. Edwin Bufflap and George Alma Byrum, incumbents were returned to office. Bufflap led in this race with 761 votes and Continued on Page 4, Section 1
