This Can Be the Turning Point

Safety and security are ours forever when we understand how divine Love really "careth for its own."

Many have long sought this priceless assurance and are now finding it through SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy

Jesus' words and works are here made understandable in all their lawful power.

The study of this book steadily changes human conditions — always for the better, always more nearly in accord with God's goodness.

Its study can well be the turning point you have been watching for.

HONEY PRODUCTION IN COUNTY LOOKING GOOD

Honey production looks very good for this season, according to County Agent C. W. Overman. Beekeeping Specialist W. A. Stephens spent Thursday of last week with Mr. Overman visiting beekeepers, observing colonies and advising on management.

Most beekeepers had harvested or had ready for harvest two or more supers of surplus honey per colony. In plainer words, this means 60 or more pounds of honey or 20 or more quarts of honey per colony produced this season. George Bunch, Jr., of the Rocky Hock community appears to have the heaviest production. George had three colonies, each of which had about five supers of surplus honey.

FIDELIS CLUB MEETS

The regular monthly business meeting of the Fidelis NCO Wives Club was held in the game room of the Staff NCO Club at 8 o'clock, June 4. Mrs. Camillia Driver and Mrs. Betty Lemon were recognized as guests.

It was decided at this meeting that the family picnic would be held at the Old Timers Club on the base Saturday afternoon, June 29 at 2 o'clock, base time. Each Fidelis member will bring a picnic lunch for her family. Ice cream and cold drinks will be furnished by the club. Prizes will be given to the winners of the different games according to age groups.

Mrs. Beverly Keyes announced that a "crazy hat party" was in store for the social on June 18. She asked that each member bring a bag with an old hat base and 5 or 6 articles to decorate the hat with. The bags will be exchanged and the one having the most attractive hat will be given a prize.

Coffee and doughnuts were served at refreshment time.
