

Supervisors Invite Guests At Meeting

Twenty local businessmen will be honored guests of the Chowan County supervisors at the summer meeting of the supervisors of the Albemarle Soil Conservation District. The meeting will be held at the Chowan Community Building starting at 10:30 A. M., on Wednesday, August 14.

These businessmen have helped the local district supervisors in many ways to carry out the Soil and Water Conservation program here in Chowan County. They have donated money which the supervisors have used to sponsor the county conservation poster contest in the schools, purchase literature on soil and water conservation, the "Little" tree injector for use of district cooperators (farmers) in carrying out woodland improvement practices and to pay the National and state dues of the local soil conservation district.

Local businesses who will be honored are: Hobbs Implement Co., Byrum Implement Co., Edenton Tractor & Equipment Co., Home Feed and Fertilizer Co., Spedic Food Products, Chowan Storage Co., W. W. Byrum, Sr., Byrum Hardware, Hughes and Parker Hardware, Bridge-Turn Service Station, Bill Perry's Service Station, J. H. Conger, Sr., M. D. Baker, C. A. Perry, Fleetwood Brothers, C. A. Howard Coastal Grading Co., and P & Q Super Market.

"The local supervisors would not be able to carry out the district program of soil and water conservation as it is being done now without the help of these people and others, says James Griffin. "It takes a lot of local interest and cooperation from everybody to carry out, properly, a local program such as your soil conservation district program."

The Soil Conservation District is directed only by the citizens of the district—the land owners and operators who organized it in the first place. It is based on the best tradition of America . . . that the farmers of the District can decide for themselves what they want to do in their district about soil and water conservation when they want to do it, where they want to do it, who they want to help them, and how they want to do it. All of this is the job of the local-elected supervisors of the district. Chowan County has three supervisors, L. C. Bunch, chairman of the Albemarle soil conservation district, R. H. Hollowell and J. A. Webb, Jr.

COUPONS ORDERED PAID

MEETING POSTPONED

Due to Labor Day falling on the first Monday in September, the Chowan County Commissioners will not meet Monday, September 2. Instead, the monthly meeting will be held Wednesday, September 4.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

never be your ruin. Do you pray for success in your life-work that you may lay it at the feet of Jesus? If so, the largest possible success will be a blessing."

God heard the prayer of Hannah and, in the course of time, she bore a son. She did not forget her promise to God after her fervent prayers were answered. "Noble in spirit of endurance in time of trial," observes W. G. Blaikie, "Hannah is still more noble in the time of prosperity. It was no common grace that could so completely sacrifice all her personal feelings, and so thoroughly honor God."

She carried her young son to the temple when he became old enough, probably about seven years old, and formally dedicated him to the service of Jehovah, leaving him there, although during the subsequent years, this Hebrew mother, by many little acts, indicated the love and yearning in her heart. We may be sure that, during the time the little boy was in the loving care of his mother, she gave him the care and training necessary to prepare him for a worthy place in the temple of Jehovah. That the training had its effect on Samuel is evident in his subsequent life. He was worthy of her—there is no record that he ever did anything that would have made her ashamed of him.

We wonder if the millions of hard-working mothers realize the glorious possibilities of their task in training their own little children? In this way, often unrecognized, obscure and nameless mothers have contributed more to the world than some of the figures which have loomed large on history's page.

"What else can one do that is so valuable as to contribute a human life to the world and then so direct it as to make it a blessing to mankind?" asked the late William J. Bryan. "How insignificant seems the gorgeous tomb that marks the final resting place of one who has merely absorbed from society—how insignificant, I repeat—in comparison with these monuments of flesh and blood, left by obscure heroines whose graves are forgotten!"

Hannah remembered and fulfilled her promises to God. What about those promises you have made to Him? Are they unfulfilled, but unfulfilled?
