District Negro Clubs To Meet In Edenton Nov. 7

The 13th annual federation meeting of the Northeastern District of Negro Home Demonstration Clubs will be held at the colored high school Thursday, November 7. The theme of the meeting will be "The Home Demonstration Club Brightens the Home With Wealth, Health and Happiness."

The principal speaker for the meeting will be Miss Ruth Curran, State Home Demonstration Agent of Raleigh. There will be two sessions, one starting at 10:30 A. M., and the afternoon session at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Vera M. Slade, president of the district, will preside at the morning session and Mrs. Martha N. Moran, vice president, will preside over the afternoon meeting. Lunch will be served at 12:30.

An address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Ernest Kehayes and others on the program include Mrs. Estelle A. Smith, D. F. Walker, Mrs. Martha N. Moran, Mrs. M. M. Brown, Mrs. Julie L. Jones, Mrs. Lonnie Whitehead, Mrs. B. B. Ramseur and Mrs. Grace J. Knight of the Pet Milk Company, Winston-Salem, N. C., who will present a demonstration.

Sears '57 Christmas Catalog Distributed

Sears, Roebuck and Co. has this week begun distribution of its 1957 Christmas Gift Catalog, according to William C. Bunch, Jr., local manager.

The catalog lists more than 30,000 gift items for the entire family and has a record number of pages appearing in four colors.

Ninety pages of the new Sears catalog are devoted to toys and again this Christmas Sears lists many new electric and electronic battery-powered toys.

Christmas gifts from all over the world are featured in the new Sears catalog, Mr. Bunch said.

A special selection of books for family reading, as suggested by the American Library Association, is also displayed in the new catalog.

Sears 1957 Christmas Gift Catalog will be distributed to approximately eight million families in the United States, the company

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Dinwiddie Coleman Reams of Norfolk, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Fay Agnes Reams to Ensign William Chappell Deans, United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilfred Deans of Richmond, Va.

Miss Reams is a senior at William and Mary College, Norfolk Division, where she is the secretary of the senior class and she is a member of the Kappa Kappa Kappa Sorority. She will receive her B.S. Degree in Elementary Education next June.

Ensign Deans received his A.B. Degree in chemistry from Duke University and was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

The wedding will take place at half after four on December 27 in the Ocean View Baptist Church, Norfolk, Va.

Ensign Deans is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Chappell of Edenton.

DRIVE NEARING END

The membership drive of the Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has been in progress several weeks, will come to a close Thursday night, November 14. Billy Bunch and Oscar Griffin are in charge of the drive.

POST OFFICE FILM NOW AVAILABLE FOR SHOWING

The Post Office is finally going modern, Postmaster J. L. Chestnutt says and he has the film to prove it.

The film, "Men, Mail and Machines" is an exciting pictorial presentation of the new electronic and super-automatic devices now being installed in some of the major post offices of the nation. Postmaster Chestnutt invites all civic, church, school or social clubs in this area to contact him if they are desirous of showing the film at their meetings.

ALL SAINTS' DAY SERVICE

In addition to the regular celebration of the Holy Communion Wednesday at Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, the service will also be Friday on All Saints' Day. Weekday services and Holy Days are always scheduled for 10:30 A. M.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

Edenton's Woman's Club will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon, November 6, at 1 o'clock in the Parish House. Mrs. Joe Thorud, president, urges all members to be present.
