Windsor Girl Weds Edenton Boy

MRS. WILLIAM BADHAM GARDNER

The marriage of Miss Mary Rhea Spivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald LaFayette Spivey of Windsor, to William Badham Gardner, son of Mrs. William Henry Gardner and the late Mr. Gardner of Edenton, took place at 8 o'clock Saturday night, December 28, in the Saint Thomas Episcopal Church at Windsor.

The Rev. John Prior and the Rev. George Holmes officiated. Mrs. George Lewis Mardre, Jr., organist of Windsor and Meredith Miller of Lenoir, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Charles Burden Spivey, cousin of the bride, served as Acolyte.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white peau-de-soir, fashioned with a semi-sabrina neckline of reembrodered alencon lace, bernhart sleeves and princess bodice. The colonial skirt, with modified bustle back, of coquelicot chiffon, styled with scooped neckline, short sleeves and shifed bodice, topped a wide velvet midriff of matching velvet. The bouffant skirt was fully gathered. She wore a white fur bandeau and carried a white fur muff adorned with Oregon holly.

The attendants were Miss Jane Rhea White, cousin of the bride of Roanoke Rapids; Mrs. James Phylor Thompson of Winston-Salem; Miss Ann Harmon Jones of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Aubrey Campbell of Lynchburg, Va., and Miss Elizabeth Reese of High Point. They wore floor length gowns made exactly like the honor attendant. Their bandeaus and muffs were also the same.

The bride's mother wore a full length powder blue gown of chiffon over taffeta and corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a full length nile green crepe gown and corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's brother, William Henry Gardner of Durham, was best man. Ushers were Oswald LaFayette Spivey, Jr., brother of the bride; George Raines, Jr., of Washington, D. C.; Stanley Leggett of Rocky Mount; Robert Shelly of Virginia Beach, Va.; Richard Hines and William Bond, Jr., of Edenton.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony, after which the couple left for unannounced points.

For travel the bride wore a light blue tweed wool suit with navy blue accessories and a white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Gardner attended Saint Mary's Junior College in Raleigh and graduated from the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority. She was presented to North Carolina State society at the debutante ball in Raleigh in 1954. Mr. Gardner is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

The couple will make their home in Edenton.
