Sunday School Lesson

THE CHURCH IS A FELLOWSHIP

International Sunday School Lesson for January 19, 1958.

Memory Selection: "Be kind to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." —Ephesians 4:32.

Lesson Text: Acts 2:42-47; Romans 15:1-9; Ephesians 4:17-32; Philippians 1:3-11.

This is the third lesson in a series on the early Christian Church and the theme of the lesson is Christian fellowship. This fellowship is a three-way relationship between the person, God and his church. Man needs fellowship and the Christian together that is so dear to those who believe and remain steadfast.

In Romans, chapter 15, this is made quite clear: "May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together with one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Christian faith is one of love for one's fellow man (fellowship), love of God and love of the moving spirit that advances Jesus' teaching (the church). This brings up the old question, which has been asked by thinkers and non-thinkers for several centuries or more.

This is the question of the church and one's personal religion. There are those who believe that they need not belong to a church, or have a relationship with any church, to pursue their religion. They lose sight of the value and need for fellowship and forget that the fellowship of the early Christians was one of their main sources of strength and faith.

Today there is still—perhaps more strongly than ever—a longing in man for having things in common, doing things together. When we mention having things in common we do not refer to the communist political system. In Acts, chapter 2, one might get that impression:

"And all who believed were together and had all things in common and they sold their possession and goods and distributed them to all, as any had need."

But these early Christians did not have everything in common; they owned their own homes and ate their meals in them, except upon occasion. They did unite in common prayers and their longing for community was part of their motivation for drawing together. Crystallized by Jesus' teaching and leadership and their faith in God, their fellowship became one of the greatest forces, the greatest force, in the history of civilization.

The point is that they enjoyed fellowship and the community of

GO TO SOME CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

DANGER AHEAD!

Beautiful, yes. Beautiful as only Nature in all her purity can be. But dangerous too; dangerous to the ships at sea and the men they carry. For an iceberg's greatest bulk lies unseen beneath the surface . . . and against it, the unwary cannot survive.

Many of the things which, on the surface, appear the most tempting and beautiful contain hidden dangers and unsuspected pitfalls.

Men, like ships, need warning and guidance—and nowhere can they find greater help, greater love and protection than in their Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
