

Scholarships And Cash Prizes Offered In Contests Sponsored By Federation Woman's Clubs

Mrs. Joe Thorud, president of the Edenton Woman's Club, announces two scholarships and a cash award contest sponsored by the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs. Any student desiring to enter the contest for any of the contests should contact Mrs. Thorud or any member of the Edenton club.

One of the awards, the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs scholarship award, is for $1,000 to an outstanding young woman of North Carolina. This scholarship will be awarded on the basis of ability as evidenced by good scholastic record which placed her in the upper fourth of her class and permitted her to meet all the requirements for college entrance; citizenship as to leadership in the home, church, school and community; character as made known by the written recommendation of three leading citizens of her community and financial need as demonstrated by the necessity of having to earn a part of the cost of her education and presenting letters verifying same.

Another is a $100 scholarship for the best over-all entry in the high school senior art talent contest, and is for any high school senior who wishes to continue his or her art education. Cash awards of $25 will also go to the best oil, best water color and best graphic art drawing or pastel.

The third contest is in music and includes a $50 cash award for the best original composition for a high school senior or college student. Performance awards for high school seniors include $100 for best performance in voice, $100 for best performance on the piano and $100 for best performance on a stringed instrument.

The Florence M. Cooper cup will be awarded for the best original piano composition, the Kitty Poole Johnson tray for the best composition of any type and the Maggie May Jones cup for best program on Biblical music, inspired by Old and New Testament.

District contests will be held Saturday, March 8, and the state contests will be held in Raleigh Saturday, March 22, at 1:30 P. M. at the Raleigh Woman's Club and a $100 prize will go to the winner in piano, voice and stringed instrument.

Speaking On World Peace February 12

The winner in each high school will be awarded a specially designed "World Peace" gold key and will make the speech on a radio program.

During the past 11 years 2,180 high schools participated in the program, 11,000 students prepared and delivered speeches, 33,000 students studied material and wrote papers, and total audiences of 1,000,000 people heard the speeches. Many participants have gone on to excel in other fields in later years, utilizing the experience gained in this program.

Bud Skiles In Band Clinic

Bud Skiles, a member of the Edenton Junior-Senior High School Band, attended the North Carolina Band Clinic, sponsored by East Carolina College at Greenville Friday and Saturday. Young Skiles participated in the concert held Saturday night. He was accompanied by Miss Lula Williams, band director.

KRAMER ON HONOR ROLL

Announcement was made on Monday by the Rev. Roger A. Walke, Jr., headmaster of the Virginia Episcopal School, that 11 boys were included on the honor roll for the scholastic first term just ended. Among the group of honor students is Johnny Kramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kramer.

Gilliam Wood Winner Of Jaycee DSA Honor

Gilliam Wood was named the outstanding young farmer for 1957. The award was presented by Levin Culpepper of Elizabeth City. Mr. Culpepper said Young Bunch, like many other farmers, started with little or no capital in 1954 after serving in the armed forces and that the improvements and success in his farming operations during the past year merited the honor bestowed upon him.

Honors were also won by two members of the Jaycees, one as the key man of the year and the other the rookie of the year. Caswell Edmundson was presented the key man award by Edgar Gurganus of Williamston, who pointed out that Young Edmundson was ready and willing to help in any project advanced by the Jaycees and that throughout the entire year he made an outstanding contribution in club activities. Edmundson, manager of the Western Gas Service, is first vice president of the Edenton Jaycees.

Gene Ward, assistant secretary of the Edenton Building & Loan Association, and secretary of the Jaycees, was presented the rookie of the year award by Mr. Gurganus. The honor went to Ward due to the outstanding work he has done during the first year he has been a Jaycee.

The principal speaker for the occasion was Mr. Cox, who will be a candidate for national president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. In his opening remarks he said "Jaycees are the voice of young men," and emphasized the values to be gained from looking at what we have and cautioned against becoming too lax in present day thinking. He effort to raise standards and make better students and individuals. More students should study physics, chemistry and foreign languages, he said. Warren Twiddy, Jaycee president, presided as toastmaster and the invocation was given by Luther Parks. Gene Ward introduced the special guests, who included Mayor Ernest Kehayes, Col. Frank Collins, commander of NAAS, Edenton, W. W. Byrum, Sr., chairman of the Chowan

County Commissioners; John Mitchener, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Jr., Evelyn Leary, W. M. Cozart, J. E. Bufflap, Kermit Layton, Mrs. Levin Culpepper, Anne Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. George Twiddy, Mrs. Mary Price, C. W. Overman, E. S. White, James Griffin, Thurman Harrell, Claude Small, Wallace Goodwin, Jr., Carroll Evans and Mrs. J. G. Wood.

The meeting closed with repeating the Jaycee Creed, led by James Price of Ahoskie, vice president of the 10th District.
