VFW Saturday Dances Popular

According to Earl White, commander of William H. Coffield Post No. 9280, Veterans of Foreign Wars, the VFW Saturday night dances are very successful. The dances started the first of the year and are held every Saturday night for couples and members only. Music is furnished by Randy Lee and his swing band. The concession stand is open at each dance.

Mr. White extends a cordial invitation to couples to attend and enjoy what he terms "fun night" at the Post home. He also will be delighted to explain the advantages of VFW membership to any who are eligible to join.
