

Miss Betty Rowell Elected President Of Nurses Group

Miss Betty Rowell, a junior at DePaul School of Nursing, Norfolk, Va., was recently elected President of District I Student Nurses' Association. This district includes the schools of nursing from the following hospitals in the Norfolk area: Norfolk General, Obici, Portsmouth General, Maryview and DePaul.

Miss Rowell graduated from the Edenton Junior-Senior High School in 1955. Since she has been at DePaul she has had the following honors: Director's list, fourth in class scholastically, Glee Club soloist, second vice president of the Glee Club, president of the junior class and a member of the Student Cabinet of DePaul.

Miss Rowell is now studying at the Seton Psychiatric Institute in Baltimore, Maryland, for a period of three months.

Committees For Chamber Named

At a meeting of the recently appointed Merchants Committee of the Edenton Chamber of Commerce, Ralph Parrish was elected chairman and W. E. Malone vice-chairman. Their terms run through September 30. Other members of the committee are Frank Elliott, Percy Dail, Tom Hopkins, Mrs. Graham Robbins, Ed Parker, Bill Perry and Henry Quinn.

The committee recommended to continue the store closing hours voted by the merchants at a meeting in December, which are 7 P. M. on Saturdays and 1 P. M. on Wednesdays. An exception to this schedule is the Wednesday before Easter when it was voted to remain open all day. Stores will be closed Easter Monday, which is one of the regular 1958 holidays adopted at the December meeting.

Traffic and parking problems were also discussed and were referred to the Chamber's Parking and Traffic Committee. President Gilliam Wood announced that J. R. DuLaney has accepted chairmanship of this committee with Marvin Wilson, George Dail and George A. Byrum.

Other committee appointments made by President Wood are: Advertising and Promotion, Jimmy Earnhardt, chairman, Richard Atkinson, Dick Schuman, Tom Hopkins and J. E. Bufflap; Agriculture, Lloyd E. Bunch, chairman, C. W. Overman, John Kramer, West Leary and Bristoe Perry; Education, the Rev. George B. Holmes, chairman, Gerald James, W. T. Harry, Joe Conger, Jr., and John W. Graham.

Highways, W. W. Byrum, chairman, Shelton Moore, Mrs. W. L. Boswell, J. W. Davis and Grayson H. Harding; State and National Affairs, J. Clarence Leary, Sr., chairman, Albert G. Byrum, A. B. Harless, J. H. Conger, Sr., and David Holton; Tourist and Recreation, Scott Harrell, chairman, Ernest Ward, Jr., R. Elton Forehand, George Twiddy, David Holton and Jack Habit; Health and Safety, Dr. Richard Hardin, chairman, Dr. E. G. Bond, W. J. Yates, J. E. Bufflap and Jesse Harrell; Industrial Development, W. P. Jones, chairman, J. H. Conger, Jr., Warren Twiddy and John Mitchener.

President Wood emphasized the importance of committee activities in carrying out the program of the Chamber to develop a bet-

Local Swing Combo Is Featured At Plymouth

Randy Lee and his swing combo was featured at Plymouth's Band Boosters Variety Show held February 27 and 28 at the high school auditorium in Plymouth. The show was a huge success, nearly filling the house both nights in spite of adverse weather conditions. The program helped raise money for the Plymouth High School Band program.

Featured with Randy Lee's band is accordion player Lee Quinn, formerly of Washington, D. C., George Ward, playing rhythm guitar from Edenton and Billy Cates playing drums from Edenton. Randy's group travels for personal appearances and dances and is currently playing their own show "VFW Radio-Dance Party" over WCDJ and live from the VFW Post home in Edenton every Saturday afternoon. The broadcast begins at 3 o'clock and features audience participation from all age groups. Then on Saturday nights at the VFW Randy and the combo play for dancing from 9 to 12.

County Churches Plan For Revivals

Final plans for the Spring Evangelistic Crusade of the Great Hope and Center Hill Baptist churches have been announced by their pastor, the Rev. Henry V. Napier.

Beginning Sunday, March 9, and continuing through Friday night, March 14, with services each evening at 7:30 o'clock, evangelistic services will be held at the Great Hope Baptist Church at Hertford, with the Rev. Frank B. Dinwiddie of the Nags Head Baptist Church, bringing the evangelistic messages using chalk talk artistry. During the week special music will be provided by choirs from various churches in the area. On Sunday, March 9, at 7:30 o'clock the choir from the Center Hill Baptist Church will provide the special music. On Monday night, March 10, the Men's Chorus from the Hertford Baptist Church will provide the special music and on Thursday, March 13, the choir from the Bethel Baptist Church near Hertford, will have charge of the music. A special children's message will be presented each evening by the evangelist and all children are asked to sit near the front of the church.

Week Of Evangelism On Chowan Charge

The Chowan Charge of Methodist Churches will hold its Week of Evangelism at Center Hill Methodist Church March 9 to 14. The Rev. J. H. Waldrop, Jr., of Grace Methodist Church, Clinton, N. C., will be guest evangelist, bringing the message each evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to join in this week of services dedicated to Christ.

Beginning Sunday, March 16, and continuing through Friday night, March 21, evangelistic services will be held at the Center Hill Baptist Church at Tyner. The evangelistic messages will be presented by the Rev. Frank Cale, pastor of the First Baptist Church of South Boston, Va. Mr. Cale is a former pastor at the Center Hill, Rocky Hock and Warwick Baptist Churches in Chowan County and his return is looked forward to by all the former members that he served.

Monday night, March 17, special recognition is to be given to the Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church, the Rev. Lamar Sentell, pastor. At that time the choir from Ballard's Bridge will have charge of all special music using their Men's Chorus and choir. Their pastor will also have part on the program for the evening. On Tuesday night, March 18, special recognition is to be paid to the Rocky Hock Baptist Church, the Rev. B. L. Raines, pastor. The choir from that church will have charge of all special music that evening. Then on Thursday night, March 20, the choir from the Warwick Baptist Church, the Rev. Lee A. Phillips, pastor, will have charge of special music as recognition is paid to that church. The pastor will take part on the program for the evening. As is the usual custom, the choir from the Great Hope Baptist Church will take charge of all special music on Sunday night, March 16.

A special message to the younger folks will be presented each night by the visiting evangelist and they are asked to sit near the front of the church. These younger people will also have special music under the direction of Mrs. Henry V. Napier with Mrs. Wilbur Privott accompanying.
