

Revival Service Starts At Center Hill March 16th

Plans for the spring revival at Center Hill Baptist Church have been announced by the pastor, the Rev. Henry V. Napier. The services are to begin on Sunday, March 16, with the 11 o'clock service and to continue each evening at 7:30 through Friday night. The visiting evangelist will be the Rev. Franklin W. Cale, former pastor of the Center Hill Baptist Church, who is now pastor of the First Baptist Church, South Boston, Va. Mr. Cale was also pastor at the Great Hope Baptist Church in Perquimans County, the Rocky Hock and Warwick Baptist Churches in Chowan County.

During the evangelistic services the choirs from various churches will bring special music. On Sunday night, March 16, the choir from the Great Hope Baptist Church will bring the music, on Monday night, March 17, the choir from the Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church will bring the special music, on Tuesday night, March 18, the choir from the Rocky Hock Baptist Church will bring the special music and on Friday night, March 21, the Warwick Baptist Church Choir will bring special music. On the nights mentioned the churches whose choirs bring special music will be given recognition and their pastors will take part in the services.

The public is invited to all services. Junior age children are asked to sit on the front for special music to be rendered by them under the direction of Mrs. Henry Napier. An object lesson will be taught by the visiting evangelist.

Chappell's Cow Hangs Up Record

A new record placing first in milk production among the 10 highest of the Guernsey breed in her class has just been completed by the registered cow, Chappell's Nettie, a junior three year-old, owned by Clarence Chappell, Jr., Chappell's Guernsey Farm, Belvidere.

"Nettie" produced 15,271 pounds of milk and 649 pounds of fat in 305 days on two times daily milking.

She also produced 9,639 pounds of milk and 468 pounds of fat, as a junior two-year-old, in the Herd Improvement Register, in the 305-2X division. "Nettie" was sired by Bayville Steadfast Nero, that has one tested daughter in the Performance Register of the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

The record of this cow was supervised during the test period by North Carolina State College.

JOE THORUD SAYS:

Give your Farm TO THE Hired Man?

No, but a jury might. If you were judged legally responsible for an accident involving an employee it might cost you your farm... plus! Thousands of farmers protect themselves against such risks with Nationwide Insurance. It's low in cost, but could save you thousands of dollars. Call for information.

Sunday School Lesson

EVANGELISM IN THE HOME COMMUNITY

International Sunday School Lesson for March 16, 1958.

Memory Selection: "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

Lesson Text: Mark 5:18-20; Luke 10:1-2; Acts 5:42; I Thessalonians 1:6-10.

The lesson for this week stresses the importance of evangelism and should lead adults to witness for Christ.

In the lessons for the preceding two weeks we have noted that a united Christendom speaks with greater authority than do churches rent by divisions. We have also seen that the church is busy in the world proclaiming the justice and the love of God. Christian unity and social participation are both instruments of evangelism. How can we further evangelism in our own community?

The first and obvious answer that comes to our minds is: "By living a Christian life... by practicing what we preach. A church is always of greater significance than its own size. Kenneth Pope once said that if a church adequately ministers to its own membership, both its spirit and its program will inevitably influence those outside its formal life. This outside influence springs both from its program of evangelism and from its other activities that involve it in the community.

Let us study the first of the texts chosen for this lesson—Mark 5:18-20: "... the man who had been possessed with demons begged him that he might be with him. But he refused and said to him, 'Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.' And he went away and began to proclaim... and all men marveled."

Jesus always suited his method of teaching or healing to the needs of the individual or group with whom he was dealing, and usually admonished them to tell no one of what had been done for them. In the incident quoted, however, he reversed this pattern and, instead, asked the healed man to go home and tell his friends about his good fortune. Jesus, in other words, was pointing out the fact that those who witness for him do not necessarily have to travel abroad, but can find fertile ground for spreading the gospel right where they live.

GO TO SOME CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

THE SEARCH CONTINUES

Throughout the history of mankind runs the account of a double quest:
Man searching for God... our restless eagerness to understand and please our Creator has paralleled the centuries of progress.

God seeking Man... ceaselessly, patiently, His Love has lighted the ages, ever reaching toward our hearts, encompassing our souls.

Yet no powerful lens ever devised will aid in this search. Our quest finds its consummation not beneath the lens of a microscope—but beneath the spire of a Church!

What man does not recognize his own inability to cope with the complexities of life?

There awaits you next Sunday in the Church of your choice the peace and assurance that generations have sought... the FAITH which unites Man and God.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
