Mrs. W. D. Holmes, Jr. State DAR Regent

Mrs. Norman Cordon of Chapel Hill, wife of the one-time Metropolitan Opera star, was elected State Vice Regent and Mrs. Noah Burfoot of Elizabeth City corresponding secretary.

The following attended the conference as delegates: Mrs. Wood, Privott, Regent, Mrs. Lloyd Griffin and Mrs. Richard P. Baer. Also chapter members attending were Mrs. R. P. Badham, Mrs. David Holton, Mrs. J. L. Pettus and Mrs. J. M. Jones. Miss Frances Holton represented the chapter as a page.

An especially interesting feature of the conference was a tea on Wednesday afternoon at the executive mansion given by Mrs. Luther Hodges. Here on display was a replica of the Edenton Tea Party of October 25, 1774. Mrs. Lloyd Griffin, a member of the Edenton Tea Party, DAR, recreated the Edenton Tea Party at the mansion with twenty dolls dressed in authentic costumes (these ladies were leaving the home of Elizabeth Wing resolving to drink no more pernicious tea until the English tax had been removed).

Mrs. Griffin's daughter, Mrs. Clyde Douglas II, a page at this conference and a member of the Junior Committee Caswell, Nash Chapter, Raleigh, served authentic Tea Party cookies and gave visitors a history of the tea party.
