

Negro Home Demonstration News

By MRS. ONNIE S. CHARLTON, Negro Home Demonstration Agent

Food conservation project leaders for each home demonstration club are asked to meet at my home Tuesday, April 1, at 1:30 P. M., for a training meeting.

Eggs are Right—Morning, Noon and Night," is the theme during March for Egg Month.

The egg is one of our most valuable foods. Eggs are a protective food recommended by nutritionist and medical authorities to be included in the diet in some form every day or at least 4 to 5 times a week. The protein in eggs is complete. Eggs furnish all of the amino acids essential for building and maintaining tissues in good proportion to each other.

Eggs may be served in hundreds of ways. They are easily and quickly prepared by cooking in the shell, frying, broiling, baking, poaching, scrambling and simple omelets.

Eggs combine well with other foods. They are useful in the preparation of beverages, breads, cakes, desserts, salads, salad dressings, sandwiches, sauces, soups, and cereal, cheese, fish, meat and vegetable dishes. In cookery, eggs:

Thicken as in custards and puddings.

Leaven by beating to incorporate air as in cakes.

Add color, richness and flavor to individual dishes.

Coat as in breaded meats.

Garnish as in canapes, salads and soups.

Bind as in meat loaves and croquettes.

Emulsify as in salad dressings and cream puffs.

Clarify as in preparation of consommé or in "boiled" coffee.

waiting room of a small wayside railroad station on a dark and stormy night.

What a strange and conglomerate mixture of people is thrown together when a fast train is derailed and the passengers come inside to wait for a relief train. Among them are three peppy and attractive college girls on their way back to school, (Ann Spivey, Jeanette Perry and Emily Leary); a young man who is a student at a law school, (Joe Hollowell); a fat middle-aged, good-natured Italian woman, (Estelle Taylor), and her daughter (Kay F. White); the wealthy and haughty Mrs. Regina Vandeventer, who looks down her nose at the other travelers, (Lynda Copeland). Then there is a nosy old maid, Miss Pidge McDougal, who spends her time finding out other people's business (Barbara Jordan); also a peculiar looking deaf man who has a mysterious old suitcase which he never lets out of his hands, (Gerald Harrell). There is an engaged couple, the girl (Jackie Asbell) being flighty and domineering and the young man (Frank Evans), henpecked but managing to escape her clutches now and then. Silas Dobbins (Sammy Morris), works around the station, sweeping and putting coal into the old stove. John Morgan, station agent, is played by Jerry White.

The crowd is thrown into pandemonium when Mrs. Vandeventer discovers that her $10,000 string of pearls is missing. Someone in the waiting room has them, but who? Miss Pidge, with her natural tendency for sleuthing, looks for them and finally locates them in the most unexpected place. . . . Bill Lindsay, the prospective lawyer decides to hold a preliminary trial and expose the guilty party in a very clever way

Cooking Hints for Good Results:

Take from refrigerator only the number of eggs needed.

Remove eggs from refrigerator about 45 minutes before using since the separation of yolks from whites is quicker and better if eggs are brought to room temperature.

Eggs beat up faster to larger volume when brought to room temperature.

In combining hot mixtures and eggs as in custards, cream fillings, souffles, etc., pour the hot mixture slowly into the beaten egg, stirring or beating constantly.

Store leftover yolks under water in a covered jar in the refrigerator. They may be held 2 or 3 days. Or hard-cook the yolks. Use in salads, scalloped dishes and sandwiches.

Four to six whole eggs, 8 to 10 egg whites or 12 to 14 egg yolks are the equivalent of one standard measuring cup.

Always serve hot egg dishes on warm plates.

Everyone can cook eggs so that they retain their flavor, tenderness and attractiveness if a few simple rules are followed.

Cook eggs at low to moderate temperature to assure uniformly tender, attractive eggs and egg dishes. High temperature and over cooking toughen eggs. . . . egg-rich cakes, souffles, and other dishes leavened with eggs will fall, the crust will be thick and tough, and inside heavy and soggy. In dishes thickened with eggs such as custards and sauces, high temperature and over-cooking cause curdling.

Then Miss Pidge puts over a clever trick and finds out what is in the mysterious suitcase—much to her regret. The public is cordially invited to attend. A small admission will be charged.

Appreciation For Local Observance Of Library Week

Mrs. Eugenia Babylon, Regional Librarian; Miss Harriet Leary, Shepard-Pruden Librarian, and Mrs. George Mack, local chairman, wish to thank all who contributed toward the success of National Library Week. They are especially grateful to the press, radio, and those who made posters, for the splendid publicity given Library Week.

The various exhibits including Mrs. Lloyd Griffin's display of "Tea Party Ladies" were very effective. The local committee, particularly the hostesses and flower arrangers are to be commended for their splendid services.

The highlight of the week was the lecture on Thursday evening by Ovid Pierce, author of "The Plantation," and professor of English at East Carolina College. Including BPW members, about 70 people were in attendance.

During the week many groups of children and adults visited the library and museum. Some for the first time. It is hoped that they will return often to avail themselves of the fine books the library has to offer.

Edenton Marines Make Impressive Maneuver Record

Marine Attack Squadron 225, Lieut. Col. R. W. Bafdorff commanding, gathered more than one impressive record for themselves during the recent TRAEX maneuvers at the Naval Air Station, Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico. For the squadron, the maneuvers terminated on the 10th of March and during the five weeks prior to this date, VMA-225 flew their AD-6 attack-type aircraft for more than 900 sorties, 239 of which were attack missions over the islands of Culebra and Vieques.

An almost fantastic amount of ordnance was loaded and dropped by the squadron on training flights. Lieut. P. A. Leaverton and his ordnance crew hoisted over 400,000 pounds of bombs, 2,900 rockets and 40,000 rounds of 20 millimeter ammunition. This total does not take into account other types of ordnance dropped, such as special weapons training or Napalm. It is easy to see why VMA-225 has acquired the nickname of "Heavy Haulers."

Along with the squadron participating in TRAEX 1-58, VMA-225 also underwent an operational readiness inspection and a competitive exercise. Not all of the results of the inspections covering most of the squadron mission, both air and ground, are official at this time. For the 12 complex air events, however, all participating pilots qualified and nine Navy "E's" will be awarded.

The previous facts would be impressive enough, but add, also, the fact that VMA-225 had the highest utilization of aircraft during the month of February for Second Marine Aircraft Wing squadrons, with no flight accidents occurring.

The nominees for the Navy "E" are Captains G. W. Keyes and P. J. Ermatinger and Lieutenants D. F. Wohlers, G. J. Shaver and O. M. Oas.

ROTARIANS MEET TODAY

Edenton's Rotary Club will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Parish House. The program will be in charge of Hubert Willford and President Robert S. Marsh is urging a 100 per cent meeting.

1958 Cancer Drive Begins April 1st

Mrs. Layton points out that a number of patients in the county are now receiving aid from the local Cancer Society. She also emphasizes the fact that the nation-wide target of the Cancer Society is $30,000,000 which is needed to sustain the momentum of the war against the number 2 disease killer in the United States. It is being waged on three vital fronts: education, research and service.

Not less than half the conversation one hears is useless.
