

Social Worker Joins Mental Health Clinic

The Albemarle Mental Health Clinic is proud to announce the arrival of a psychiatric social worker, Miss Martha Wertz. Miss Wertz is a native of North Carolina and received her bachelor of arts degree at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. After teaching the first grade in Warrenton, N. C., she attended the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina. She worked for several years with departments of public welfare in Warrenton and Raleigh before moving to Atlanta, where she worked for the Child Service Bureau of Fulton and DeKalb counties.

Miss Wertz received her master's degree in psychiatric social work from the Tulane University of Louisiana, New Orleans, Louisiana. Since receiving her degree, she has worked for child guidance clinics in New Orleans, Louisiana and Durham, Miss Wertz comes to the staff of the local clinic from the position of chief psychiatric social worker at the Portsmouth Area Counseling and Guidance Clinic in Portsmouth, Virginia.

The clinic is now fully staffed with the exception of the psychologist, who is expected in the near future.

"We regret that some of the patients could not be seen immediately, and hope that in the future, with the new additions to our staff, it will not be necessary to wait as long for an appointment," says Dr. B. B. McGuire, district health officer.

Washington Road Being Improved

It has been announced that work will proceed as rapidly as possible on the county road from Plymouth, via Mackeys, to Pleasant Grove.

Division Engineer W. N. Spruill announced that state forces will adjust the grade and level 4.85 miles of this road with sand asphalt leveling. The forces are leveling one side of the road at a time, making it necessary to maintain one-way traffic for a distance of approximately one mile. Traffic will be delayed on an average of five minutes while this work is in progress, Spruill added.

Motorists are asked to proceed with caution along this route while the leveling is in progress.

MORE TURKEYS

Turkey breeder hens on North Carolina farms as of January 1 were estimated at 45,000, or 3,000 above the number reported on hand as of January 1, 1957. Of the total estimate, 43,000 were reported to be heavy breeds, and the remaining 2,000 were recorded as light breeds.

Sunday School Lesson

GOD'S PEOPLE IN BONDAGE

International Sunday School Lesson for April 13, 1958.

Memory Selection: "With the Lord on my side I do not fear. What can man do to me?" —Psalms 118:6.

Lesson Text: Exodus 1.

Today's lesson points out some of the struggles of God's people as they strove for freedom. It challenges modern Christians to work for freedom for all people.

In our studies today we look back to the beginning of the Hebrew nation. In the Book of Genesis the earliest ancestors of the Hebrews were described within the context of families. Beginning with the Book of Exodus the Hebrews had become too numerous to be regarded as one family.

The history of the Hebrew people began in slavery, and out of this oppression God delivered his people so that they might become a nation. Despite every effort of the powerful Egyptian nation to keep them in subjugation, God was supreme, and the children of Israel were freed.

In the first chapter of the Book of Exodus we see Pharaoh, King of Egypt, fearful lest the Israelites outnumber the Egyptians and wrest his power and his prestige from him; in his fear he orders that all newborn male babies must be killed by the midwives; and we also see that the midwives feared God, and did not do what Pharaoh had charged them to do. And the Lord saw that the midwives feared Him, and they prospered. And the Israelites continued to multiply, and became strong. In the story of God's dealing with these early people we find a revelation of his way, and this way is one which men can follow in any day and in any age.

In the world of today we have had many examples of what greed and the lust for power can do to mankind. We have only to look back to the events which led up to World War II in our own generation, to see the dreadful results that these evil drives can wreak on hapless peoples. When Hitler's armies goose-stepped into Poland, and then over-ran Norway and Denmark, finally spreading a regime of fear and oppression all over Europe, he was being driven by the same dark forces that held Pharaoh in thrall. The oppressor, is driven by fear and greed. He desires to hold or increase his present advantages. Any display of power is regarded as a threat to his dominion. In his fear he often turns to oppression as the answer to his problems. But oppression has rarely ever been successful in its objectives. In the case of the Egyptian

GO TO SOME CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

Youth - BY THE DRAWERFUL

In a nation as big as ours there is always a tendency to overlook the individual and to think only of groups. Youth gets the brunt of this generalizing.

About three percent of our boys and girls are delinquent. But some folks would have us believe that every child is a potential delinquent.

Time we realized that children aren't chicks! They don't grow up by the drawerful to have the same characteristics and habits.

Children respond to love, parental example, religious guidance. They possess an ever-increasing aptitude for responsibility, trust, and faith.

Most of our boys and girls will grow up to assume their rightful place in an orderly, Christian society. Some will populate our jails. But the destiny of the individual youth is not a matter of chance and percentage...

It is determined primarily by the conscientiousness of loving parents, and by the persistency with which his natural religious interests are cultivated.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
