Since this is my last column, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those who have been so helpful to me during my term of office. Mrs. George Ross, president of the Wives' Club, has continuously kept me posted with the "goings on"; the squadron commanding officers' wives, Mrs. A. R. Boag, Mrs. Charles Boggs, Mrs. Richard Batdorff, formerly of 225, and again Mrs. Ross have kept the squadron news coming; and Mrs. Frank Collins, who took over for me while we were on leave for two weeks, have been of invaluable help to me.

ON HONOR ROLL

According to a recent announcement from the office of J. Irving Brooks, Chowan College Dean of Instruction, two groups of students have received official recognition from the college because of their academic achievement during the spring semester. Eighteen students were listed on the Honor Roll as having done superior academic work, and thirteen others made the Dean's List, indicating that their academic work was well above average.

Included among the eighteen students who did top scholastic work was the Rev. Frank W. Fortesque of Tyner.

FIDELIS WIVES CLUB MEETS
