United In Marriage Saturday

MRS. DAVID WEATHERLY REDFIELD

The wedding of Miss Mary Leggett Browning, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Browning of Edenton, and David Weatherly Redfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley W. Redfield of White Plains, New York, was solemnized at noon on Saturday, August 9, in the Edenton Methodist Church, the Rev. J. E. Richardson, pastor, officiating.

Music was presented by Mrs. J. J. Ross, organist, and Miss Jane DuLaney, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, David Q. Holton of Edenton. She wore a gown of Mary L. Browning of Edenton, embroidered organly over taffeta, and a matching daisy crown arranged with a circular veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of Fuji chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Claire Pike of Fremont and Miss Carolyn Peal of Chadbourne. Their dresses and flowers were like those of the honor attendant.

The bridegroom's brother, Dudley W. Redfield of Northbrook, Illinois, was best man, and the ushers were D. B. Browning, Jr., brother of the bride, and Lieut. William R. Etter, both of Edenton; Lieut. James E. C. Leavitt of Anchorage, Va., and William F. Ranscht, Jr., of White Plains, N. Y.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Episcopal Parish House.

The bride attended Greensboro College and the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority. She will be a member of the senior class at Adelphi College this fall.

Mr. Redfield, a former Marine Corps pilot, is a graduate of Wesleyan University, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He is at present a graduate student at Columbia University.

4-H CLUB ENJOYS SOCIAL

The Cross Roads Local 4-H Club enjoyed a swimming party and weiner roast at Hare's Beach Friday afternoon, August 8, at 5 o'clock. Everybody arrived hot and tired, ready for a swim after which everybody came up with a big appetite.

Robert S. Marsh gave a demonstration of water safety, how to use the life preserver and also a demonstration on artificial respiration, with the aid of Johnny Winborne.

Mrs. Roland Evans, local leader, with the assistance of a few other 4-H parents, planned and supervised the group.

There were 27 people present, also Miss Aman, assistant agent. There were visitors from Mississippi and also Paul Miller, an agriculture teacher from Pennsylvania, and Buddy Belch of Tyner.

The club is hoping to have some new members soon, who will become 10 years old and are very anxious to join.

VFW MEETING

William H. Coffield, Jr., Post No. 9280, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Tuesday night, August 19, at 8 o'clock. Commander Harold Langdale urges a full attendance.

JAYCEES MEET TONIGHT

Edenton's Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight (Thursday) at 7 o'clock in the Penelope Barker house. President Caswell Edmondson urges every member to be present.

Mrs. Emmett Jones Month's Homemaker

has endeared herself to many by her thoughtfulness. Besides being active in the PTA, being a grade mother, playing the piano at the Center Hill Methodist Church each Sunday, teaching a Sunday School class, being an active member of the Women's Missionary Society, and helping with the Methodist Youth Fellowship, she is often in the middle of activities of her husband and son, as Junior is an Explorer and also the president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and Mr. Jones is Institutional Representative of Boy Scout Tyner Troop 154 and for six weeks in the spring is a lay speaker for Methodist Churches. Her home always seems to be ready for visitors or group meeting, although outside help is used only once a week.

All in all, she is a well-liked, industrious young woman who is very conscientious about the welfare and happiness of her family. The true success of her homemaking can be measured by the enthusiastic negative reply by husband and son to the question "Do you think your home-life is neglected by wife and mother working?" Her calm, unhurried attitude regardless of her schedule must have a lot to do with the happiness of the family.

At a meeting of Town Council J. Edwin Bufflap was ordered to see what could be done temporarily about lighting the town tracts on both sides of Water Street, as well as the "hitching post" site in order to provide parking space. The Councilmen also considered renting the lot behind the Penelope Barker Hotel and the Cam Byron lot behind Hotel Joseph Hewes.

Clerk of Court E. W. Spiers was the speaker at the Rotary meeting when he pointed out some of the advantages of the new Albemarle Sound bridge.

Colored religionists from all over North Carolina and as far away as New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Tennessee attended the 73rd annual Sunday School Convention and the 39th annual BYPU convention held at the Providence Baptist Church.

John Harrison Spruill, oldest white man in Chowan County, was guest of honor at a birthday dinner at the home of his son, Harrison Spruill. It was Mr. Spruill's 80th birthday.

J. H. Haskett was recovering from an appendectomy at St. Vincent's Hospital in Norfolk.

Charles H. Wood, Jr., was cited for academic excellence in mathematics at The Citadel Military College.

Rocky Hock Demonstration Club held a picnic at Colerain Beach.

Electricity was cut off in Edenton almost half a day due to a large tree falling over the main line between Suffolk and Winfall.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. John E. Dail, whom God called to rest August 16, 1952.

One dear loved one through the Gates of Peace;
To live with Jesus where rest will never cease.
You are sadly missed.
