

New Books At Local Library

The Shepard-Pruden Memorial Library has received an interesting collection of new books. The selection is varied in interests and should please the most exacting tastes.

For the adult reader: Cameron, The Silent One; Weekly, The House in Ruins; Lincoln, A Dangerous Innocence; Braider, The Palace Guard; Boule, The Other Side of the Coin; Necomb, Abandon Ship; Thorp, Only Akiko; Fitzpatrick, Australian Explorers; Gann, The Trouble With Lazy Ethel; Roth, Beyond My Worth; Innes, The Land God Gave; To Cain; Cooper, Giselle; O'Hara, From The Terrace; Barrett, The Empty Shrine; Nel, Mr. Churchill's Secretary; Stout, Champagne For One; Pasternak, Doctor Zhivago; Polo, Travels of Marco Polo; Admirer Unknown; Ruck, Leap Year Romance; Waugh, Girl Who Cried Wolf; Highsmith, Game For Living; Jennings, Golden Eagle; Bottoms, Heart of Child.

For the Juvenile: Burgess, Adventures of Johnny Chuck; Burgess, Adventures of Buster Bear; Sterling, Silver Spoon Mystery; Dr. Seuss, The Cat in the Hat Comes Back; Elkin, True Book of Schools; Podendorf, True Book of Rocks and Minerals; Carroll, Tough Enough and Sassy; Temple, Shirley Temple's Storybook; Parker, Golden Book of Science.

Farmers To Vote On Referendums Monday, Dec. 15

Chowan County farmers are again urged to remember to vote in the referendums being held next Monday, December 15. "Vote on the referendums you are eligible to vote in," County Agent Overman urges.

All peanut growers are eligible to vote on the peanut assessment referendum. All cotton growers are eligible to vote on the cotton referendum. All tobacco growers are eligible to vote on the tobacco program and also the tobacco assessment referendum.

Voting on all referendums will be held at the same voting places. Polling places are: For "A" community, Hoskin Harrell's store, 8 to 9:30; C. T. Dixon's store, 10 to 2; Grover Cale's store, 2:30 to 6. For "B" community, Rosser Bunch's store, 8 to 9:30; Melvin Evans' store, 10 to 2; Earl Smith's store, 2:30 to 6. For "C" community, H. R. Peele's store, 8 to 9:30; J. E. Perry's store, 10 to 2; L. C. Briggs' store, 2:30 to 6.

These voting places have been scheduled so that they should be convenient for every eligible voter in the county.

"Let's remember that voting is one of the free privileges and responsibilities that we as Americans have," says Mr. Overman. "If we value this privilege, then let's accept the responsibility, go to the polls and cast our ballots as we see fit. A good vote expresses to our state and national leaders the kind of agricultural program our farm people desire. While a small vote will determine the kind of programs we will have, our Congressmen and Senators are seriously concerned about the kind of agricultural programs desired by those who do not vote. Voting is a matter of farm business. Let's look after our business and go to the polls and vote."

St. Paul's Church Vestrymen Elected

At an annual congregational meeting in the Parish House December 3, members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church elected four laymen to the vestry to serve for three years. They were Wilmer Ellis Malone, John Gilliam Wood, Thomas Hoskins Shepard and Judge Marvin Wilson.

Retiring from the vestry at the end of the calendar year are Joseph H. Conger, Sr., John Washington Graham, Richard Hines and Charles H. Wood, Jr. The newly-elected men will be installed the first Sunday in January at 11 A. M.

The congregation adopted a 1959 budget as proposed by the vestry and finance committee and which was based on the every member canvass in November that has exceeded all previous years in both amount and stewardship. The congregation in so doing reflected its willingness to accept its proportion of the 31% general increase to the diocesan and national budgets as proposed and adopted.

John Graham, retiring Senior Warden of the parish, presided over the budget discussion and business session, ably answering questions and explaining the vestry's position in several matters.

At the beginning of the meeting members of the Woman's Auxiliary served dessert and coffee and following the meeting color slides of the General Convention were shown by the pastor.

The Rev. George Holmes also announced some plans in the making for the consecration service to be conducted January 20 and the national recognition the occasion is certain to receive.

MONUMENTS MARKERS MAUSOLEUMS

Permanence!

The desire for permanance is a deep, inherent quality that exists in every woman. That is why the guarantee of the everlasting qualities of a Stone Eternal Memorial has such an appeal because it is a guarantee not only for this generation but for the generations to come.

A memorial to honor... to perpetuate in memory... is a fitting gesture only if it has meaning for the future as well as the present.

To keep alive the memory of the goodness... the greatness of a personality... in your memorial be one that carries with it the certificate of permanance... the Stone Eternal.

The Stone Seal, etched on the base of a monument, is your assurance that it conforms to the highest standards of excellence in design, workmanship and quality and that it is backed by a written Certificate of Guarantee.
