the present law, whereby the wife only comes in for a small share of the property." Mr. Townsend was introduced by Mrs. Alice Twiddy, who was in charge of the program.

The business session was presided over by Mrs. Laura Ferguson, president. Invocation was by Mrs. Lena Leary. Miss Kathryn Aman was welcomed as a guest, after which Miss Inez Felton gave a report on finance. It was announced the flowers were sent in the death of Mrs. Ward, mother of Mrs. Elizabeth Flynn, BPW member.

Thank you letters were read from Mrs. Lloyd Griffin, the Campen family and Mrs. C. P. Wales. Mrs. Lena Leary also thanked the club again for selecting her Club Woman of the Year.

The club voted to submit a name as candidate for the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award. Also voted on was to hold the February and March dinner separation services begin at 8:00 o'clock that evening.

Special music has been arranged by Harry Headden Smith, Jr., and the Senior Choir and an informal reception will follow in the Parish House.

The Parish, which is the oldest in the state of North Carolina, has enjoyed a long history and involves the lives of many distinguished people of the nation's history. This occasion follows a tragic fire of June, 1950, when the building was somewhat destroyed, and further restoration became necessary from which indebtedness the parish is now relieved.

The colorful procession of Bishops and clergymen will be met at the door of the church by the Senior Warden, Dr. Frank Wood, and the Junior Warden, David Minton Warren, together with the Marshals, Joseph H. Conger, Sr., and John Washington Graham, and all members of the Vestry.

meetings at the Edenton Restaurant.

BPW members will cooperate in the March of Dimes drive by canvassing their own streets. The president read a letter from Mrs. Myra Mitchell, district director, in which all coming activities were listed.

The next district meeting will be held in Scotland Neck on March 15. Plans are also in the making for a tour by chartered bus to Washington, D. C., on April 11 and 12.

The president thanked Mrs. Beulah Boswell for the delicious chicken dinner and the meeting adjourned.
