

Chowan HD Clubs Honor Miss Morris

Home Agent Resigns To Accept Position In Raleigh

Many Chowan women donned their spring finery and attended a tea honoring Miss Maired Morris on April 8, between 4 and 5:30 o'clock at the Chowan Community Building. Miss Morris' home economics agent for Chowan County, resigned from her position, effective April 14, to accept a position in Raleigh with the Extension Service office. During her two years in Chowan County, she gained much popularity with the Home Demonstration Club members and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. O. C. Long, Jr., welcomed the guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. C. W. Overman, Miss Maired Morris, Miss Catherine Aman, Mrs. Lester Copeland and Mrs. Fred Castelleo. Mrs. E. N. Elliott presided over the punch bowl. Each one of the 12 clubs had a part in the setting of the lovely, inviting scene, from the spring flowers artistically arranged in the centerpiece to the dainty sandwiches served with the punch.

The gift to Miss Morris, a lovely sterling pitcher, from the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, was on display.

Out-of-county guests included Mrs. Elizabeth Sanderlin, home agent in Currituck County; Mrs. Mamie Sawyer, home agent in Camden County; Miss Edna Bishop, home agent in Pasquotank County; Mrs. J. P. Morgan of Shawboro and Mrs. Sylvia Mathews of Elizabeth City.

1959 Cancer Drive Now In Third Week

1. Begin by making a sacrifice—your own contribution.
2. Know your ASC. Its preventive programs of research and education and friendly neighborly service to the patient and his family. Read the pamphlet "Ring More Doorbells" provided for you.
3. Call on your prospects promptly. (This is the second half). Set your sights high enough.
4. See them all face to face. Good salesmanship means personal solicitation. Let them know what you know.
5. Approach your prospects with confidence. Remember surveys show that 8 out of 10 people want to give to fight cancer.
6. Complete your assignment quickly and turn in your report promptly. Be among the first. 7. Be proud of a job well done and your part in the great crusade of 1959.

Chairmen for the various areas are: Mrs. Roy Spruill, North Edenton; Mrs. Lee Sadler, Mill Village; J. R. DuLaney, business; Mrs. J. D. Elliott, residential. Miss Maired Morris, home economics agent, is again soliciting white people of the rural section of the county through her demonstration clubs. Mrs. J. H. Horton, president of the Negro Women's Club, will solicit colored people with the Negro home agent, Mrs. Onnie Charlton, heading up the campaign in the rural section.

I believe the experience I have gained during my three terms on the Council will be of definite value in the future. C. Of C. Planning Business Directory

The directory will be designed to guide prospective customers to local business establishments. Atkinson said all members of the Chamber of Commerce will be listed under various classifications giving address, telephone number and a brief description of the products and services available.

R. Elton Forehand, Jr., committee member in charge of the directory, said a letter would be sent to all Chamber of Commerce members showing their proposed business classification. "This classification may be changed if desired. Also a member may be listed under two or more classifications for a slight charge." There is no charge for one listing. Forehand added that each member will have the privilege of writing up to six words to describe his merchandise or services.

"We believe such a directory will serve the public by drawing attention of out-of-town visitors and others to the wide selection of quality merchandise and courteous services to be found in Edenton," Forehand said. He expects that the directory will be ready for distribution in about three weeks.

Perquimans County 4-H'ers entertained the group with several musical numbers.

Mrs. Sylvia Mathews introduced Miss Delphia Rawls, VEP Company home economist from Roanoke Rapids as the speaker of the day. Miss Rawls, who toured Europe last summer, gave a travelog of her trip, using colored slides to show the various countries she visited.

During the afternoon session, Mrs. O. C. Long, Jr., presented the Achievement Report for the 25th District. Mrs. Long used as the theme for the report "America The Beautiful". As the report was given, music was played softly in the background.

The committee reports followed the district report. Mrs. I. E. Halsey, Jr., served as chairman of the nominating committee and presented the following report which was accepted: Chairman, Mrs. O. C. Long, Jr., Chowan; first vice chairman, Mrs. John Yon. Currituck; second vice chairman, Mrs. Reid Overman, Pasquotank; third vice chairman, Mrs. Frank Barnes, Gates; secretary, Mrs. Melvin Eure, Perquimans; treasurer, Mrs. Cutis Toler.

Mrs. George Wood, outgoing chairman, presided during the day. The Perquimans County executive board members welcomed the group with a game of "Musical Bingo". Various songs were played representing the seven counties. "I'm A Little Teapot" was quickly identified as the song welcoming Chowan County.

Mrs. George Hewitt of Pasquotank County, gave an inspiring devotional using the 10th chapter of Matthew as the basis of her remarks. She spoke on the "Standard of Values" for club women.
