

Band Will Present Spring Concert At School On May 21

Highlight of Program Will Be Presentation Of Two Very Coveted Awards

The Edenton Junior-Senior High School Band will present its spring concert on Thursday evening, May 21, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The concert will be given in the auditorium at the Junior-Senior High School. There will be no charge for admission.

Special guests at the concert will be the Junior High School Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Mary L. Browning, and the Elementary School Band under the direction of Derwood Bray. The Junior-Senior High School Band will present a program of varied music, ranging from Johann Sebastian Bach's celebrated "Air For the G String" to a real gone present day version of the story of "Little Red Riding Hood," set to music and titled "Little Bop Ridin' Hood." Sandwiched in between these two extremes will be music by King, Ivanovic, Foreman, Yoder, Lee, Walters and Davis.

The highlight of the program will be the presentation of the band's two highest honors, the Musical Achievement Award and the John Philip Sousa Award.

The musical achievement award will go to the student who has made the most progress on his or her instrument during the past year. The award is given by the Edenton Chamber of Commerce and will be presented by John Graham, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The John Philip Sousa Award will go to the student who, through his or her outstanding interest and loyalty to the band has contributed most to the advancement of the band program during the past year. This award is given by the Edenton Rotary Club and will be presented by Dr. Ed Bond, president of the Edenton Rotary Club.

Chowan Cooperative Produce Exchange Will Open June 1st

Produce auction sales will start at the Chowan Cooperative Produce Exchange at Valhalla Station, six miles north of Edenton on Highway 32, Monday, June 1, at 1 P. M., as announced by E. L. Pearce, vice president. S. F. Hicks will be the auctioneer and manager, assisted by Willis Bond, who will look after platform sales. The Long Distance phone number is Edenton 9886 and will be answered by Mr. Bond.

Snap beans, cabbage, yellow and white squash will start the sales on opening day. Beans should be in volume by the middle of the week and which should continue in volume for two or three weeks. This area has approximately 600 acres planted in Black Valentines and Bountifuls.

Polio Shot Clinic

Edenton Jaycees announce that a polio shot clinic has been scheduled to be held Friday, May 29. The clinic will be held at the Penelope Barker house from 7 to 9 P. M., with a charge of $1.00.

The Jaycees urge all who have not received polio shots to take advantage of this clinic.

A Poppy For Remembrance

"Flowers of memory for the dead—flowers of hope for the living... is an appropriate description of the memorial poppies to be worn on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 23.

These bright red flowers were made by disabled veterans. Thousand of disabled veterans are given employment making poppies for the American Legion Auxiliary. It enables the men to earn money again for themselves and their families.

Poppy Day contributions help the Auxiliary in their work for disabled veterans and needy children.

Won't you wear a poppy on Poppy Day, May 23? Ask members of the Legion Auxiliary.

Club At Center Hill Plans Variety Show

Center Hill Home Demonstration Club is sponsoring a variety show consisting of local talent on Friday, June 26, at 8 o'clock in the Chowan High School auditorium.

Any person or groups who would care to volunteer are requested to contact Mrs. E. P. Jones, Mrs. B. P. Monds or Mrs. H. T. Hollowell.

The proceeds of this variety show will go to Explorer Post No. 154 to help defray the expenses of five boys who plan to go to Philmont Ranch in August.

Edenton Junior-Senior High School Band Will Present Spring Concert Thursday, May 21

Above is pictured the Edenton Junior-Senior High School Band which will present its spring concert Thursday night, May 21, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. Members of the band include: Patsy Mooney, Brenda Mooney, Carol Joy Miller, Priscilla Bunch, Ellen Basnight, Bud Skiles, Dick Hobowsky, Judy Elliott, Linda Wheeler, Gloria Crumme, Peggy Williams, Anita Sexton, Carol Forehand, Carolyn Twiddy, Dianne Goodwin, Mary Ann Overton, Barbara Layton, Jimmy Ashley, John Marshall, Gloria Byrum, Marian Collins, Billy Twiddy, Lorean Wrigat, Karen Hollowell, Bert Willis, Vern Goodwin, Tim Overman, Jimmy Baker, Bob Powell, John Bunch, Tommy Leary, Joan Goodwin, Judy Byrum, Carolyn Stallings, Jerry Yarborough, Ashby Tarkington, Mac Privott, John Martin, Ronnie Rountree, C. T. Mizelle, Ronnie Sawyer, H. L. Edwards, Buck Wheeler, Douglas Sexton, Bill Bootwright, Billy Harrell and Billy Cates. Derwood Bray is the director. No admission will be charged to attend the banquet.

Graduation Finals At C. H. S. Friday Night, May 29th

Dr. Robert Holt, Registrar of East Carolina College, Will Be Speaker

Commencement exercises began at Chowan High School on Tuesday night of this week when a music recital was presented.

Class night exercises will be held Friday night, May 22, at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The feature of this program will be in the form of a play "Senorella" with seniors and Beta Club members participating. The cast includes Lynda Copeland, Margaret Raines, Jerry White, Margie Harrell, Lloyd Wayne Evans, Jackie Asbell, Ann Portesque, Durwood Dale, Baker Hollowell, Sarah Ann Bunch, Gerald Harrell, Barbara Jordan, Frank Evans, Gloria Bunch, Patsy Privott, Joe Hollowell, Kay White, Perry, Phyllis Byron, Emily Leary, Lloyd Gene Chappell, Gene Harrell, Danny Nixon, Bill Welch, Fletcher Perry, Mary Ash-Concluded on Page 6—Section 1

Guardsmen Will Return Sunday

In the neighborhood of 50 enlisted men and 10 officers of the local National Guard Unit were called to Henderson Thursday in connection with the troublesome textile strike.

According to Lieut. Charlie Swanner, commanding officer of the local company, the local Guardsmen will return home about noon Sunday if everything goes according to schedule.

Major Cecil Fry, S-4 of the Second Battalion Group, was called to Henderson Tuesday of last week, but was released to return to Edenton due to the approaching closing of school.

Edenton Trio At Pinehurst Meeting

Mrs. Joe Thorud, Mrs. Wesley Chesson, Jr. and Mrs. Robert J. Boyce left Tuesday for Pinehurst, where they are attending the annual convention of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. The local group expects to return home Friday.

CIVIC CALENDAR

A dance will be held at the VFW home on the old Herford road Saturday night from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Edenton's Lions Club will meet Monday night at 7 o'clock.

William H. Catfield, Jr., Post No. 2222, Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The State Highway Commission will hold a public hearing at the Chowan County Courthouse at 10 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend 4-H Church Sunday service at Center Hill Baptist Church at 11:00 A. M., May 24, and Warwick Swamp Baptist Church on the 31st.

Mrs. Emmett Jones Is Named "Woman Of Year" By Chowan Home Demonstration Clubs

Conscientious, industrious, enthusiastic, thoughtful and well-liked by her friends and neighbors is a true picture of Mrs. Emmett Jones, Chowan Home Demonstration Clubs' "Woman of the Year."

Mrs. Jones is an active member of the Center Hill Home Demonstration Club and was featured as the "Homemaker of the Month" on August 14, 1958. She is now serving as publicity leader for her club.

Marguerite has been very active in community affairs for many years. This past year, she was a leader in the Community Progress contest which was sponsored in the county by the Peoples Bank & Trust Company. Through her untiring effort and the cooperation of the community, Center Hill won second place in the contest.

Not only is Mrs. Jones an active leader in club, church, school and community activities, but has

Guest Preacher At Baptist Church On Sunday Morning

Next Sunday, May 24, Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker will preach at the morning worship service of the Edenton Baptist Church. Dr. Whitaker is president of Chowan College at Murfreesboro. He is well-known at the Edenton Baptist Church, having spoken there on several other occasions.

Dr. Whitaker is preaching in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. R. N. Carroll, who is attending the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Louisville, Kentucky.

There will be no Sunday evening service and Training Union at the church because of the commencement service at the high school.

4-H Church Sunday Programs Planned At Center Hill Baptist And Warwick Baptist Churches

A 4-H Church Sunday program will be observed at Center Hill Baptist Church Sunday, May 24, at 11:00 A. M., and at Warwick Baptist Church the following Sunday at the same hour. 4-H Club members and local leaders will be in complete charge of the services.

Mrs. Emmett Jones is local leader of the Center Hill group and Paul Blanchard is leader of the Gliden group. Under the of these two leaders, each church of these two leaders, each church should have an excellent 4-H Church Sunday program. There are many reasons why club members and rural churches observe 4-H Sunday:

1. To enable 4-H members to think together about home, community, and world events in spiritual terms.
2. To develop in 4-H members a deeper understanding of the re-

Dr. Archie Walker New Chairman Of Red Cross Chapter

In a change in the Chowan County Red Cross Chapter, Dr. Archie Walker has been named chairman. Dr. Walker succeeds Graham White, who has served in that capacity for two years.

Another change is that W. B. Gardner will serve as chairman of the blood program in Chowan County. Mr. Gardner succeeds Joseph K. Swanner, who has served as the chairman for four years. Mr. White, retiring Red Cross Chairman, says Mr. Swanner is to be commended for the splendid job he has done in connection with the blood program.

The next visit of the bloodmobile is scheduled for Friday, June 5, which will be the last visit for the fiscal year.

It has been pointed out that approximately 180 pints of blood will be needed when the bloodmobile appears to reach the county's quota of 400 pints for the year.

The need for blood is very great, so those in charge of the bloodmobile hope enough people will volunteer to contribute a pint of blood to meet the county's quota.

Edenton Trio Will Attend Hiway Meet

The Ocean Hiway Association will hold its twenty-fifth annual meeting on May 22 and 23 at the Hotel Fort Sumter in Charleston, South Carolina.

The meeting will begin with an executive committee meeting on Friday, May 22, at 10 A. M., and business sessions will be held on Saturday, May 23. The group will be the guests of the Chesapeake Bay Ferry District Saturday evening and the annual dinner will be held on Saturday night.

Heading the delegation attending the meeting from Edenton will be Ernest J. Ward, Jr., president of the Ocean Hiway Association; Grayson H. Harding, chairman of the board, and Shelton W. Moore, a member of the board of directors.

20 Years Ago

As Found in the Files of The Chowan Herald

Mrs. Lillie Mae Ward filed suit in Superior Court asking $20,000 damages as the result of being charged with stealing a pair of 69-cent hose from the Rose store.

The Board of Public Works announced a new schedule of rates for electric consumption in Edenton.

As the result of a petition Continued on Page 6—Section 1

Bloodmobile Is Again Scheduled to Appear In Edenton on Friday, June 5

Time management is very important in the busy schedule of Mrs. Jones but she finds ample time to spend with her husband and son and is very interested in their activities.

It is a distinct honor to be chosen as "Homemaker of the Year". Mrs. Jones was chosen from the 11 homemakers who were featured during the year.

Judges for the contest were Miss Marjorie Shearin, Extension specialist in Raleigh; Edward Burks, Extension news editor, Raleigh, and Mrs. Frances Rock, homemaker in Raleigh.

Other homemakers featured Continued on Page 6—Section 1

Shelton Moore On Motel Board

The North Carolina Motel Association ended its two-day convention in Greensboro last Friday, May 15. At the final business session of the convention the district governors that make up the board of directors from 20 districts across the state were elected. S. W. Moore of the Eden Motel in Edenton was elected governor of area 1. This area takes in the counties of Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Camden, Hertford, Pasquotank, Perquimans and Gates.

LEGION MEETS TUESDAY

Ed Bond Post No. 40 of the American Legion will meet Tuesday night, May 26, at 8 o'clock. Commander Woodrow Slade requests a full attendance.

Construction Of Pier Appeals To Town Councilmen

Bandsman Of Week

GLORIA CRUMMEY The Edenton Junior-Senior High School Bandsman for this week is Gloria Crumme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Crumme. Gloria plays B-flat clarinet in the concert and marching bands, and this is her fourth year in the band. Besides her activities in the band, she is a member of the Future Homemakers of America. She is a member of the Presbyterian Church in Edenton.

Cub Scouts Will Meet May 26th

Cub Scout Pack No. 159 will meet at the Edenton armory Tuesday night, May 26, at 7:30 o'clock. The theme of the month is "Musical Hoe Down."

Awards will be presented to the Cub Scouts who have earned them.

An enjoyable program has been planned with square dancing and a "Cub Scout Beauty Contest." Each den is selecting a Cub Scout to represent their den. A prize will be presented to the winner of the contest.

All Cub Scouts and their families are urged to attend.

87 Chowan County Boys And Girls Enter Pumpkin Contest

A total of 87 Chowan boys and girls are enrolled in the 1959 Chowan County pumpkin growing contest, which is sponsored by Edgar L. Pearce, seedsman of Rocky Hook. This contest is limited to any Chowan boy or girl between the ages of 6 and 15 inclusive, who is interested in gardening or agriculture and who signed an application by April 30. This includes all 4-H, FFA, NFA and FHA members as well as non-club members within the age limits who attend school in Chowan County.

The purpose of the contest is to encourage all eligible boys and girls to grow pumpkins for food and for decorative purposes.

Each contestant agrees to plant the seed furnished by the sponsor, cultivate the vines properly, and to bring his largest pumpkin to the Chowan County Fair on opening day. The pumpkins will be weighed and judged by an official committee. Prizes for the largest pumpkins grown in this contest will be: First, $5.00 and ribbon; second, $3.00 and ribbon; third, $2.00 and ribbon, and next seven prizes, $1.00 each and ribbons. Contestants having the ten largest pumpkins agree to enter their pumpkins in the Chowan County Fair.

Mr. Pearce sponsored a similar contest in 1956 and 1957. It was temporarily discontinued in 1958. Pumpkin seed were given to the contestants recently.

The contestants are urged to do a good job in growing their pumpkins, says Bob Marsh, assistant county agricultural agent. From four to six seeds should be planted in a hill, with hills being approximately 16 feet apart.

Continued on Page 6—Section 1

MRS. EMMETT JONES Chowan County Home Demonstration Club member, who has been selected a "Homemaker of the Month," are delighted to learn that Mrs. Emmett Jones, a member of the Center Hill Home Demonstration Club, has been selected as "Homemaker of the Year."