Plans Progressing For Talent Show
Center Hill Home Demonstration Club members are pleased with plans which are in the making for a variety show to be held June 26 in the Chowan High School auditorium at 8 o'clock. There will be a rehearsal at the auditorium on Tuesday night, June 23, at 8 o'clock. Featured on the show will be entertainers from the surrounding counties, Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va. Frank Roberts of Edenton radio station WCDJ will be on hand to MC this program, and an evening of varied acts will assure one of excellent entertainment. Center Hill Home Demonstration Club is the only club of its kind to sponsor an Explorer Post and proceeds of this show will go to defray expenses of the Explorers who plan to go to Philmont Ranch in August. The purest affection of the heart can hold is the honest love of a nine-year-old.

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Greenville, Miss Eleanor Ann Ruffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alger Coleman Ruffin of Greenville, became the bride of Richard Norfleet Hines, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norfleet Hines of Edenton. The Rev. John Drake, assisted by the Rev. George B. Holmes of Edenton, officiated. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. John S. Kittrell, organist; Miss Jane Fuller, soloist, and the choir under the direction of George Johnson of Oxford. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, short shirred sleeves and a portrait neckline. The bodice and voluminous skirt were appliqued with medallions of alencon lace trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The back featured a bustle which extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip mantilla was edged with matching alencon lace. She carried a prayer book centered with a white orchid and showered with white cymbidiums and stephanotis. The bride followed family tradition by wearing pearl earrings and pin which the paternal great-grandmother of the bridegroom wore at her wedding. She also wore a gold heirloom bracelet, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Margaret Ruffin served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susanne Continued on Page 8, Section 2
