

Miss Ann Lee Mayo Becomes Bride Of John Edgar Morris

Wedding Solemnized Saturday Afternoon In Methodist Church At Plymouth

Miss Ann Lee Mayo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jesse Mayo, and John Edgar Morris, son of Mrs. John Edgar Morris of Hertford and the late Mr. Morris, were united in marriage in a Saturday afternoon ceremony in the Plymouth Methodist Church. The Rev. A. D. Byrd, assisted by the Rev. W. M. Howard, Jr., of Greenville, officiated.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert W. Johnston, organist, and Miss Jane DuLaney of Edenton, soloist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her brother, William Lyman Mayo, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white hand clipped Chantilly lace over tulle and a basque bodice accented by a sapphire neckline forming cap sleeves and dipping to a "V" in the back. The bouffant skirt with pleated nylon tulle insets fell into a slight train. Her double titted fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a bandeau of net and seed pearl leaves, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Ann Lassiter was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. George R. Clarke, Jr., of Pulaski, Va., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Brenda Armstrong of Charlotte, niece of the bride; Miss Neel Dupree of Lawrenceville, Va., and Miss Mildred Morris of Raleigh. The attendants wore ballerina length dresses of romance blue silk organza fashioned with portrait necklines forming short puff sleeves and old-fashioned picture hats trimmed in matching velvet ribbon. They carried sprays of white daisies.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Sue Lassiter, Miss Jane Midyette of Fairfield, and Miss Patricia Everton of Raleigh. They wore pastel afternoon dresses and shoulder corsages of white daisies.

Best man was William D. Billings of Edenton. Groomsman included Douglas Morgan Padgett of Spindale, William Lewis Fleming, Jr., of Henderson, Clarence Eugene White and William Howard Williams, Jr., both of Hertford.

For her daughter's wedding, the mother of the bride chose a dress of Dior blue crepe and re-embroidered Alencon lace with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of powder blue embroidered nylon organza with matching nylon accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages of pink cymbidium orchids.

After the ceremony the wedding party received in the vestibule of the church. Immediately afterwards the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Ocracoke Island. For traveling the bride wore a sheath of white Irish linen with a pink salk taffeta sash emphasizing the empire waistline, pink and white accessories, and a shoulder corsage of lilies of the valley lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Morris attended Meredith College, was graduated from East

Carolina College, where she was a member of Sigma Pi Alpha and Kappa Delta Pi, honorary fraternities, and was listed in Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges. She has done graduate work at the Sorbonne, University of Paris.

A graduate of Duke University, Mr. Morris was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

After July 1, the couple will make their home in Roxboro.

Winners Named In Fishing Contest

The first prize for striped bass (rockfish) went to William H. Wells, Edenton, for a 4 pound and 10 ounce entry measuring 24 inches. Wells hooked the fish on a Pet spoon in Edenton Bay. The runner-up was Bobby Byrum with a 3 pound 9 ounce entry. Rockfish are running with good catches being reported. Frank Twiddy and John Byrum, Edenton, brought in 34 weighing up to 4 pounds and 6 ounces. Others reporting good catches were Robert Harrell, Nashville, Tenn., and Rodney Harrell, Sr., of Edenton. The railroad bridge in the Sound is the hot spot for rock.

The first white perch entered in this year's contest took the award for Shelton Rogerson, Edenton. His entry weighed 1 pound and 1 ounce, measuring 13 inches. Rogerson used a Supersonic lure in Albemarle Sound.

A 1 pound and 7 ounce crappie (speckled perch) won the award in this class for Arnold Driver, Edenton. It was caught in Pembroke Creek on minnows. Runner-up was Clifton Bond with a 1 pound and 1 ounce entry caught in Rocky Hock Creek.

Lloyd Peele, Edenton, won the bream class award with a 14 1/2 ounce entry caught in Chowan River on a Fly Bug lure. It measured 10 1/2 inches. George Lewis, Edenton, just missed the award with a 13 ounce entry.

All winners received gift certificates for merchandise at Byrum Hardware Company, Edenton. Hardware - Parker Hardware Company, Western Auto Store and Edenton Restaurant.

Joe Thorud, chairman of the Tourist and Recreation Committee, said the last monthly contest closes July 20. He emphasized that fishing in the area is good and all catches should be reported at official weighing stations.

ROTARIANS MEET TODAY

The program will include the Gates County Ramblers; a novelty brother and sister act from Ahsokie; Judy Evans in a piano solo, "Busy Fingers"; Kay Lowe, Nella Lowe and Gail Hare singing a medley of popular tunes, accompanied by Doris Jean Cale, Lewis Evans and Ray Hollowell will be on hand with a western number; the J-Jacks in their song and dance routine; Loretta Benton in her Minnie Pearl act; Jerry White, Jimmy Hollowell, Isaac Byrum, Jr., and C. W. Overman each will do a solo number in each one's own style.

Robbie Boyce and Ruth Ann Bass will sing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"; Little Susan Harrell will sing "Pink Shoe Laces"; Patricia Nixon will be seen in a hula hoop act; Mrs. Geraldine Evans in an unusual number entitled "You and You and You, and Probably You"; Judy Lynn Raiford, majorette from Portsmouth, Va., will be featured in a baton act; Rocky Hock Quartet will sing a medley of tunes with Britton Byrum at the piano; Belinda Perry will sing and dance; the Knight Tots with Annie Marie Liles will each do a single and then a duet; Peggy and Ronnie Goodwin in a jitterbug dance; all from Gates County; John Mitchener and his boys will be seen in a "Gunsmoke" skit; Emily Leary and Marjorie Parrish each will do a number.

Tickets will be available at the door. Two cakes will be sold and door prizes from the Center Hill businesses will be given away during intermission.

The show is for the benefit of Tyner Explorer Post No. 154 which Center Hill Home Demonstration Club sponsors, and all club members urge the public to attend this show for an evening of fun and entertainment.

National Guardsmen Get Highest Rating

The division's arsenal, when the eight inch howitzer was added to the artillery. Firing these for the first time, the heavy equipment specialists agreed that handling the huge weapon was a real challenge to them.

All units returned from the bivouac area on Thursday, June 18. Maintenance of equipment and cleaning of weapons and vehicles were first on the list of preparations for return home.

E. K. White Dies In Hospital At Durham

Ebert K. White, 52, died Tuesday morning at 8:20 o'clock in the Veterans Hospital at Durham after an illness of three weeks. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Edenton Baptist Church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Alice W. Barber; two brothers, Herbert L. White of Suffolk and Herman F. White of Edenton.

County Budget For 1959-60 Approved

General County Fund - $103,934.00. From this $73,934.00 income is anticipated, $42,000.00 from ABC store earnings and surplus, $13,000.00 from Recorder Court costs and $18,934.00 General County Fund surplus, so that the levy is $30,000.00.

The $1.00 tax rate is made up as follows: 14 cents for bonds, 8 cents for charity, 7 cents for health, 49 cents for schools, 7 cents for welfare and 15 cents for the general county fund.

The budget will be officially adopted by the County Commissioners at their meeting Monday, July 6. The budget is on display in the County Accountant's office for the convenience of anybody who desires to inspect it.

Regional Library Considers Budget

The Board of Trustees is very much pleased with the evident progress of the Pettigrew Regional Library and feels confident that with something like more adequate funds this progress will continue and accelerate.

Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. J. Robert Campbell, chairman, Washington County; Thomas Shepard, vice chairman, Chowan County; Mrs. C. E. Morris, secretary, Tyrrell County; E. E. Harrell, treasurer, Washington County; Mrs. George Mack, Chowan County; Mrs. S. M. McMullan, Chowan County; Mrs. W. A. Basnight, Tyrrell County; Jack Daventon, Tyrrell County; T. R. Spruill, Washington County, and Mrs. Eugenia R. Babylon, director.

The first time a British flag was hauled down and replaced by an American flag was in 1775 in Charleston, S. C., on U. S. 17, the Ocean Highway.

Chowan Baptist Association T. U. Meets At Center Hill

"Christians should always remember to say a good word for Jesus Christ," declared the Rev. Dr. W. D. Morris as he brought the inspirational message at the annual convention of the Chowan Baptist Association Training Union held at the Center Hill Baptist Church. Morris is pastor of the Temple Baptist Church of Wilmington, N. C., a native of Gates County and a former pastor in the Chowan Association.

Presiding during the convention was the Rev. Lamar Sentell, Associational T. U. director and pastor of the Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church. The convention program included hymn singing led by Joe Gantt, minister of music and education at the Edenton Baptist Church; a devotional period led by the Rev. Frank Dinwiddie of the Nags Head Baptist Church; special music by the Warwick Baptist Church and a solo by Miss Peggy Cartwright of the Corinth Baptist Church.

The business session, with Miss Anne Sawyer, associate T. U. director, presiding, included the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary, Mrs. Victor Morgan; a report by the resolutions committee by the Rev. William Purcell; an attendance report by the secretary; a report of the nominating committee by the Rev. D. C. Pryor, and the election of officers.

Elected to serve during the next associational year are: The McCall, adult leader; Mrs. Dallas Garris, young people's leader; the Rev. Gilbert Mister, intermediate leader; Mrs. Charles Overman, junior leader; Mrs. Russell Cottingham, children's worker; the Rev. Harland Getts, Dare and Currituck district leader; Miss Yvonne Ferrell, Camden and Pasquotank district leader; the Rev. Russell Cottingham, Gates, Perquimans, Chowan district leader; the Rev. Leighton Lewis, Hyde, Washington, Tyrrell district leader, and the Rev. Wilbur Presson, pastor-advisor.

The convention included a picnic lunch served on the lawn of the Center Hill Baptist Church, with arrangements made by the ladies of Center Hill.

Our sweetest experiences of affection are meant to point us to that realm which is the real and endless home of the heart.

AN APPRECIATION

We want to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to everybody who so willingly came to our rescue and offered their services during our unfortunate Sunday afternoon when our barn was demolished during a storm. Words fail to express our appreciation for the help offered us.
