Carolyn Riddick Becomes Bride Of Arthur Pearce, Jr.

Wedding Takes Place In the Sandy Cross Baptist Church

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Faye Riddick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace Riddick of Hobbsville and Arthur D. Pearce, Jr., of Gates, son of Mrs. Arthur D. Pearce and the late Mr. Pearce took place Sunday, June 14, at 7 P. M., at the Sandy Cross Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Brown before a background of palms, baskets of white gladioli and lighted candles. Conrad Plyler of Gatesville played the traditional wedding music. Mrs. James Wright of Hobbsville was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, J. W. Riddick, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with a fitted bodice, high round collar accented with seed pearls, long tapering sleeves ending in wedding peaks over the hands, full bouffant skirt styled with alternating rows of lace and nylon tulle in front and swept into a full chapel train.

She wore a veil of imported bridal illusion fingertip length arranged from a pearl and sequin queen's crown and carried a white orchid showered on a white lace Bible.

Miss Nancy Faye Mathias, the bride's friend in school, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon sheer, embossed with a velvety over pink taffeta, styled with scooped neckline and brief sleeves. Taffeta with mock bow and streamers highlighted the full skirt. She wore a matching bandeaux of Swiss straw with sheer circular veil and carried a cascade of blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Shirley Marie and Elizabeth Hope Riddick of Hobbsville, the bride's sisters; Miss Patsy Waff of Edenton and Miss Gloria Jean Temple of Elizabeth City, the bride's cousins. They wore outfits identical to the honor attendant in bluebird blue and bandeaux. They carried cascades of pink carnations.

The bride's brother, James Wallace Riddick, Jr., was best man. Groomsmen were Robert Earl Taylor and W. D. Pearce, Jr., of Sunbury, Ronnie Temple of Elizabeth City, and Carl Webb of Gatesville.

Mrs. M. Carter of Norfolk was mistress of ceremonies. The bride's mother wore a dress of blue lace with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. Little Misses Gwendolyn Russell and Beverly Carl Byrum of Elizabeth City, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. The ringbearer was Walter Raye Riddick, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall at the church. The hall was decorated with ivy and pine trees and the table was centered with a bridal cake. Mrs. Edward Waff and Mrs. Ray Byrum, aunts of the bride, presided at the cake cutting, with Mrs. Sylvia Campbell and Mrs. Robert Russell, also aunts of the bride, presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. A. A. Purdee presided at the bride's book and Mrs. Lonnie Riddick said goodbyes.

After a wedding trip to New York the newlyweds are making their home in Norfolk.
