The Rev. Bryan W. Hollowell, Jr., heard the pledge of vows in a setting formed by baskets of white gladioli, candelabras holding burning tapers and palms. Pews were marked with white satin bows.

A recital of wedding music was presented by Earl Harrell, organist, and Jerry White, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, J. T. Layton, Jr., of Jacksonville, wore a gown of chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice was featured with a sabrine neckline and face scalloped sleeves. The full length skirt was fashioned with a scalloped overskirt of lace. GUM POND PICNIC

At the regular Gum Pond Club meeting in August the club women, their husbands, families and other families in the community met at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith on the Chowan River for an evening of fun, fellowship and to enjoy a picnic supper.

The table was spread with country ham, fried chicken, vegetables, sandwiches, home-made cakes and many other delicious country dishes.

There were 58 present from the club and community, including Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith, Miss Catherine Aman, assistant home agent, and Harry Centers, new farm agent.

Toward the end of the meal rain began to fall and the women began to hurry around clearing the table and Mrs. Smith invited everyone into the house.

Once inside, the club women held a short meeting to decide whether or not to canvass for the Farm Bureau. They all voted to do this to help add to their club treasury.

This concluded an enjoyable evening for everyone.

Accessories and an orchid corsage. After a wedding trip, the newlyweds will be at home in Hertford. For travel the bride changed to a blue sheath dress of polished cotton and wore the orchid from the prayer book.

Mrs. Chappell is a graduate of Chowan High School and the bridegroom a graduate from Perquimans High School.
