

'59 Chowan County Fair Scheduled For Week Of Oct. 12-17

Residents of County Requested to Enter Exhibits in Various Departments

The annual Chowan County Fair will be held October 12-17 at the American Legion Building and Fair Grounds on U. S. 17 south.

The fair is sponsored by the Edward G. Bond Post No. 40 of the American Legion in cooperation with the Chowan County Fair Association.

A total of $3,000 is being offered in prizes, according to R. S. Marsh, president of the Fair Association. The George Clyde Smith shows have been contracted again this year to be on the midway.

Marsh said he hopes this fair will exceed last year's, which was the best fair to date. He encourages the residents of Chowan County to enter the numerous divisions of competition and particularly to bring livestock for judging.

There are 11 departments: Field crops, livestock, poultry, horticulture, bees and honey, adult and junior booths, arts and crafts, clothing, canning, cakes and candies and decorative plants and flowers. In addition there are nine sub-divisions restricted to FFA and 4-H Club members.

The categories range from spotted Poland China sows to terrariums. Also included are paintings, needle point, shoe shine boxes, African violets, the best crabapple jelly, etc.

Applications for entries will be received at the office of the management anytime until 8 A. M. October 12, except for livestock, poultry and booths, which must be registered by 6 P. M. October 9.

A grand champion trophy will be awarded by Home Feed & Fertilizer Company of Edenton to the winning non-commercial booth in addition to regular prizes offered by the Fair Association.

Fifteen hundred premium lists have been sent to box holders in the county. Extra copies may be obtained from the Fair Association.

Pocahontas To Visit Elizabeth City Council

A group of members of Chowanoke Council No. 54, Degree of Pocahontas, plan to visit the Elizabeth City Council Monday night, October 5. Degree work will be conferred at the meeting. Any member planning to attend the meeting is requested to contact Mrs. Marina Crumrey.

Edenton Aces Win Fourth Game In Row By Defeating Stubborn Williamston Green Wave 26-0

Edenton's Aces won their fourth consecutive game of the season and their first Albemarle Conference contest Friday night when they easily defeated Williamston High School on the Williamston football field by a score of 26-0. While the Aces were held scoreless by a stubborn Green Wave during the first and third quarters, they exploded in the second and fourth periods to score two touchdowns in each quarter.

Jerry Tolley played a sensational game, providing thrills for Edenton fans as he scored three of the Aces' touchdowns on 17 and 14-yard jaunts and the other wiggling over the touchdown stripe from 4 yards out. The other touchdown, the first of the game, Richard Dixon caused an outburst of bedlam in the Edenton camp when he ran, twisted and sidestepped 51 yards to score. Bubba Hopkins and Leroy Spivey, while not making a touchdown, added considerable yardage by their unending thrusts through the line. The quartet of hard running backs were credited with piling up a

Cart Pushers

Mrs. W. E. Bond, Sr., early this week selected a group of Hospital volunteers who will push the hospitality cart at Chowan Hospital during October.

The group includes Mrs. J. Clarence Leary, Sr., Mrs. Albert Byrum, Mrs. Thomas Ward, Mrs. W. E. Bond, Jr., and Mrs. A. B. Harless, Sr.

Quarterly Conference At Evans Church

A quarterly conference will be held at the Evans Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, October 4, at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. R. L. Jerome, district superintendent, will preside and all members of the church are urged to be present.

The usual service at 9:30 A. M. will be suspended due to the conference.

Young Churchmen Of St. Paul's Church Sponsor Fashion Show

The "All American Look" in fashions will be highlighted in a fashion show to be presented on Wednesday, October 14, at St. Paul's Parish House.

Sponsored by the Young Churchmen with the cooperation of Sears, Roebuck and Company's local catalog sales office, the show will feature both live models and colorful slide presentations of the new fall look in fashions for teen-agers.

Commentator for the show will be Mrs. Nancy Carson, local fashion commentator for radio station WCDJ, with Milly Price, Sara Relfe Smith, Kathryn Wozelka, Linda Garrett, Joan Garrett, Cynthia Spencer, Jimmie

Hiram Mayo Speaker At Lions Club Meeting Monday Night

Hiram J. Mayo, principal of the John A. Holmes High School, spoke to the Edenton Lions Club at its regular Monday night meeting on September 28. West Leary had charge of the program. Mr. Mayo was introduced to the group by John A. Holmes, superintendent of Edenton City Schools.

The speaker covered the subject of high school education in five points. First, he pointed out a school must have a good faculty. Mayo stressed that he was pleased with the faculty he had found at the Edenton school. He pointed out that to fill vacan-

Cub Scouts Scheduled To Be Roundup October 6

Feature of Occasion Will Be Weiner Roast Back of Local Armory at 6 P. M.

The local Cub Scout Pack No. 159 will hold its annual Cub Scout roundup Tuesday night, October 6, at 6 o'clock behind the National Guard armory.

This meeting will be in the form of a weiner roast. All boys who are eight years old or who are nearing their eighth birthday and who are interested in Cub Scouting are cordially invited and urged to attend this gala affair with their parents as guests of the Pack.

Survey cards have been mailed this week to all prospective Cub Scouts in this age group. "Come on yo'all, get behind Mom and Dad and let's make this roundup a huge success" say Cub Scout leaders.

All members of Cub Pack 159 are requested to wear their uniforms to school during Roundup Week.

Johnston and Frank Williams Serving as Models for the new garments to be displayed.

"Good appearance is easy to come by, need not be expensive and is an investment in poise and well-being," says Kay Silver, fashion and merchandise editor of "Mademoiselle" Magazine. And the Young Churchmen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church All American Look Fashion Show has been especially designed to point up these important fashion ideas.

Some of the garments to be modeled are currently on display in the American exhibit at the Moscow Trade Fair, Miss Milly Price, chairman of the show said.

Clifton Lee Jordan Claimed Delinquent By Draft Board

William S. Elliott, Sr., chairman of Local Board No. 21, announces that Clifton Lee Jordan has been declared a delinquent by the local Board. Selective Service regulations provide that delinquents shall be ordered to report for induction ahead of other registrants, and that a delinquent who fails to respond shall be reported to the United States Attorney for criminal action.

Anyone having any knowledge concerning Clifton Lee Jordan is requested to contact the Local Board office.

Continued on Page 2—Section 1

20 Years Ago

As Found in the Files of The Chowan Herald

At a special meeting of Town Council plans and specifications for the new Norfolk Southern Bus Corporation were approved.

Dr. W. I. Hart, treasurer of the Edenton-Chowan Chamber of Commerce, reported a canvass resulted in 61 memberships for the year 1958-59.

Representative Lindsay Warren informed Postmaster C. E. [Name] [Address] [City] [State] [Zip] [Phone] [Telex] [Fax] [E-mail] [Web] [Social Media] [Other Contact Info]

Fashion Show Winners

Pictured above are winners in the annual Chowan County Home Demonstration Club fashion show. Left to right, Mrs. Bristoe Perry, Advance Club, street dress; Mrs. McCoy Spivey, Wards Club, wool dress; Mrs. Conroy Perry, Wards Club, lace dress.

Plans Progressing For 25th Reunion Of '34 Aces' Team

School Sends Letters Of Invitation To Entire Group To Be Special Guests October 9

Plans are gradually progressing to observe the 25th anniversary reunion of the 1934 Edenton High School football team which won the first state football championship for Edenton.

This week letters were sent to all who were connected with the team and while it is an impossibility to expect all to return for the celebration, it is hoped many will be here.

While only 12 regular players were used in conference play the entire season, there were 23 connected with the squad, of which Henry House was coach. Of the group, two are deceased, Clyde Lee Cates and Dick Goodwin, trainer. Of the remainder, only seven are in Edenton. These included Carroll Boyce, John Byrum, Frank Holmes, manager, [Name] [Address] [City] [State] [Zip] [Phone] [Telex] [Fax] [E-mail] [Web] [Social Media] [Other Contact Info]

DAR Appreciative For Cooperation In Constitution Week

The Edenton Tea Party Chapter, DAR, Mrs. N. K. Rowell, chairman, wishes to express its thanks and appreciation, through the columns of The Chowan Herald, to the general public for its help and cooperation in the observance of Constitution Week.

Special thanks are extended to the merchants, the town and county officials, the Taylor Theatre, radio station WCDJ churches, schools and service organizations for their generous assistance which made the observance of Constitution Week a success in Edenton and the county.

LIONS MEET MONDAY

Edenton Lions Club will meet Monday night, October 5, at 7 o'clock. T. B. Williford, president, is very anxious to have a 100 per cent meeting.

Annual Lions White Cane Drive Is Now In Progress In Edenton

More than 14,000 Lions of North Carolina are ready and set to launch the annual White Cane Drive for the North Carolina State Association for the Blind.

When the first Lions Clubs began work for the blind 37 years ago, they soon discovered that there was no organized work and very few services were being rendered. After some years of conscientious labor, the Lions decided something more must be done if the blind citizens were to have their rightful opportunities to live and work as other people.

In 1924, North Carolina Lions, along with other civic leaders, met in Statesville to organize the North Carolina State Association for the Blind. The first

John E. Shackelford Begins Practice Of Law In Edenton

Given Oath of Office Thursday; Located In Peoples Bank & Trust Company Building

Edenton now has another attorney in the person of John E. Shackelford, who opened his law office on the second floor of the Peoples Bank & Trust Company in the office formerly used by Attorney Marvin Wilson.

Mr. Shackelford is a native of Andigo, Wisconsin. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, where he received a B.S. degree in civil engineering. He worked in Chicago about six months as a consulting engineer, after which he entered the U. S. Army. He served two years in the army, most of which he was stationed in Panama. After his discharge from the army he again worked about six months in Chicago, after which he enrolled in the University of North Carolina and graduated from the University Law School in January of this year. He received his license to practice law Thursday of last week. Judge Chester Morris administered the oath of office in Elizabeth City.

Mr. Shackelford is married to the former Miss Mary Darden Brewer of Rocky Mount. They have a six-months-old daughter, Mary Darden Shackelford and live on West Eden Street.

Red Men Change Hour Of Meeting

Effective next Monday night, October 5, Chowan Tribe of Red Men will meet each Monday night at 7:30 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock. Clyde Hollowell, sachem of the tribe, urges a full attendance.

Three Young Men Enter Armed Forces

The Department of Defense has requested the Selective Service System to furnish the Armed Forces with 7,000 men during the month of September and 9,000 men during the month of October.

William S. Elliott, Sr., chairman of Chowan County Local Board No. 21 reports this county was not requested to furnish any of these men. However, there were three volunteers for September and two volunteers for October through the Local Board. Volunteers forwarded during September were Albert Ray Rogerson, Charles Thomas Griffin, Jr., and Cotter Bright White, Jr.

ROTARY MEETS TODAY

Edenton's Rotary Club will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Parish House. John A. Holmes is scheduled to present a program and President Jimmy Earnhardt urges every Rotarian to be present.

Aces Preparing To Play Scotland Neck In Conference Tilt

With Four Victories, Local Boys Will Try To Maintain Perfect Record

With three non-conference games and one Albemarle Conference victory under their belts, Edenton's Aces are scheduled to invade Scotland Neck Friday night for their second conference contest.

While the Aces had little difficulty in turning back Williamston's Green Wave last Friday night, Coach Bill Billings was somewhat concerned about the calibre of play on the part of his boys. He detected many mistakes during the game and is this week drilling the Aces for Friday night's battle. On paper the Aces are favored, but Coach Billings realizes that paper calculations do not always prove true.

Scotland Neck's record thus far is not so very impressive, but it is reported that they are

Fire Prevention Week Will Be Observed In Edenton Oct. 4-10

Fire Prevention Week will be observed throughout North Carolina the week of October 4-10. Governor Luther Hodges has issued a proclamation to this effect, and had this to say:

"In an effort to call the public's attention to the ever present need for more effective means of combatting tragic losses of life and property as a result of fire, North Carolina will join the nation in the observance of Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10."

"Experience has shown that only through community action, endorsed and supported by individual citizens, can we develop

Dr. Murray Kantor Of Suffolk Speaker At Rotary Ladies' Night

Edenton Rotarians were hosts to their Rotary Annes and white school teachers of Chowan County at a dinner meeting held in the Masonic Temple Thursday night. The principal speaker for the occasion was Dr. Murray Kantor of Suffolk.

President Jimmy Earnhardt acted as master of ceremonies, calling upon J. L. Chestnut for the invocation and C. W. Overman led in singing three Rotary songs. Mr. Earnhardt extended a warm welcome to the Rotary Annes and school teachers, calling upon each Rotarian to introduce himself and his Rotary Anne. Superintendent W. J. Taylor introduced teachers in the county administrative unit. Principal Hiram Mayo introduced teachers in the John A. Holmes High School and Principal Ernest Swain introduced teachers in the Elementary School.

Mrs. Jerome Senn sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. John

212 State Fair Tickets Received For Students For School Days

School days at North Carolina State Fair will be bigger than ever, attendance wise, if the ticket requests of county and city unit superintendents are any indication.

Free admission tickets to the Fair totaling over 325,000 have been mailed to the some 150 administration units within the past few days, according to Dr. J. S. Dorton, manager of the state's biggest show which opens its 92nd annual exposition Tuesday, October 13. Requests for some units are yet to be received.

School tickets totalling over 212 have been mailed to the city and county superintendents of Chowan County, to be ready for distribution to the students and teachers early in October. The 1959 Fair will have several special attractions for the

Meeting Is Called To Consider Rural Fire Protection

New Attorney

JOHN E. SHACKELFORD

A new attorney located in Edenton Thursday of last week when John E. Shackelford opened a law office on the second floor of the Peoples Bank & Trust Co. Mr. Shackelford will occupy the office formerly used by Marvin Wilson.

All Interested Are Requested To Meet at Chowan High School Oct. 5 at 8 P. M.

Announcement was made early this week that a county-wide meeting of all people interested in rural fire protection will be held in the Chowan High School auditorium. This meeting will be held Monday night, October 5, at 8 o'clock.

It is pointed out that this meeting will be of great importance and that a representation from the State Fire Marshal's office, together with W. J. Yates, Edenton's Fire Chief, will be on hand to answer any questions concerning the requirements of organizing a rural fire district.

A considerable amount of interest has been shown throughout the county concerning organization of rural fire departments, so that it is hoped many rural citizens will attend the meeting.

Fire Chief Yates, Everett White and W. D. Garris, secretary of the Center Hill-Cross Roads district, are especially anxious to have everybody who is interested in rural fire protection present and take part in the discussion.

Red Men Form New First District

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hollowell and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Harrell attended a Red Men and Pocahontas meeting in Washington, N. C. Sunday called for the purpose of reorganizing the First District. At present the First District includes tribes and councils east of Chowan River, but under the new organization, authorized at the meeting of the Great Council in May, the First District will include both organizations east of U. S. Highway 1.

Edenton was signally honored at the organizational meeting by having two officers elected for the District. Leroy Harrell was elected secretary and Mrs. Clyde Hollowell was elected treasurer. Charlie Johnson of Rocky Mount was elected president.

The new district is scheduled to have a meeting in Greenville early in November.

CIVIC CALENDAR

A county-wide meeting will be held in the Chowan High School auditorium Monday night, October 5, at 8 o'clock to discuss rural fire protection.

John A. Holmes High School will observe 25th anniversary of the 1934 state championship football team Friday, October 9.

Cub Scout Pack No. 159 will hold its annual Cub Scout roundup Tuesday night, October 6, at 6 o'clock behind the Edenton armory.

Continued on Page 7—Section 1