United Nations Day This Week

October 24 will mark the fourteenth anniversary of the United Nations. "One interesting way to celebrate that day on a family level," says Miss Pauline Calloway, home economics agent, "is to prepare and serve a meal using at least one recipe from a foreign country." There follow three foreign dishes, easy to prepare and delightful to eat, taken from the cook book "Favorite Recipes From The United Nations."

Denmark's Frikadeller Meat Balls - King Size 34 lb. round beef, ground times 1/4 lbs. shoulder pork, ground

2/3 cup milk 1/2 cup all-purpose flour

1 egg

1 medium onion, grated 11/4 teaspoon salt

½ teaspoon pepper

gredients except butter, stirring well until light, airy and smooth.

2. Next, to form meat ball, dip a tablespoon in and out of the hot butter in large skillet over medium heat. Then dip spoon into meat mixture, round off top on side of bowl, and let slide into hot butter. Repeat 12 to 14 times.

Chinese Chop Suey
