

60 - SECOND SERMONS

— By —
FRED DODGE

Text: "Guilt has quick ears to an accusation"

—Henry Fielding.

"Billy," the Sunday School teacher asked, "do you know where the Red Sea is?"

Billy flushed a little and stammered, "Y-ye-yes, ma'am. It's on the third line of my report card."

Have you ever had a friendly chat and then learned that someone was offended by something you said? Everyone has been offended by innocent remarks of others.

If we would admit it, we are offended because we feel guilty. Guilt joins us unbidden. We cannot escape it. Guilt travels with us, unseen, leaping into view whenever a chance remark unleashes it.

All guilty feelings are not caused by wrong-doing. Often guilt is felt because we think others notice us more than they do. Actually we are not important enough for most people to care about, one way or the other. To feel guilty because we fall short of other people's standards is silly egoism.

Forget that uncomfortable companion. If guilt is caused by wrong-doing, confess it and make it right. If guilt comes from feeling inferior, forget it. You simply aren't that important and never will be. You'll live a joyful life when you drop the unnecessary companionship of guilt.

1960 National Scout Jamboree In Colorado From July 22 To 28

A principal event in the 50th anniversary celebration of the Boy Scouts of America in 1960 will be the fifth national jamboree. Some 53,200 Boy Scouts, Explorers and their adult leaders from all parts of the nation will live together next July 22 to 28 in a 2,000 acre "tent city" on a ranch at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Generally a Scout or Explorer has only one opportunity to be part of the huge jamboree experience where America comes alive as he lives with other boys from all walks of life, of every race and creed. Here he makes new friends. His horizons will widen and his understanding will grow deeper. The jamboree helps a boy appreciate the greatness of his country.

He will have fun and adventure and will know his country better when he sees exhibits and gateways brought from all parts of the United States.

The Tidewater Council, Boy Scouts of America, is busy planning for a representative contingent and a successful experience. Rear Admiral W. K. Romoser, USN, is chairman of the Council's 50th Anniversary Committee. Experienced leaders will head the local contingent and will plan an enjoyable sight-seeing program for the trip to and from the jamboree. Nothing is left to chance. Safe transportation will be provided and each participant attends a pre-jamboree camp.

The Tidewater Council is planning for a contingent of 120 Scouts, Explorers and leaders, to be headed by Lt. James W. Sands, jamboree chairman. It desires every eligible Scout and Explorer to have the opportunity to participate.

Here is an unusual experience each parent of Scouts and Explorers will want for their sons. It is hoped this community will be represented at this greatest gathering of boys in the free world.

Any Boy Scout at least 12 years of age by January 1, 1960, and any Explorer with three months tenure by July 15, 1960, is eligible to participate.

Each participant must satisfy the Council's jamboree committee that he has had adequate camping experience to assure his ability to care for himself in the open and that he has a cooperative attitude towards his fellow Scouts and leader. He shall agree to participate in pre-jamboree training camp of at least three days duration and in other recruiting and training activities as scheduled by our Council.

All participants will be required to submit an official medical examination of physical fitness. Special forms are provided for this.

Jamboree application forms are available at the Council office and will be sent to leaders of all troops and Explorer units. An interesting trip is being planned to and from the jamboree and a rich program is provided at the jamboree. It will be a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

The jamboree fee of $230 includes all expenses including transportation via special Norfolk & Western train in cooperation with six other Virginia Councils. Tours in Chicago, Cripple Creek, Colorado and St. Louis are included in the trip.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The supreme power of God will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" is the Golden Text from Psalms (66:8, 9): "O bless our God, ye people and make the voice of his praise to be heard: which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include this statement of the supremacy of God, Soul: "God is infinite, the only Life, substance, Spirit, or Soul, the only intelligence of the universe, including man" (330:11-12).

From the King James Version of the Bible, the following will be read: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou are clothed with honour and majesty" (Psalms 105:1).

VISITS BRICK CENTER

A salesmanship class of 20 students from East Carolina College, under the instruction of James Beardon of the business faculty, made a trip to Sanford, N. C., November 11, to visit the Sanford Brick and Tile Company, which covers eleven acres and is the brick center of the world.

The students were conducted through the plant, tracing the process of brick-making from its earliest beginnings in the form of fine powder, the molding and slicing of the damp clay into bricks, and their route through the kilns.

Among the students making the trip was Douglas Leary of Edenton.

Make Church - Going a Habit

Sunday School Lesson

ARE YOU AN EVANGELIST?

International Sunday School Lesson for November 22, 1959

Memory Selection: "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." —(John 20:21).

Lesson Text: Acts 8.

This lesson discusses why each Christian must be an evangelist. This is the third of a four-lesson unit on "We Must Decide," the aim of which is to help adults recognize how we make decisions daily which reflect the strength of our convictions and loyalty to Christ and His teachings.

In our study for today we read of the early Evangelists, and of the baptism of the eunuch by Philip.

Certainly in those vital early days of Christian history, every Christian was an evangelist. Philip's evangelistic work, in common with that of a great many other lay Christians, was the main factor in the spread of Christianity in the ancient world. As a result of the great persecution of the church in Jerusalem, the Christians were scattered abroad. In what seemed a disaster, the church found its greatest opportunity: " . . . Those who were scattered went about preaching the word." (Acts 8:4). This does not mean they waited for an invitation to someone's pulpit or synagogue; but "everywhere" in their social and business contacts they "proclaimed to them the Christ" (8:5).

Today one big choice each of us continually makes is between the desire to save ourselves and to give ourselves. Christianity at its best is caring. If we are to live in the kingdom of Heaven where we share the love of God as revealed in Christ, we will continually be choosing ways to share this love with others. And this is what is meant by "evangelism".

Why must every Christian be an evangelist? This is our main question for the day. The answer to it indicates the very heart of what it means to be a Christian.

One of the main reasons for questioning the so-called revival of religion in our day is that there too often is lacking the kind of enthusiastic lay witnessing as demonstrated by Philip. It is necessary that we live our

ONE GREAT CERTAINTY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Ecclesiastes	4	1-6
Monday	Psalms	102	25-28
Tuesday	Daniel	2	28-33
Wednesday	Hebrews	1	9-12
Thursday	Hebrews	12	6-8
Friday	Psalms	118	16-18
Saturday	Psalms	1	1-6

We go back to the old homestead, the old home town. Perhaps we have long anticipated that visit, but now we find that the changes are so disillusioning that we don't care whether we ever return. We meet a friend of years gone by and hardly recognize him. He too has changed. We compare the face reflected from our mirror with old photographs and realize that, without knowing it, we have changed. We try to use a map of yester-year only to discover that it is out of date.

We shudder a little as we wonder if there is anything that remains the same.

The Church tells us that there is. Through the centuries it is the one institution which points to the unchanging God, "the same yesterday, today, and forever." Worship customs may differ, but every Christian congregation seeks to lead men to the one great Certainty, which is God. That is why you will want to start attending church regularly. Here is peace. Here is assurance.
