Local Doctors Attend Ophthalmologist Congress

Dr. Louis F. Ferguson and Dr. A. F. Downum of Edenton were among 200 vision specialists who attended the Fall Educational Congress of the North Carolina State Ophthalmological Society at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh over the week-end.

The congress opened Sunday with an address by Dr. J. Hugh Sowder of North Wilkesboro, president of the society.

"While the world appears stunned by the glitter of space age promise," he told the gathering, "mankind has yet to solve some of its oldest and most pressing problems. Among these problems are countless vision disorders, for which the solutions will be found only in expanded research and technology."

"By 1970," the society president predicted, "America will have a population of 215 million people, with a working force of some 84 million. Optometry must keep pace with the rapid climb in population, not only by making better vision standards possible today, but also by anticipating and eliminating new barriers created by the progress of the future."

Correction

The Herald last week inadvertently made a mistake in the heading for the annual meeting of soil conservation districts to be held in Edenton.

While the correct date of Friday, November 20, appeared in the story, the date in the head read November 26.

The error caused some confusion, even Representative Herbert Bonner calling James Griffin to see if the date had been changed. The correct date of the meeting is Friday, November 20, and the error is very much regretted.

Edenton Tea Party Chapter Has Meeting

The Edenton Tea Party Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its monthly meeting in the Iredell house November 11, with 22 members present. Final plans were made for the Colonial Tea to be held Sunday, November 22, from 12 to 6 at the Iredell house in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the house. The general public is invited and special invitations have been sent to members of the State Legislature, Governor Hodges, Judges, lawyers in this area, DAR regents and others. A large crowd is anticipated.

Members of the local chapter will wear colonial costumes and be in attendance at the Iredell house, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Court House and the Cupola House. Other business discussed included tour guide service for which the Chapter is responsible. Each member will be responsible for guide service for two weeks each year and will conduct tours upon appointment of places of historical interest in Edenton and environs. A schedule will be posted at the hotel, at motor courts and other convenient locations.

Mrs. Lloyd Griffin reported that $2,800 has been loaned from the DAR Scholarship Fund to Juniors and Seniors in college. Loans are available without interest to students attending college and at 2% interest after graduation.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Albert Byrum, Mrs. George Hoskins and Mrs. Richard Baer.

4-H Achievement Day On Saturday

P. M., on Saturday. These exhibits will be on display to the public beginning at 2:30. These exhibits should consist of a variety of articles produced by the 4-Hers including craft articles, sewing and canning, agricultural products such as corn and peanuts and many other articles produced in the home and on the farms of Chowan County.

A tractor driving contest will begin back of the armory at 2:30. Four-Hers that are planning to participate in this program should be present by 2 P. M. This is an interesting contest of skill. The contestants will be judged on skill, safety, and, of course, time will also count. I think everyone will enjoy watching and perhaps participating in the contest.

DEATH IN THE CEMETERY—One woman was killed when this car rampaged out of control into a group of mourners at a funeral in Glendale, N.Y. Eleven others were injured. The body of Mrs. Rachel Laub, 60, lies beneath a blanket near the rear wheel of the car. The driver, Jacob Berg, was not hurt.

participating in the contest.

The tractor driving contest will be followed by a box picnic supper and then the awards program. The awards program will begin at 7 P. M. All 4-Hers and parents should make an effort to attend this. This is the most important part of the day because the 4-Hers will receive recognition for the work they have done this past year. "If you have never attended a 4-H achievement program, you will be amazed at the effort and accomplishments of many of the 4-Hers here in Chowan County," says Harry Venters, assistant county agent.

After this recognition program, there will be recreation for all to enjoy. So, everyone is invited to come on and join in the fun.

persons to receive expensive operations that otherwise would not be possible. He also pointed out that the State Association had financed a Braille library costing around $15,000, and that after its establishment it is operated by the State Commission for the Blind, which is an agency of the state.

The Eye Bank, which the speaker discussed, was cited as a project which is just getting under way. He pointed out that on a voluntary basis, 5,700 pledges of eyes had been made. Eyes used as quickly as possible after death have made a large number of cornea transplants possible. Giisson cited the cooperation of the highway patrol and airlines in transplanting corneas to the point needed quickly.

A man keeps a secret of another better than he keeps his own. A woman, on the contrary, keeps her own better than that of another.

The speaker pointed out that Lions wanted members who were willing to work to meet challenges. He stated that the challenges should develop quality among its membership which would benefit the community.

Giisson spoke about the challenge of the Boys' Home. He told of a visit he had made to the home, at which time he observed the excellent attention the boys were receiving. The boys come from deprived environments, but are making excellent social adjustments. He told the club that the home is free of indebtedness due to the generosity of Spencer Love of Burlington Industries, but the home now needed several more cottages since they have a waiting list of boys who need this type of care. Several civic organizations are cooperating in this project, and he expressed the hope that the Lions Clubs will soon be able to finance a cottage. The speaker pointed out that $24,000 was on hand already for a cottage to cost approximately $50,000.

Keith Reeve of the Seabrook Peanut Company and George Carr of the Chowan County Soil Conservation Service, were visitors. They were the guests of Jimmie Griffin.

Aces Play Friday For Regional Title

160-pounder who has picked up over 1,000 yards rushing this year. He has scored 18 touchdowns for the Red Devils this year. The Edenton line, which averages better than 180 pounds, is reputed to be fast and experienced. The Devils' record for the past four seasons is 34 wins, three losses and one tie.

Edenton also has an enviable record in conference play as well as non-conference. The Aces wound up the season's play with seven wins, two ties and one loss. They scored a total of 189 points while allowing all opposition only 14 points. They caused all opposition to sit up and take notice as a result of their brilliant playing against 4-A Rocky Mount, a team in strong contention for the 4-A Eastern Conference title. The Aces played Rocky Mount's Blackbirds to a standstill before dropping a 2-0 decision.

No comparison can be made between the two teams except in one instance. Smithfield defeated Dunn by a score of 14-7, while Dunn and Wallace-Rose played to a 6-6 deadlock. Edenton defeated Wallace-Rose Hill by a score of 26-0. If any edge whatsoever could be given in this game, by way of the paper route, it would have to go to the Aces. The Aces are in top physical condition for the scrap and have been practicing hard in preparation for what they consider will be a very tough game. The Edenton band, as well as a large group of Aces' followers are expected to go to Greenville to see the game.
