Cancer Advisor Jaycee Speaker

Mrs. Kay Broughton of Raleigh, volunteer state advisor of the National Foundation in North Carolina, spoke at the Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting Thursday night at the Edenton Restaurant.

She spoke on "What It Means to Have the National Foundation in North Carolina." According to Mrs. Broughton, 8,000 polio patients are cared for by the Foundation in the state.

She discussed the new program of the Foundation, which includes birth defects and said more would be done in this phase as the money became available. She announced that there are 15 scholarships available to high school seniors in the state.

The Jaycees will again this year sponsor the March of Dimes drive. Bill Gardner and Carlton Jackson are co-chairmen.

Tom Shepard, chairman of the Thanksgiving dance, reported the dance was very successful.

The annual Christmas shopping tour for children will be held Friday. Proceeds from the recent sale of peanut candy will finance the tour.

Six new members were taken into the organization. They were John E. Shackelford, Bob Mathias, David Bateman, Clay Rochelle, Harry Venters and Tony Miley.

'Tis expectation makes a blessing dear; Heaven were not heaven if we knew what it were.

-Suckling.
