she finished grammar and high school. She was graduated from Chowan College, where she majored in French and English.

Mrs. Smith was married to Percy L. Smith on December 6, 1932, in Murfreesboro. The ceremony was performed by her brother, the Rev. G. Norman Ashley of Salem, N. C.

Mrs. Smith, a charter member of the BPW Club, has served as chairman on both the hospitality and finance committees. She has taken part in many planings of the club and has spent untold hours in the interest of the beautification of a prize project of the club, the Penelope Barker house. She has also taken part in other constructive projects of the numerous civic organizations in Edenton and Chowan County.

She is a member of the Edenton Baptist Church and for many years was active in home demonstration work. She is manager of Byrum's Gift Shop, having served in this capacity for five years.

The Edenton Restaurant was beautifully decorated, even to a lighted Christmas tree. The party got under way with the group singing "Silent Night" with Mrs. Lena Leary at the piano. Warren Twiddy gave the invocation. Much fun was created when the gifts were opened.

followed by a delicious turkey dinner. Mrs. Anne Jenkins, hospitality chairman, delivered the address of welcome and Dr. L. F. Ferguson responded with high praise for the club's outstanding work.

Special guests were acknowledged by Mrs. Jenkins. They included H. A. Campen, Mrs. Dave Holton and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Boswell.

The group was treated to several renditions of Christmas songs by Miss Kay and Nella Lowe, accompanied at the piano by Miss Doris Jean Cale.

Much fun was created in the question and balloon games. The men took the prize in the latter game. Mrs. Alice Twiddy furnished music for the occasion.

The president extended a "Merry Christmas" to all present and the party closed with the singing of "Joy To The World."

Christmas Concert Draws Big Crowd
