

SENATOR SAM ERVIN SAYS

Washington — To my mind, the procedure of around-the-clock sessions of the United States Senate makes a mockery of the legislative process. Moreover, it impairs the dignity and the prestige of the Senate, not only in the eyes of its membership, but also in the eyes of the nation.

The Lack of Debate By Proponents. One of the strange features of the Senate's present situation is the lack of the proponents of the many (64 at last count) civil rights bills, so-called, to come forth to the floor of the Senate and debate their bills. This performance would be unfortunate even if the normal procedure for bringing legislation to the floor had been followed. It is doubly dubious by the techniques now being used. Actually, the Dirksen civil rights proposals are attached to a minor bill, non-related, thus initially resorting to highly disorderly procedure. The subsequent performance, the failure to attend floor debate by those favoring the enactment of this legislation leads me to wonder whether the civil rights advocates wish to debate their proposals in the tradition of the Senate of the United States.

Senate Should Delay. I believe the part of wisdom demands that the House of Representatives should act first on legislation of this nature. Due to its large membership and the rules under which it operates, the House has very little opportunity to correct defective legislation. The Senate with its rules has the opportunity for adequate debate. Therefore, the Senate should, in the name of orderly procedure, delay action until the House can bring out its bill by mid-March. Why is the Senate rushing? I do not know why the proponents of civil rights legislation think that it is necessary to exhaust physically and mentally all

These official production records were supervised by North Carolina State College.

JOHN W. McMILLAN, SR.

John Wesley McMillan, Sr., prominent retired merchant and farmer of Stedman, N. C., died at a Fayetteville hospital on Saturday morning, February 20, after a brief illness.

The last rites were held from the Cokesbury Methodist Church at Stedman on Monday afternoon. Dr. Morris L. Husted, pastor of the church, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. J. R. Regan, pastor of the Bethany Methodist Church of the South River Charge. Interment was made in the Fisher Cemetery at Stedman.

Mr. McMillan was a highly regarded civic and religious leader of the Stedman community. His many friends admired his sincerity and straightforwardness; his courage and fortitude. His charity, kindness and generosity toward his fellow-man can never be fully measured. He was a member of the Bethany Methodist Church.

Mr. McMillan is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lillie McCall McMillan; three daughters, Mrs. L. K. Jones of Cape Charles, Va., Mrs. Jessie Hall and Mrs. Melvin Layton, both of Stedman; one son, John Wesley McMillan, Jr., of Charlotte; four sisters, Mrs. Love Fisher and Mrs. Lina Hall, both of Stedman, Mrs. Idella McLemore of Roseboro and Mrs. Addie Matthews of Wade. Also surviving are six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our son, Carroll Goodwin, who passed away one year ago, March 1, 1959:

Little did we know when it dawned that morning the sorrow that day would bring.

The end was sudden, the shock severe.

To part with one we loved so dear.

His faint last wish we should liked to have heard.

And breathe in his ear one last parting word.

Only those who have lost can tell of the grief that's borne in silence.

For the one they loved so well. Some may think we are not lonely.

When at times they see us smile, Little do they know the heartaches.

That we suffer all the while. Day and night we sadly miss you.

Deeply do we feel our loss. Lonely is our life without you.

Sadly missed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellie J. Goodwin.

Prove it to yourself! Dramatic test proves Plymouth gives you more miles per gallon!

Others talk gas savings... but Plymouth lets you see it. At your dealer's now—the PLYMOUTH PROVE-IT-YOURSELF ECONOMY DRIVE lets you take the wheel and see exactly the mileage you get! Thousands have taken this convincing drive. Don't miss it!

Then you drive in your usual fashion, through normal traffic. When the gas in the jar has been used, check the mileage reading on the speedometer. See for yourself the mileage you got on just a small amount of fuel. Simple, fair—and dramatic proof, we think, of the solid gas economy engineered into the Solid Plymouth for 1960. See your Plymouth dealer.

No special test track... no special test conditions... no special test driver! Just you at the wheel of a regular full-size Plymouth. Here's how it works:

Mounted on one side of a Plymouth is a jar which feeds a measured amount of gas directly to the car. You turn a control and the car is powered by the gas from this ECONOMY METER.
