Shelba Jean Jarvis Weds James E. Ross

Vows Spoken Friday, June 10, at Seaford, Virginia

Miss Shelba Jean Jarvis and James Ellis Ross were united in marriage at the Zion Methodist Church in Seaford, Virginia, on Friday, June 10. The Rev. Forrest Waggoner officiated. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Walter Jarvis of Seaford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John James Ross of Edenton.

Music was presented by Mrs. James Hogge, organist, and Mrs. Forrest Waggoner, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length dress of white embroidered organza and matching half-hat with short veil. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias and showered with lilies of the valley.

Miss Brenda Jarvis attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of embroidered white organza over yellow taffeta and head-dress of yellow velvet and white net. Her flowers were a colonial nosegay of roses.

John J. Ross served as his son's best man. Ushers were John Michael Jones and Alfred Winslow of Newport News, Va.

The bride's mother wore a blue organza dress with matching flower hat and a corsage of white and pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue beaded linen sheath with matching flower hat and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained a reception in the social hall of the church.

The bride attended High Point College and the College of William and Mary. The bridegroom is a student at the Apprentice School in Newport News, Va.
