

Negro Home Demonstration News

By MRS. ONNIE S. CHARLTON, County Negro Home Economics Agent

James Taylor and David Felton, State winners in the 4-H Peanut Demonstrations, were presented awards at the opening of White Oak Consolidated School last Tuesday. The Peanut Growers Association, Inc., Rocky Mount, North Carolina, gave to each a check for $37.50 and Mr. S. J. Hodges, Extension Agronomy Specialist, gave each a silver dollar. Presentations were made by Professor W. H. Creecy, Principal.

James and David are members of the 8th grade 4-H Club at White Oak. This team with their demonstration "The Fertility Requirements For Peanuts" won District honors and as district winners received scholarships to 4-H Club Week, held at A. and T. College, Greensboro where they were awarded first place in the State.

In the next few weeks 4-H Clubs will reorganize and begin their year's work in our three schools—White Oak Consolidated, St. John and Edenton High School. Four-H Club work and activities help boys and girls grow into more useful citizens in their homes, their communities and in the world. To aid them in reaching this goal we, parents, leaders and teachers, must believe in 4-H, we must believe in others, we must believe in ourselves.

Home demonstration clubs will meet jointly with community groups this month. All men, women and older youth living in the community are asked to attend. Mr. Lassiter and I will serve as discussion leaders on how to stretch the family dollar; who must pay Social Security; and how it protects the family; and how to make and keep a simple family financial plan.

Aces Win Over Camden 38 To 0

is apparent in the backfield, with Spivey, Tolley, Hopkins, Dixon and Forehand able to get away with the ball. Jimmy White was by far the defensive star of the game. He apparently solved most of the Rebels' plays and was in on most of the tackles. He was a thorn in the side of the Rebels all night as he brought down runners and helped make way for the Aces' ball carriers. Britton, too, played an outstanding game and in fact the entire Aces' squad gave a good account of themselves, so that many fans are very optimistic of the Aces again being in the race for championship honors.

First Quarter

Edenton kicked to start the game and S. Mansfield returned to the Camden 28. On the next play S. Mansfield skirted end for a first down to the 42. Culpepper picked up a yard, after which S. Mansfield scooted around end for another first down to the Edenton 48. The Rebels fumbled and Dixon recovered the ball on the Edenton 44. Spivey picked up 5 yards and the Rebels were penalized, giving the Aces a first down. Tolley gained 2, and Spivey fumbled with the Rebels recovering on their own 49. Shelby Mansfield picked up 5 and Culpepper 1. Mansfield then fumbled but recovered with a 3-yard loss. The Rebels kicked and Tolley returned from the 20 to the Camden 47 but the Aces were penalized 15 yards. Hopkins gained 8 yards, lost a yard and Tolley was held to 2 yards, so that the Aces kicked to the Camden 39. The Rebels were penalized and the Aces had the ball on their own 27. Hopkins gained 3 and Spivey 1 after which the Aces fumbled and the Rebels recovered on their own 37. Mansfield picked up 2 and the Rebels fumbled but recovered. A pass was broken up and Camden kicked. C. Forehand fumbled the punt, but picked up the ball, reversed his running and scored 30 yards for the Aces' first touchdown. The kick for the extra point was wild, so the Aces led 6-0. Forehand made a short kick and Tolley fell on the ball on the Camden 31. Hopkins bulled through the line for 6 yards and Forehand then flipped a pass to Britton carrying the ball to the 2-yard line. Hopkins was stopped cold as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

With the ball on the 2-yard line Hopkins rumbled through the line for the second touchdown. Forehand's kick was good for the extra point and the Aces went ahead 13-0. The Rebels returned Forehand's kick to their own 31. Mansfield picked up 2, a pass was broken up and in two plays Mansfield made a first down to the Camden 44. B. Mansfield was held to a yard, two passes were broken up and the Rebels kicked the quarter ended. With the Rebels in possession of the ball on their own 38, S. Mansfield in three plays lacked a first down and the Aces took over on the Camden 41. The Aces fumbled and the Rebels recovered on their 40. S. Mansfield was thrown for a 3-yard loss. A pass to B. Mansfield was broken up and a pass to S. Mansfield was completed but netted no gain, and the Rebs kicked. Tolley grabbed the ball and with some good blocking was able to race 62 yards for the Aces' fifth touchdown. Jimmy White's kick attempt was wild and the score moved to 32-0. Forehand's kick was returned by the Rebels to their own 26. In two plays the Rebs netted 5 yards, and on the next play Hopkins snagged Leary's pass and ran 22 yards before he was stopped on the Camden 23. The Aces fumbled and Camden recovered on their 35, but the Rebels were penalized on the play. Ashley then tore through the line to the Camden 10 for a first down. Sexton rumbled the line for 2 and on the next play carried over for the first touchdown of his high school career. He is only a freshman. Jimmy White's kick for the extra point was again wild and the score moved to 38-0. The Rebels returned Jimmy White's kick to their own 14. Culpepper was held to a yard and S. Mansfield picked up 4. A pass was good for a first down on the Camden 49. The Rebs chucked up two first downs and were at the Edenton 30-yard line when the game ended.

Fourth Quarter

With the Rebels in possession of the ball on their own 38, S. Mansfield in three plays lacked a first down and the Aces took over on the Camden 41. Mansfield was completed but netted no gain, and the Rebs kicked. Tolley grabbed the ball and with some good blocking was able to race 62 yards for the Aces' fifth touchdown. Jimmy White's kick attempt was wild and the score moved to 32-0. Forehand's kick was returned by the Rebels to their own 26. SUNLAY SCHOOL LESSON can be established on earth-enduring peace. History, indeed, supports such belief. While the fatalists invoke only that portion of history which justifies their views, Christians also appeal to history. We cannot deny the dark and ugly truth of man's inhumanity to man. But history reveals that human nature can be changed, that attitudes and behavior patterns of a community of nations can be changed.

Three hundred years ago slavery and dueling were the order of the day. Women were blithely assumed to be inferior creatures, and that for women to use facilities of higher education would be a waste, and that for them to have a voice and vote in government would be a menace. Yes, indeed, every institution of freedom and justice in modern society represents a victory won, and against great odds, by prophets and reformers in times past. Every such achievement presents undeniable witness that human nature can be changed, that attitudes and the behavior of communities and nations can be changed. History, rather than justifying surrender to the assumption that war is inevitable, summons us to rise up and play the man in conviction that enduring peace can be established.

We need only to contemplate the consequences of atomic warfare in terms of cities demolished, millions dead or injured, the possible effect on heredity, to realize that peace must be more than a noble dream. It is, indeed, a sensible, practical way of living which can be achieved. Jesus Christ and the certain consequences of atomic warfare certainly show peace to be the will of God.

And while the conquest of war and the establishment of enduring peace among nations is too big an undertaking for man alone, it is not too big for man working with God. And reliance upon God in the achievement of peace means obedience to God.

The way in which we must deal with our enemies is clear to every thinking Christian. Do we win a disagreeable neighbor to friendship by meeting hatred with hatred, replying to his threats with threats? Everyone knows that this is not the right way to win over enemies. One the other hand is the choice which is pointed by Christian motive. It is to take our cue from Jesus Christ. This choice is directly by the command of God: "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you" (Luke 6:27-28). The reverse of this procedure is in part now responsible for the drift towards war.

Christians must lead in bringing the world to God, for apart from God we are not going to find any solutions to our problems which will work and last.
