Substitute Teachers Needed At Edenton Negro High School

Edenton Negro High School has enrolled to date 936 elementary pupils and 273 high school pupils. With this kind of school population there is a problem of teacher-pupil load, even though the school is staffed with 28 elementary teachers and 12 high school teachers.

At the present time the school has no list of approved substitute teachers. It is hoped that individuals who have a North Carolina teachers certificate, and are interested in doing substitute teaching, will make application for such teaching to D. F. Walker, principal of the school.

A four-door station wagon has been added to the newly styled Rambler American line for 1961, along with a two-door convertible. Other models are two-door station wagons and two-door and four-door sedans. All are built on a wheelbase of 100 inches. Although the 1961 offerings look longer than past models they actually are 5.2 inches shorter and three inches narrower.

Projects Help In Community Improvement

Members of the Fellowship Home Demonstration Club in Wake County have recently completed a money making project. They sold pepper and vanilla flavoring. In return, they received an 80-cup coffee percolator which is available for use in the community.

Mrs. Margaret Babson, home economics agent, says the Fellowship members also plan to make improvements on their community building and surrounding grounds.

Orchids In Bloom

Are you an orchid lover? Many people are raising orchids in their greenhouses as a hobby. Miss Hilda Clontz, home economics agent in Catawba County, reports she recently saw some orchids in full bloom. It seems that Mrs. Henry Herman has her own small greenhouse. She and her husband spend many hours raising all kinds of plants and flowers as a hobby. They have many different types of orchids, some growing in pots and others growing on wood.

Should Have Won In Garden Contest

With determination, Charles Wellons should win the garden contest in Currituck County next year. Back in April, he turned his backyard into a garden. At the end of each row there were uniform labels telling what was planted in the row.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sanderlin, home economics agent, reports Wellons raked his rows clean before the judges arrived. Beans and tomatoes were staked, tomatoes and strawberries were mulched. Working by his score card, he won second place, but should come in first next year.

Reading Champion

Mrs. W. B. Williams of Surry County is a champion when it comes to reading. She has already read 65 books this year. Mrs. Williams has earned a reading certificate for many years. Although she reads on many subjects, her main interests are in reading biographies of well-known people and studying birds.

Miss Ella Hampton, assistant home economics agent, says Mrs. Williams does not neglect her duties as a homemaker but just uses her leisure time to a good advantage.

Crafts Express Personality

Why are crafts gaining in popularity in the state? Miss Verna Belle Lowery, home economics agent in New Hanover County, told her Home Demonstration Club women that the reasons for their popularity are: people have the desire to do something creative; it provides a form of training for the mind; it provides a true form of recreation and pleasure; and, it can be a source of income.

After seeing and evaluating crafts, members agreed that handmade crafts should be out standing in quality of workman ship and design as well as unique.

Group Works On Pastels

Sixteen Home Demonstration Club members in Haywood County organized a special class to work in pastels. W. S. McCall, a noted portrait painter, instructed the women in their work.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home economics agent, says Mrs. Rankin Ferguson and members of the Lakeside Club were responsible for organizing the group which included members from other clubs.

In Bad Shape

A credit reporting agency made the following report concerning a debtor:

"We have a report that this party has no property, either real or personal; no credit, either actual or potential; no prospects, either present or future; and no hope, either here or hereafter."

Elementary School Lunch Room Menu

Monday—Wieners, weiner rolls, rice pudding, baked beans, toss salad and milk.

Tuesday—Hamburger, gravy, school baked rolls, creamed potatoes, blackeye peas, rolls, butter, apple pie and milk.

Wednesday—Vegetable beef soup, crackers, toasted cheese sandwiches, block cake and milk.

Thursday—Spanish rice with beef, buttered peas, carrot sticks, cheese slices, school baked rolls, butter, fruit cup and milk.

Friday—Fish sticks, cole slaw, Lima beans and corn, butter, cherry pie and milk.

One example is worth a thousand arguments.

—William E. Gladstone.

Pottery Psychiatrist

The man asking for a loan was asked what his business was and gave the startling answer that he was a psychiatrist in a pottery factory. Further questioning drew out the information that he took care of the cracked pots.

Ouch!
