Episcopalians Plan For Church Canvass

John Gilliam Wood, R. Elton Forehand, Jr., and Wilmer E. Malone, co-chairmen of the Every Member Canvass of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, announce November 6 as the canvass date.
On this Sunday morning the canvassers will make their Corporate Communion at 8 A. M., in the church, making their pledge at this time. Breakfast will follow in the Parish House for the canvassers.
The 11 o'clock service will not be conducted, November 6, as the members of the church are requested to remain in their homes awaiting a visit from the canvassers. This stewardship visit is considered very important and everyone's cooperation is solicited. At 5 P. M., evening prayer will be conducted in the church, at which time the congregation will assemble in thanksgiving. Special music is being arranged.

Church School will be conducted November 6, but the Adult Bible Class will not be held this Every Member Canvass Sunday only.
The above schedule has to do with November 6th only. Regular services will be conducted this Sunday as usual.

LEGION MEETS TUESDAY
Ed Bond Post No. 40 of the American Legion will meet Tuesday night, November 1, at 8 o'clock. Commander David White urges a full attendance.

Play Reduced In Bridge Marathon

Announcement was made early this week that the previously scheduled 30 hands in the Hospital Auxiliary's bridge marathon was running too long. It has, therefore, been decided that after the third round only 25 hands will be played during the remainder of the tournament.
