

Aces Trim Plymouth Team In Something Like Track Meet

ing up the line. Jimmy White, iron horse guard on the first team, is shifted to fullback when the reserves are playing and scored his first touchdown on a spectacular 56-yard run.

The Plymouth score came late in the third quarter, on a 29-yard pass and sent the large number of Plymouth fans wild.

Both the Edenton and Plymouth bands played during the game and presented a very interesting program at half time.

First Quarter
Forehand kicked for Edenton and Atamanchuk returned to the Plymouth 34. Hall and Atamanchuk each gained 2 yards and then Dixon broke through to throw Johnson for a 10-yard loss. On Plymouth's kick Forehand grabbed the ball and with some good blocking he raced 54 yards for a touchdown. Dixon smashed through the line for the extra point, so the Aces went ahead 7-0 before the game was far under way. Atamanchuk returned Forehand's kick to his own 35. The visitors pirked up 5 yards on two plays and Tolley then intercepted a pass and returned to midfield. Tolley gained 15 but the Aces were penalized 15. In two plays Hopkins bulled his way to the Plymouth 36 for first down. Dixon picked up 9 and Hopkins made it to the 24 for first down. Dixon picked up 5 and Hopkins 4, after which Hopkins made it to the 12 for first down. Forehand gained a yard, Hopkins 5, Tolley and Hopkins lacked only a few inches of scoring, but the Aces were penalized 5 yards. On the next play Tolley passed to Britton for the second touchdown. Hopkins crashed through the line for the extra point, and the score moved to 14-0. Forehand's kick rolled out in the end zone, so it was Plymouth's ball on their own 20. In three plays Atamanchuk made a first down to his 30. Two plays netted only 5 yards, a pass was broken up, so Johnson kicked for the Panthers. Tolley returned to the Plymouth 46 and Hopkins picked up 2 as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

On the first play Forehand passed to Britton which was good for a touchdown. Hopkins rammed through the line for the extra point and the score moved to 21-0. Wrightston returned Forehand's kick to the Plymouth 33. Atamanchuk gained 4 yards in two plays, a pass was broken up and Johnson kicked. Tolley returned to the Plymouth 40, but the Aces were penalized 15 yards for clipping. The ball was placed on the Edenton 19 and on the next play Spivey broke through the line and easily outran the Plymouth tacklers. He covered 31 yards for the touchdown. Dixon crashed the line for the extra point and the score stood 28-0. Johnson returned Forehand's kick to the Plymouth 40. Johnson picked up 2, a pass was broken up and a pass completed to Norman for only 2 yards, so Johnson kicked. Tolley picked up the ball and flipped it to Forehand, who returned to his own 36. Hopkins gained 4 yards and on the next play Tolley clipped off 62 yards for a touchdown. Forehand's pass to Joe Mitchener was good for the extra point, so the score moved to 35-0. Forehand's kick was returned by Johnson to the Plymouth 28. Johnson added 2 yards, two passes were broken up and Johnson kicked out on the Edenton 31. Jimmy Dail gained 5 yards but the Aces were penalized 15. Jimmy White added 5, Dail 3 and Wayne Ashley 5, and Forehand kicked. A pass was broken up, Norman was held to a yard and a pass was completed for 3 yards after which Johnson kicked. Tolley caught the ball and raced 43 yards for a touchdown, but the play was called back due to a clipping penalty on the Aces. With the ball on the Edenton 3 Spivey clipped off 9 yards and Johnson then intercepted a pass giving the Panthers the ball on the Aces' 35. A pass was broken up and another completed for 5 yards. The Panthers fumbled and Erwin Griffin recovered for the Aces on the Edenton 30. White bulled his way through the line to the 44 for first down as the half ended and the score 35-0.

Third Quarter

Tolley pulled in Hall's kick, flipped the ball to Hopkins, who ran 90 yards for a touchdown, and Dixon smashed through the line for the extra point, moving the score to 42-0. Norman returned Forehand's kick to the Plymouth 30. A pass was broken up and Tolley intercepted a pass, returning to the Panthers' 40, but the Aces were penalized. White lost a yard, Ashley lost 3 and then picked up 5. Plymouth was penalized 15. With the ball on the Plymouth 40, Dail tore loose to the 28 for first down. White added 3 and then clipped off 15, but fumbled, with Plymouth recovering on their 10. Hall picked up 23 for first down. Johnson gained 7 yards in two plays and Hall made it to the 36 for first down. Johnson added 2, a pass was broken up and Norman went to the Edenton 48 for first down. Hall picked up 3 and a pass was broken up, but the Aces was charged with interference, so it was the Panthers' ball on the Aces' 29. From that point Fleming snagged a pass and went the distance for the Panthers' lone touchdown. Johnson broke through the line for the extra point and the score moved to 42-7. Hopkins returned Johnson's kick to the Aces' 45. On the next play Jimmy White broke through the line, shook off a few tacklers and fell over the goal line with a Panther hanging on to him. He covered 56 yards. Dail failed in the extra point try, and the score moved to 48-7. Johnson returned Forehand's kick to his own 38. Johnson added 4 and Hall 4, after which Johnson made it to his 48 for first down. Johnson was held to a yard and Forehand then intercepted a pass and returned to the Plymouth 40. Sexton added a yard as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Dail added a yard and in two plays Sexton gained 4, so Plymouth took over on their own 36. Norman snagged a pass good for 7 and Hall made it to the 50 for first down. Two passes were broken up and Forehand intercepted a pass and returned to his own 45. Sexton gained a yard and Herbert Adams then tore loose for 27 yards and first down on the Plymouth 36. Adams lost 2 and Sexton picked up 5. Adams again lost 2 and Ashley was held to 2 yards, so it was Plymouth's ball on their own 27. Hall picked up 2 and a pass was broken up. Tolley then intercepted a pass on the Edenton 48 but the Aces were penalized 15. Forehand intercepted a pass and returned to the Aces' 30. Sexton was stopped for no gain and Dail was held to 1 yard in two plays, so Forehand kicked with Norman returning to the Panther 37. Hall gained 3, two passes were broken up and Johnson kicked out on the Edenton 37. Sexton added 2 and Edenton was penalized 5. Dail picked up 3 and the Aces were penalized 15. Ashley clipped off 27 yards for first down on the 46. Sexton lacked only inches of first down and Dail was stopped cold, so the Panthers were given the ball on the Edenton 45. Johnson made it to the 31 for first down. A pass to Hall was completed as the game ended.
