

Premiere Showing Edenton Promotional Film Scheduled In Taylor Theater Nov. 25th

No Charge Made For Showing at Matinee And Night Performances

The promotional film on Edenton, titled "Ye Towne on Queen Anne's Creek," will be shown for the first time on Friday, November 25, in the town of its origin.

The premiere will be held at the Taylor Theatre at 2 P. M., and later at 5:45 P. M. There is no charge for either performance, and the sponsoring organization hopes that everyone in the town and county will take advantage of seeing the film. Due to the expected large number of persons who will attend the showings, it is hoped that most children will attend the matinee performance in order to give ample seating space for adults at the later performance at 5:45 P. M. At the latter performance, Jack McGowan, president of Guided Tours Productions, who made the film, and Bishop Alexander, president of the Advertising Service Agency who handles advertising for the Ocean Highway Association, will make brief talks explaining the benefits to be derived from this.

Helping Santa

Fire Chief W. J. Yates early this week announced that Edenton firemen will again this year repair old and discarded toys which will be distributed among needy children as Christmas presents.

The firemen, of course, request that any toys which will be donated be brought to the fire station at the earliest possible moment so that they can have them ready in time for Christmas.

John A. Holmes Speaker At Legion And Auxiliary Meeting

Members of Ed Bond Post No. 40 and the American Legion Auxiliary held a joint supper meeting Friday night in observance of Veterans Day. The meeting was a very delightful one and was featured by an address by John A. Holmes, a past commander of the post.

So much impressed was the audience that The Herald requested to publish Mr. Holmes' address, which is as follows: "It was the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the year 1918 that the armistice, bringing to a stop all fighting in World War I, became effective. I have a vivid recollection of that hour as I was on the battle front between Verdun and Metz. Metz was the main ammunition and ration dump for the army of the crown prince of Germany. I shall never forget the hiss and the horrible stink that filled

Soil Conservation Supervisors From 18 Counties Scheduled To Meet In Edenton November 17

Over 450 people are expected to attend the fifth annual dinner meeting of soil conservation district supervisors to be held at Edenton Thursday, November 17, at 6:30 P. M., in the Edenton armory. People from 18 northeastern counties served by the Coastal Plain, Roanoke-Chowan, Pamlico, and Albemarle Soil Conservation Districts will be present. This is the third meeting to be held in Edenton and promises to be one of the largest.

Congressman L. H. Fountain will be the principle speaker. Bryce Younts, administrative officer of the State Soil Conservation Committee, will give a report. State Conservationist R. M. Dailey will comment on Soil Conservation Service operations in the local districts. Edenton's Mayor John Mitchener will welcome the people to Edenton for their third meeting here. The response will be by Henry Gray Shelton of Tarboro. A. C. Edwards of Hookerton, chairman of the Coastal Plain Soil Conservation District, will serve as toastmaster and introduce the speaker of the evening, Congressman L. H. Fountain.
