

Linda Lee Papineau Weds Geo. Jackson

Ceremony Performed In Episcopal Church At Plymouth

In a ceremony Friday, in Grace Episcopal Church, Plymouth, N. C., Miss Linda Lee Papineau, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alban Papineau, became the bride of George Linton Jackson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Linton Jackson.

The Rev. John E. Taylor officiated, and music was presented by Mrs. R. Vernon Jeter, vocalist, and Mrs. Robert W. Johnston, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin peau de soie and lace fashioned with a portrait neckline and bell shaped skirt which ended in a cathedral train. Her veil of Brussels lace was worn mantilla style, and she carried a prayer book topped with white roses and Stephanotis.

Miss Marcia Sawyer was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betsy Lowry, Miss Mary Stewart Joyner, Miss Linda Styons, all of Plymouth, and Miss Emily Mizell of Roper. They wore dresses of emerald green silk organza, with bouffant skirts, and matching head pieces with circular veils, and carried cascades of bronze fugii chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's father was best man, and ushers were John Jackson, brother of the bridegroom, Bruce Wright, Elton Ange and Larry Watson.

Mrs. Papineau, mother of the bride, wore a dress of green moire silk and matching accessories, with a brown throated yellow cymbidium.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of mauve lace and matching accessories and a white orchid.

Mrs. Kennard S. Trowbridge was mistress of ceremonies. Following the ceremony, Dr.

and Mrs. Papineau entertained at a reception at the Grace Church Parish House. White and green flower arrangements predominated the hall.

Mrs. Sidney Ward, Sr., greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line composed of Dr. and Mrs. Papineau, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, the bridal couple, and their attendants.

The bride's table was covered with a beautiful white hand-made organdy and lace cloth over pale green satin, centered with an arrangement of white fugii chrysanthemums and white tapers. Wedding cake, punch, mints, and nuts were served to the guests. Assisting Mrs. Sidney Ward, Jr., with the refreshments were Mrs. A. Lloyd Owens, Mrs. Edward L. Owens, Mrs. Robert Bruce, Mrs. George Barden, Mrs. Guy Watson, Mrs. H. A. Williford, Mrs. Claudius MacGowen, Miss Louise Furgurson, Miss Jackie Polk, Miss Judy Harrison, Miss Susan Mills, Miss Gloria Roberson and Miss Jeanie Papineau.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. W. Blount Rodman. The bride is a graduate of Plymouth High School. Mr. Jackson, also a graduate of Plymouth High School, attended East Carolina College and served two years in the Armed Forces. He is employed with the East Carolina Bank at Columbia.

Following the reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip. For travel, the bride wore a fur-trimmed cocoa wool suit with matching accessories and white rose corsage.

The couple will reside in Columbia.

Betsy Lowry, Emily Mizelle, Linda Styons and Mary Stewart Joyner entertained the Papineau-Jackson wedding party with a dinner at the Plymouth Woman's Club, prior to the wedding rehearsal on Thursday evening, November 24.

For the occasion, the honoree wore a blue organza dress with matching accessories. The guests were seated at five tables covered with white linen cloths, and floral arrangements with white tapers, centered each table. Individual places were designated with attractive place cards and mint cups.

The hostesses presented Miss Papineau with a corsage of white carnations and a gift in her wedding china.

Wedding-Day Luncheon

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Furgurson and Dr. and Mrs. R. Vernon Jeter entertained the bridal couple, members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests for the Papineau wedding with a luncheon on Friday at the Plymouth Woman's Club.

The honoree wore a red wool dress, with black accessories. Guests were greeted in the living room and served tomato juice by Mrs. R. Vernon Jeter. They were later invited into the dining room, where places were set for them at tables covered with white linen cloths and centered with lovely arrangements of flowers.

Miss Papineau was presented a lovely corsage of white roses and a beautiful silver platter.

KNOW YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

John T. Grooms, representative of the Social Security Administration, is in Edenton every Thursday at the North Carolina Employment Security Commission office in the Citizens Bank Building.

Each year at this time, during Farm-City Week, we remind ourselves of the common goals of city and farm people. Social security, perhaps, best demonstrates the closeness of these two groups. The farm and city worker enjoy exactly the same protection under the social security program. And, when as in 1960, the social security law is improved through amendments, its improvement helps all of us.

Under the 1960 amendments, whether you are a farm or city worker, your social security is now better than ever. Now, a disabled worker may receive disability benefits before he is 50 years old. Previously, only workers between 50 and 65 could receive these benefits. And now, farmers, too, have been covered under social security long enough to meet the work test for these disability benefits. That is, they have now been under social security long enough to have credit for 5 years of farm work in the 10-year period ending when they become disabled. Self-employed farmers were first covered beginning with 1955.

Other changes in the law in 1960 reduce the amount of work required for many people to qualify for benefits; make it possible for many people past retirement age who work to earn more without losing all their social security benefits; and make improvements in other provisions of the law.

Available in the office is a leaflet explaining the new law. It's free for the asking. If you would like a copy, stop by, or let the office know by mail or phone. They will be glad to see that you get your copy.

This notice or same will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This 24th day of November, 1960.

Bride-Elect Entertains

Miss Linda Lee Papineau, bride-elect, was hostess at a dinner party, on Wednesday evening, November 23, at the Plymouth Country Club. The table was covered with a white linen cloth, and centered with white camellia and white tapers.

Those honored were the Misses Marcia Sawyer, Betsy Lowry, Emily Mizelle, Linda Styons and Mary Stewart Joyner, attendants for Miss Papineau's wedding. The hostess presented each guest with a strand of pearls.

The Misses Marcia Sawyer,

ADVANCE 4-H'ers MEET

It was November 8, election night, and at the Advance Community Building, Jack Perry was trying to call a group of 4-H'ers to order. Everyone was excited about who the next President of the United States would be. When things settled down a little, the 4-H Pledge was repeated.

Psalms 101 and The Lord's Prayer was the center of the devotion by Ivy Lowe. Next came the usual roll call and reading of minutes. Plans were finished up concerning the "hay-ride" which was held the following Saturday night.

Ann Castellone was in charge of the program, CARE, with separate parts given by Carolyn Bass, Nelia Lowe, Jack Perry and Barbara Bass. It was very interesting to know about how money sent through the CARE program can help many countries in need. It was decided to send $5 to CARE and at a later date it will be known exactly to what country the money was sent and what it was used for.

Miss Catherine Aman announced that the District Wildlife biologist, Roger Bell, will speak at the December meeting. She also reminded the 4-H'ers about Achievement Day on November 10. Plans were made concerning the float to be entered in the Christmas parade. Jerry White gave a brief report on his trip to State College.

OUT-PATIENT CARE

Hospitals maintain well-equipped emergency rooms to provide immediate out-patient care for accident and minor surgical cases. Out-patient treatment usually requires one or more of these services—analgesia, x-rays, laboratory, emergency room, drugs and dressings.

Last year, 16,536 HCA subscribers received out-patient hospital benefits at an average cost per case of $10.05.

Hospital out-patient care and minor surgical care for accident cases (within 72 hours) in the hospital out-patient department are PAID IN FULL by Blue Cross certificates.

Approved by hospitals and doctors, Blue Cross gives you the realistic financial help you need when hospitalization or surgical care is required. If your family does not have Blue Cross protection, write or call today.
