

AROUND THE FARMS IN CHOWAN COUNTY

By C. W. OVERMAN, Chowan County Agent

Peanut and Grain Drying and Storage Meeting: On Tuesday night of next week, January 24, at 7:30 o'clock at the Chowan Community Building we will hold a farmers' meeting on "Peanut and Grain Drying and Storage Facilities." Anyone interested is invited to attend.

E. S. Coates, Extension Agricultural Engineering Specialist from State College, will assist with the meeting. Mr. Coates has the technical information and has had considerable experience with crop drying and storage equipment and facilities. He is an expert in this field, so if you are at all interested come get the information and ask your questions.

Swine School To Be Held: A school for hog growers will be held next Wednesday night, January 25, at 7:30 o'clock. Hog growers, feed dealers and any others interested are invited to attend. This will also be held at the Chowan Community Building.

Jack Kelley, in charge of Extension Animal Husbandry at State College, will have specialists present to discuss swine information and problems. Come get it and ask questions on your problems.

Julius Hardison, Thomas Paul Griffin and I attended the annual Swine Producers' Conference held at State College last Thursday and Friday. There, various phases of swine research were explained and results given. This information was presented from the clinical angle.

Our meeting, next Wednesday night, will be conducted in every-day-words that most anybody can understand and profit by. The swine disease problem will be one important phase of the discussion.

Hog Cholera Cases Reported:

Hog cholera is perhaps still the number one killer of hogs. Why? We have vaccines available to control this disease. I am afraid that many hog growers hope to get by without vaccination and save the cost. Yet, when it strikes, it often causes losses which cost more than many years' vaccination.

Perhaps best is to have a veterinarian do the vaccinating. Next best is to get a qualified vaccinator to do the job. You can do your own vaccinating if you will observe and practice necessary precautions.

Vaccines must be fresh and potent. They must be refrigerated and handled properly. Only purchase vaccines from a reliable source. Disinfect instruments and keep them clean. Disinfect the hogs where you make your injections. Vaccinate pigs and hogs while they are thrifty, don't wait until they are sick.

Control of cholera will be one part of the disease control discussion at the Swine School. Come and profit by it.

The Edenton boys battled to within four, 44-40, before the Indians cashed in on their foul shots to ice the victory. The game ended with the Aces getting the last six points in a matter of about 30 seconds with a zone-press working to their advantage.

Jerry Tolley paced the Aces with 17 points. Fred Britton had 7, Bobby Stokely and Bill Goodwin six each, Richard Hollowell and Wayne Griffin four apiece, and Herb Adams two. Ruffin Odum, brother to Dickie Odum, Wake Forest star of a few years back, had 20 to lead Ahoskie.

Chowan Farmers Guests of Purina

About 200 Gather At Murray Tynch's Warehouse

In the neighborhood of 200 Chowan County farmers gathered at Murray Tynch's warehouse at Valhalla Tuesday night as guests of the Ralston Purina Company. The guests were treated to a fried chicken dinner which was served by members of the Rocky Hock, Beech Fork and Gum Pond Home Demonstration Clubs with the proceeds going toward the Rocky Hock Community Center.

The guests were welcomed by Murray Tynch, who called upon the Rev. Thurman Allred for the invocation. Jake Presson, field representative for the Purina Company was introduced and he, too, welcomed the guests and expressed his appreciation for such a splendid turnout.

Following the dinner Mr. Presson delivered a very timely address having to do with the profit which can be realized by raising hogs under proper conditions and use of the right kind of feed. He emphasized the fact that the margin of profit is so slim and that the best way to increase profits is to reduce the cost of production.

At the conclusion of the meeting a number of prizes were awarded.

Edenton Acelets Lose First Game

By BILL GOODWIN

A frantic rally by the Edenton Acelets fell short by a point in Ahoskie last Friday night, as the Edenton girls lost their first game of the season, 41-40, after winning four straight.

The Aces put the scares into the Albemarle Conference leading Indians before bowing 54-46 in the nightcap of the double header.

The Aces and Acelets return home Friday night when they entertain the powerful Williamston Green Wave. The girls' contest gets under way promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

The Acelets could not find the range in the first half in Ahoskie and fell behind 30-15 at the half. From there they caught fire and rallied to within a point but could get no further. They outscored the Squaws 12-7 in the third quarter and 13-4 in the fourth.

Sara Relfe Smith led the Acelets with 20 points, while Mary Anne Overton had 14 and Beverly Morgan six. Kay Krause scored 23 for Ahoskie.

The Aces, playing their most collected game of the season, slowly kept even with the tall Indians through three quarters before the hosts could manage to pull out in front by nine points at the start of the fourth
