

Negro Home Demonstration News

By MRS. ONNIE S. CHARLTON, County Negro Home Economics Agent

This week 511 4-H boys and girls of Chowan County, are observing National 4-H Club Week, along with two and a quarter million 4-H'ers throughout the United States. We have fifteen 4-H clubs with boys and girls enrolled from every neighborhood in the county.

During 4-H club meetings, other group meetings and by radio, 4-H club members will all others how they "learn, live, serve through 4-H" which is the theme of this year's observance.

Four-H Club work is an educational program of the Cooperative Extension Service which helps develop boys and girls spiritually, mentally, physically and socially. Volunteer local leaders assist the 4-H club program in attending 4-H club meetings, visiting 4-H'ers to advise on their project activity and to aid them in activities connected with 4-H club work.

Four-H'ers carry a wide variety of educational projects in farming, home making, community service and other activities. They raise livestock and poultry, grow gardens and field crops, conserve the soil, sew, learn good nutrition, practice safety and improve their homes. They are taught and are encouraged to apply the latest research in home economics, agriculture and other fields—and they learn the "why's" as well as the "how's" of what they do. Club work also gives them training and experience in citizenship and leadership. Any boy or girl between the ages of 10-21 may be a 4-H club member.

In the near future the 4-H program will be organized around the 4-H Community Clubs, guided by local volunteer

4-H leaders. Those of you, 10-21 years of age, will certainly want to join as the 4-H program will help you to increase farm income, improve standards of living, improve community life, help you to assume leadership and citizenship responsibilities and prepare young people for the world ahead.

Health For All

At Your Service

A visitor to a large eastern city came down with smallpox. More cases followed, but mass vaccination averted an epidemic. Several cases of typhoid fever were traced to leaky plumbing above a vegetable store. A well-baby clinic opened. A modern waste disposal plant was built. Behind these activities—the local public health department.

The public health department is concerned principally with the prevention of illness and the promotion of health. Here is a sampling of what the public health department does:

—controls preventable diseases by vaccination, isolating people with contagious illness, seeking out sources of infection, screening apparently well people to find TB in its early stages.

—keeps the environment healthful by supervising water purification, sewage treatment, milk processing, public eating places.

—provides laboratory services for detecting contagious diseases; analyzing water, milk and food samples; distributing vaccines, serums and anti-syphilis drugs to doctors, hospitals and institutions.

These and many other health activities cost each taxpayer only a few dollars a year. Little enough to pay to stop epidemics, to promote and guard the health of everybody in the community.

If your community has a health department, support it in every way you can. If you have no health department, get together with other people interested in the health of the community and work to get one.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

There is divine opposition to all evil, and when we oppose evil, God through his Spirit is working with us. If we fall into evil, God, by his Spirit, warns us. When we are attacked by evil, God, in his Spirit, succours us.

The Holy Spirit will come to our aid in hitherto ungrasped situations. Today we live under conditions unknown to the simple Galilean life of Jesus, and we need light on how to make effective Jesus' ideals and the Gospel message. The Christian religion is not static, and we must know how to understand it in terms of changing conditions.

But this change must come about, according to Christ, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit gives us foresight and insight to deal with new matters which come before us according to the true Spirit of Jesus.

The central theme of Chapter 15 is that we, possessing Christ's Spirit and abiding in Him, "may bear more fruit." To bear fruit through the Spirit, we must literally immerse ourselves in the Spirit of the living Jesus and find life, strength and sustenance in Him. In order for us to bear this fruit, we must lead disciplined lives, in a determined effort to mold our lives in Jesus' image.

In these chapters John cries: Pray, and what you deeply desire in God will be done. Obey, and you will live in the love of God as one lives in a beautiful dwelling. Rejoice, because the unquenchable joy of Christ's Spirit surges in you. Love, and you become more than just a disciple, more than merely a learner at Jesus' feet. You will become Jesus' friend. Suffer, and you are sharing through the Spirit the sufferings of our crucified Saviour; and this last is, indeed, the supreme gift of the Holy Spirit—the sharing of Jesus' pains for the salvation of men.
