A LIFT FOR TODAY

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of Glory shall come in.—Psalms 22:7.

We must destroy the barriers of racial prejudice, national superiority, personal selfishness and denominational dissension before the King of Glory can enter our lives, bringing the "Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." Then will he become the incarnation of our hopes, individually and as a nation.

Almighty God, may the gates of our hearts always be wide open to receive Him Who came to rid the world of darkness and sin.

Easter

The victory of life over death—that is the meaning of Easter, the most important and the most joyous holiday celebrated by Christians.

For Easter commemorates the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who redeemed mankind through His death and then rose from the tomb on the third day. In His own victory over death is the promise of life everlasting for all men.

The most universal symbol of Easter, and of Christianity itself, is, of course, the cross. Many ancient peoples, such as the Phoenicians, Assyrians and Persians, considered the cross a religious object. To some American Indians it is said to have been a mystic symbol of the four cardinal points of the compass. At the time of Christ, however, it was representative of the most shameful and cruel form of execution. The death of Christ transformed it from an object of humiliation into a symbol of glory.

Buy Easter Seals!

Edenton's Lions Club is now in the midst of its annual Easter Seal Sale which is scheduled to end Saturday, April 8, and W. E. Malone, sale chairman, urges all citizens who have not made their contributions to the annual appeal to do so at least before Easter Sunday, which is only a few days off.

"Crippling conditions can look forward to defeat in the future ahead," says Mr. Malone, "thanks to contributions to the Easter Seal campaign."

Mr. Malone points out that almost 60 research projects conducted across the nation are shedding new light on prevention and treatment of physical and association disabilities and rehabilitation of physically handicapped persons.

The studies are supported by the Easter Seal Research Foundation operated by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Easter Seal headquarters. Two per cent of funds received in Chowan County and 1,600 other affiliates of the National Society during the annual Easter Seal campaign finance the research program.

The research projects, conducted in institutions coast-to-coast, take different avenues of approach but focus on the problem of the crippled as a whole.

New drugs, surgical techniques and preventive procedures have saved millions of lives in the past several decades. We no longer need fear the scourges of cholera, smallpox or diphtheria. Tuberculosis is being controlled, paralytic polio can be prevented and even the common cold may soon become only an occasional annoyance. Yet, many basic questions remain unanswered. Lives we save must be repaired.

Results of the Easter Seal research projects may not only help physically handicapped persons in this generation, but prevent crippling conditions in future generations.

Chowan County citizens are, therefore, urged to join in the fight against crippling by giving generously to this great cause.

Heard & Seen

By Buff

Some members of the Edenton Woman's Club will again be seen on a television program Wednesday, April 5, at Norfolk and Wilmington. At 10:15 A. M., Mrs. R. J. Boyce and Mrs. Jackie Ricks, all diked out in Colonial costumes, will appear on the Mildred Alexander show in Norfolk. Then in Wilmington, Mrs. W. J. P. Earnhardt, Mrs. Corinne Thorud and Mrs. Richard Schuman, also prettied up in Colonial costumes, will appear on the Variety Showcase at 2 and 6:30 P. M. This trio of Edenton ladies will also meet Mayor E. S. Capps at 3:30 o'clock and if the Mayor doesn't hear about the Edentoc Pilgrimage, the only reason would be that he is hard of hearing.

A ripple developed in Edenton's political waters Tuesday, when Mayor John Mitchener announced that he will be a candidate for reelection in the May 2 election. The ripple will no doubt begin to become larger for the rumors are that at least two and possibly three others will throw their hats in the ring. The deadline for candidates to file is 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 25. And just for the information of prospective town officials, the next administration is bound to face some very complex problems. Just to mention a couple, the sewage disposal problem as well as a gang of headaches in connection with the base property.

Bill Rosevear, Jim Ricks, Sr., Jack Habit and yours truly were appointed by Elton Forehand to be Rotary Club judges at the fatstock show at the Legion grounds Wednesday afternoon. With Bill Rosevear knowing all about toothpaste, Jack Habit an authority on chickens, Jim Ricks meddler around people's dirty clothes and yours truly devoting most of his time to newspapering, what in the devil does this quartet know about bulls—except "shooting the bull?" Anyway, before I went out I figured I'd feel of the bulls and the one feeling the softest would be my choice for first prize—for I like tender steaks.

There's been times when it's been mighty hard to get worms to go fishing. But a "solution" will be noticed in "Outdoor Tips" appearing elsewhere in this issue of The Herald. Says a paragraph: "If you'd rather use worms here's a way to pick up 200 lively ones—but fast. Mash up the hulls of 20 black walnuts in three gallons of water. Splash the magic liquid over a two-foot-square area. Get ready! In 15 seconds here come the worms. Just pick 'em up." Clyde Slade, a colored boy who works at The Herald office and supplies me with what worms I use, urged me not to print the item for he says it might put him out of business. Anyway, who's got some extra black walnut hulls?

There's almost always a group of Negro men hanging around the P & Q Super Market and there's no telling what sort of conversations are entered into. Anyway, following last week's raid on a liquor still I heard one say to another, "They're doing all kinds of work to get new industry here, but as soon as a fellow starts a 'business,' the law comes along and breaks it up."

Then on another occasion a colored man apparently met a friend who he had not seen for some time. "Sakes alive," one said, "You are so much taller than the last time I saw you. How high are you?" The other replied that he was five feet and 14 inches tall. "Well, I'll be doggone," replied his friend, "I'd have sworn you were over six feet tall."

Edenton will lose another good citizen within the next few days. Raymond Tarkington has been transferred from Edenton to Wilmington by his insurance company, so that on Tuesday, April 4, he is scheduled to be on the job in Wilmington. It means that he will be one less of the gang of insurance agents who "torment" me every week. But the trouble is that another one will be put in his place. Tarkington will be greatly missed by his family and many friends and here's another who regrets he must leave the old town. The family, however, will remain in Edenton for some time at least, so Dick will have some long week-end trips ahead of him.

February and March birthdays, too, are now a thing of the past, but I just heard about a birthday incident in the first grade at the Edenton school. The teacher said to her pupils, "Today is George Washington's birthday. I think we ought to sing a song. What shall we sing?" One little boy quickly replied, "Let's sing 'Happy Birthday.'" But the suggestion didn't get very far, for a little girl put in her two cents' worth by saying, "That's silly. He's not in our room and besides George Washington's dead anyway." I didn't hear if the youngsters sang or not.

Rejoicing In The Risen Christ

By Rev. Walter E. Isenhour, Taylorsville, N. C.

Let eyes look up and hearts rejoice
And faces smile and shine;
Let millions worship, sing and praise
And no one sadly pine.
Because our Savior Christ arose
Triumphant o'er the tomb,
And conquered death for you and me
And dark, eternal gloom.

Let sinful men repent and pray
And trust our risen Lord;
Let Christians look beyond this life
For heaven's blest reward.
When they shall conquer death and hell
Through Christ's sustaining grace,
And hear Him say, "Well done, dear child,
Come in and take your place."

Let those who languish, sick and sad,
Lift up their weary soul,
And know the risen Son of God
Stands yonder at the goal,
And sees the tears of those who cry
And hear their humble prayer,
And reaches forth His helping hand
And says, "Dear one, I care."

Oh, Easter time, how blest the day,
How grand the weeks of spring;
How sweet the songs from tender hearts
And choirs that thrill and sing!
How blest the sermons that we hear
That tell us Christ arose,
And picture Him as King of Kings,
Triumphant o'er His foes!

Let multitudes kneel at His feet
And worship at His shrine,
While angels look upon the scene
And claim Him Lord Divine;
Creator of the universe
And owner of it all;
The giver of all perfect gifts
To those who humbly call.

Holmes High School Band presents a concert, a very small crowd was on hand for the recent winter concert. Here's one who was so tied up that it was impossible to wiggle out long enough to attend the concert, even though I would rather have been there than where I was. It's just too stomped down bad that so few people appreciate the brand of music Director Derwood Bray's group puts out. The concerts are usually free even though they're worth paying to hear. But like I heard one fellow say, "I would have been there if they would have had some pretty chorus girls." Anyway, a small group from the band will play at the Rotary meeting today which will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated.

Edenton Rotarians are now conducting a drive to raise money for Boy Scouts. The quota for Edenton is $1,500, so when you are called on, dig down in your jeans and come across with some dough in the interest of the town's most valuable asset. If you're missed, send a contribution to John W. Graham, who is chairman of the drive, and he'll say T'anks.

In a brief letter from Mrs. P. L. Rea, who lives in Washington, D. C., she enclosed a check for renewal of her subscription to The Herald and had this in part to say: "I am interested in the wonderful work you people are doing for Edenton. I hope the Woman's Club will have the most successful Pilgrimage ever. I wish it could be advertised in Washington, D. C., and also the film 'Ye Towne on Queen Anne's Creek'. Good luck to your hard working people."

Edenton's Rotary Club will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Parish House. The program will be in charge of J. Edwin Bufflap, who has arranged for several members of John A. Holmes High School to play several numbers. President Elton Forehand urges a 100 per cent attendance.

BANKS CLOSED APRIL 3
