

420 Scholarships Awarded To Prospective 1961-62 Teachers

The State Department of Public Instruction has announced the awarding of 420 scholarships to prospective teachers for the 1961-62 school year. These awards were made from 1,375 applicants seeking the scholarship-loan.

This scholarship-loan program, enacted by the 1957 Legislature, provides scholarship-loans annually of $350.00 each. The program, administered by the State Department of Public Instruction, is designed to increase the teacher supply for the public schools. Each student receiving a scholarship-loan must agree to teach one year in the public schools of North Carolina for each year of State help. In making the awards consideration is given to such factors and circumstances as aptitude, purposefulness, scholarship, character, financial need and area or subjects in which the demand for teachers is greatest.

Two hundred applications have been designated as alternates to receive the award in the event of declinations by some of the initial 420 recipients and in the event the Legislature appropriates funds for 150 additional awards.

At present, 1,059 prospective teachers are enrolled in 47 North Carolina colleges as recipients of this financial aid. One hundred seventy-six public school teachers currently teaching in North Carolina received aid through this program, with one hundred eighty more qualifying to teach at the end of this school term.

During the four years the Scholarship Loan Program has been in operation, there has been an average of more than twelve hundred applications each year.

The program is administered by Clifton T. Edwards of the Department of Public Instruction.

Baptists Will Sponsor New Summer Church At Kitty Hawk Beach

The Chowan Baptist Association has announced that it will sponsor a new summer church for vacationers at the Kitty Hawk beach this summer. The place of worship will be located near the four-mile post in the building formerly known as the Jolly Roger and will be named the Chowan Baptist Church.

The Rev. Henry Napier, Chairman of the Association Missions Committee, has scheduled services for both Sunday morning and evening, including Sunday School and Training Union, and a mid-week prayer service to be held on Wednesday evening.

A summer worker for the new church has been secured from the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. This worker will be active in promoting the mission operation during the summer and will be available for pastoral duties as time permits.

Each of the 58 Baptist Churches of the Chowan Baptist Association are being asked to release their pastor and a few lay workers one Sunday during the summer to work in the new church. Literature describing the work and a map giving the locations of the two ocean-front area Baptist Churches, the Nags Head Baptist Church and the new Chowan Baptist Church, will be distributed to the cottages, hotels and motels on the beach.

In addition to the new place of worship, the Baptist churches of the beach area active in providing a place of worship for vacationers are the Nags Head Baptist Church, the Manteo Baptist Church and the Roanoke Island Baptist Church.

An invitation is extended to all beach area residents and vacationers to attend the services of any of these churches convenient to them.

Rural Electrification means more jobs, better jobs, across our great nation!

It took plenty of everything—from paint to parts to people—to make and deliver a billion dollars worth of electrical appliances and equipment bought last year by the 17,000,000 consumer-owners of America's Rural Electric Systems.

This great new market for everything electrical means more jobs, and better jobs, in towns and cities across our broad land. And it's a market that didn't exist until people like us banded together to serve ourselves with low cost electric light and power.

We are happy and proud that our efforts to serve the unserved in rural America—together with those of almost 1,000 other REA financed rural electric—have brought this new impetus to the economy of the entire nation.

It's another reason why we say that rural electrification is good for all Americans.

Feed Grain Cooperators Are Cautioned About 'Replanting'

Growers who are participating in the 1961 feed grain program should be careful about replanting "hauled-out" cropland to either grain sorghum or corn, A. C. Griffin, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, points out.

The chairman cautioned program cooperators that they have a "permitted acreage" for corn and grain sorghum on their farm, and any plantings in excess of this permitted acreage would result in noncompliance with the feed grain program.

Under the 1961 feed grain program, Mr. Griffin explained, the producer of corn and grain sorghum earns a special diversion payment by reducing his base acreage of these crops by at least 20 percent from the farm's base acreage and diverting the acreage to a conservation use. This means that the farmer must increase the acreage on the farm which he normally has in a conservation use by the same number of acres that he reduces his corn and grain sorghum acreage. The base acreage of corn and grain sorghum less the diverted acreage is the farm's "permitted acreage."

If the planting of grain sorghum or corn on land where the original crop was destroyed, as by a hailstorm, increases the farm's total acreage of corn and grain sorghum to more than the permitted acreage, the farmer would not be in compliance with the feed grain program.

Corn and grain sorghum producers will not be eligible for price support on any of their 1961-crop feed grains unless they participate in the 1961 feed grain program.

Jehovah Witnesses Plan To Attend N. Y. Convention

According to Roy P. Long, presiding minister of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, travel arrangements have been completed for 14 delegates to attend the "United Worshipers Assembly" to be held June 20-25 at Yankee Stadium, New York City.

Mr. Long said that most of the local residents who plan to attend the convention will be leaving on June 19 so as to arrive in time to get in their accommodations and attend opening sessions of the convention. Many of the delegates will stay in private homes in New York.

He reported that members of the congregation had made up four car groups for the trip. Heading the car groups will be local ministers, Joseph R. Codepoti, Jr., Anthony Lee Molchan, Josephus Hall and Mr. Long.

Among the 70,000 expected to attend will be delegates from every country in South and Central America, Canada and the Islands of the Caribbean. The convention highlight will be a public discourse by Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society, on Sunday, June 25, on the subject, "When All Nations Unite Under God's Kingdom."
