

MAN AND GOD

By TERRY JONES

Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. —Jeremiah 17:7.

What is a man? A man is a living soul made in the image of God. A man is made of flesh and blood that will one day corrupt.

What is God? God is love, He is a spirit. Yet, He is a thinking spirit, an acting spirit, a commanding spirit. God is all, He is supreme.

God created man, He is supreme over us. Although down through the ages from Adam until today man has been trying to change this. Man is crying out "No God I don't need you any longer. Yet, let trouble come, let sickness come, let death come and man cries out, "O God, why did you do this to me?"

When everything is prosperous man often forgets God. Samson thought that he could live without God. He began to live for the pleasures of the world. He ended up missing his whole mission in life. But in the end as Samson stood between the two great pillars that held up the giant building that the Philistines were mocking him in, Samson saw the need for God. He cried out for God to remember him and God did as Samson's great strength flower back into his body and he pushed the pillars down and the building fell. God still loved Samson and He still loves you. You must see the need for God. You must find the saving power of Jesus Christ. Keep your eyes on Christ and He will have compassion for you.

HARRIS - PRIVOTT

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Privott announce the marriage of their daughter, Francis, to Dr. Edward Davis Harris of Norfolk, Va., son of Wayland Harris of Charlotte, N. C., and the late Mrs. Harris.

The ceremony was performed in Norfolk, Va., May 30, at the Knox Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. Joel B. Whitten, Jr., in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of eyelet made over satin. It was styled with a portrait neckline, a bouffant skirt and a satin sash. Her headpiece was a sweetheart hat with a shoulder length blusher. She carried a bouquet of rose buds.

The only attendants were Miss

Eva Larsen of Norfolk as maid of honor and Dr. C. Newton Van Horn as best man, also of Norfolk.

The couple is now residing in Norfolk, Va.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

words of wisdom are inadequate without the spirit of love. James 2: 8-17 illustrates this thought beautifully.

What is the path of wisdom? It leads to faith in Christ as Savior and the presence of the Spirit in one's life. We shall know the Spirit by its fruit. Note how Paul uses the singular (Galatians 5:22-23).

The first Fruit of the Spirit is love—esteem, devotion, directed both toward God and man. The second is Joy—the capacity to rejoice in the midst of all circumstances, our gladness based on the assurance of God's love. The third is Peace—not sheer inactivity nor passivity, but a peace of mind derived from our knowledge of having been reconciled with God. Patience is the fourth Fruit of the Spirit—a bearing with men's weaknesses without an exhibition of anger. Fifth comes Kindness—a kindness growing from the goodness of God in sending Jesus to lift the awful bondage of sin from mankind. Goodness — not just good, but good FOR something, reflects our calling as Christians, and is sixth in our list of the Fruits of the Spirit. Seventh comes Faithfulness—a complete trusting in God and a dedication of our lives to him. Gentleness, an innate modesty, wherein one counts others better than himself, and Self-control—the mastery of self that holds in check all impulses, all desires—must also be included in our list of the fruits of the Spirit.

These qualities of the Spirit reflect the glory of the Spirit of Christ which is within. They summarize well the New Testament's fulfillment of the wisdom about the good and righteous life in the Old Testament.

The fruits of faith are the highest type of wisdom — the way of understanding love that is basic to all true communication.

A well-ordered life is like climbing a tower; the view half way up is better than the view from the base, and it steadily becomes finer as the horizon expands.
