

Recent Bride

MRS. JAMES CLINTON SPENCER

Miss Mary Sue Elliott was married to James Clinton Spencer on Saturday afternoon, June 24, at 4:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church at Virginia Beach. The Rev. Lamar Sentell of Fox Hall Baptist Church, Norfolk, Va., former pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dalton Elliott of Tyner, received guests at a reception in the church social hall. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Edward Alfred Spencer and the late Mr. Spencer of Ramseur.

After a wedding trip to Washington the couple will live at 5000 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach.

Both are faculty members at Princess Anne High School. The bride teaches home economics and graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The bridegroom, who attended Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone, N. C., and Elon College, teaches health and physical education.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had her sister, Miss Celia Rae Elliott of Tyner for maid of honor. Miss Sara Elliott, another sister of Tyner, was a bridesmaid with Mrs. Kells Barrett of Atlantic Beach, N. C., college roommate of the bride, and Miss Doris Sult of Crockett, who has been rooming line, covered the front bodice and short sleeves and were used in triple motifs down the full skirt center. Tiny covered buttons accented the pointed back bodice to which two large panels of lace extended into a full train. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of white orchids and variegated ivy.

Her senior attendants wore aquamarine silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with short sleeves, oval neckline and belled skirt.

The honor attendant carried fuchsia snapdragons and pink-throated lilies and the bridesmaids carried pink snapdragons and crimson-throated lilies. The flower girls wore aquamarine dresses fashioned as the senior attendant and carried chains of pink-throated lilies and summer flowers.

The bride's mother wore an aqua linen dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of slate blue lace. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

Frankly Speaking

By FRANK ROBERTS

Quite a few Edentonians echo my sentiments: I'm a Northerner by birth, a southerner by choice. I'm a club-member, as is Larry Noyes. Larry is our town's only full-time accountant and handles the bulk of Edenton's business. He's happily married to the former Madeline Stillman of Creswell, and they have two girls, one and three years of age. Originally, Larry hailed from Toledo, Ohio, and graduated from Holland

High School there in only three years. To top that off, he graduated from the University of Toledo in only three years. While attending the university he worked from 20 to 60 hours per week, yet still maintained a B plus average, just as in high school. Right now, he has only about nine hours to go to receive his Master's Degree for BA. This scholastic wonder also spent a good four years in the Marines and at one time was stationed in Edenton. So far as his work is concerned, Larry started as accountant for Ernst and Ernst, the largest public accounting firm in the world with headquarters at Richmond. Next he came to work with R. E. Aiken of Elizabeth City, and opened their Edenton offices. He worked with Aiken until June of this year and since that time he's been in business for himself in our town. Incidentally, he's turned down many another lucrative offer to stay in Edenton. One of his main reasons is the faith he has in our community's future. As for his own business, it's looking good now and looks even more promising in the years to come. As for the overall business picture in Edenton, Larry says that it's lower than it was in 1950, according to the latest compilation of facts and figures. Furthermore, it'll keep getting lower until industry settles here. Right now the reliance is on agriculture, which doesn't look promising. However, as stated before, Larry has great faith in the future of this area and once industry does come to our town, this economical fact will be a reality. The new industry will create new businesses on the retail level. For instance, for each industry that employs 100 people, one new retail outlet is created. I asked him if new industry would affect farming.

He pointed out that in Washington County quite a few farmers work full-time in the pulp mill, but still work their own farms as a second job. Result? A thriving economy. It could happen here! What's happening here businesswise right now? Something akin to a stand-still and to add to those problems, I checked to find out the businessman's biggest complaint. It's this: people who won't pay for what they buy. I think the term is "deadbeat". The overall picture though is promising. The future looks very good and Larry Noyes, who has his finger on the pulse of the community, feels optimistically cheerful concerning the economy of this area. Larry, who specializes in accounting systems and management service, is recognized by his customers as an outstanding authority on accounting and by his friends as extremely intelligent, extremely personable and a good guy to have working with us, and for us, here in Edenton.

Closing Thought: In business, three things are necessary... knowledge, temper and time.
