

The Roundup

By WILBORNE HARRELL

This is an extension and amplification of a blurb in last week's Roundup in which I urged the reader to read the Blue Book of the John Birch Society. By all means read the Blue Book, but read that book and any other literature of a controversial nature with an open mind. You may not entirely agree with all you read, and you may not grab your hat and run panting to join up. But it will set your little gray cells in motion—it will make you THINK. Personally, I am not much of a j'iner—don't belong to but one organization, and that by remote control. I like to play a lone hand. But my bump of curiosity is very pronounced; I like to examine all sides of a question and form my own opinions. I try to think my way through to a decision—and that is why I read the Blue Book. And for the same reasons I read Mein Kampf, and why I read newspapers and all types of books and periodicals, left and right, pro and con.

Your diversified reading will not have any adverse affect on your mind—if you have a mind of your own and know how to use it. And so—if you read the Birch Blue Book, newspapers, magazines, editorials, articles, or any controversial material at all, approach it objectively and with an open mind. If you are an average American, you know the trend of world and national events, and at least sense, or have an uneasy feeling, that we as Americans have strayed far from the path of true Americanism. Read what you will—but THINK as you read. . . . Incidentally, you may also supplement your reading by listening to radio and TV. Here are two good programs on the local station WCDJ, that I recommend: The Manion Forum each Sunday afternoon at 6:30, and Colonial Radio Viewpoints at 6:05 P. M., Monday through Friday. These programs discuss subjects that every American should know about, and will help you to keep abreast of the times, in your country and in your State. . . . If you want a copy of the Blue Book, write The John Birch Society, Belmont 78, Massachusetts. The price is $2.00.

PHIL OSOPHER SAYS: The best way to keep something clean, is don't let it get dirty.

PERSONAL NOTE — Here's a disturbing thought, and one which psychologists could make something out of: I find in my reading and in viewing movies and TV, my sympathies are too often with the villain of the piece, the bad guy and not with the hero, the good guy. When I read a detective story I find myself very often pulling for the murderer, and subconsciously at least, hoping he'll outwit and out-smart the detective. I hope this doesn't mean I'm beginning to backslide.

Especially To Young People

By TERRY JONES

"Grow in grace, and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ" —2 Peter 3:18.

We young people are fortunate for we have a most interesting future. We have stretched before us a vast new age. An age that will possibly bring about a new way of life for each of us. But as the world has progressed it has left us with the greatest problems that any generation has ever faced before. We as a young generation have work to do, a battle to fight against the evils of the world such as war, crime and that enemy known to man as the germ. We must work and pray together for a better world.

Young person, you individually must face life. You will face such things as regret, heart-break, the loss of loved ones, the desertion of friends plus many more difficult situations that life will bring. You will stumble many times in the darkness of life, often the paths will seem dark, not a glimmer of hope to be seen; then suddenly all will brighten again but only to be darkened once more.

You will have great decisions to make such as choosing a marriage partner and entering the right field of work. Yes, young person you will have numerous decisions to make, but there is one decision that you should make now to guide you in making all others. You must decide as to whether you are going to accept or reject Christ as Saviour and Lord of your life. This is not a decision that you should put off although it is easy to do so. God will call you through the Holy Spirit to accept Christ but He will not make you accept Him. It is not an easy job for anyone to be a Christian in our world of today where Satan is prince. But it is especially hard for young people. The only answer is to look unto Jesus.

Young person, you are molding your life. Your mind is young and easy to twist. Now is a wonderful opportunity for Satan to slip into your life in his sly, subtle and tempting way to win you to a life that seems beautiful and easy, but this life of sin will only end in emptiness, destruction and finally eternal damnation. Satan is after your life, don't be taken in and fooled. Don't look to the ways of the world for the desires in your life. Christ is the only way to peace and happiness. Don't face the perils of life without Christ as your saviour and master. Have you accepted or rejected Christ? He is the only way to be born again into a life of peace with God. What is your decision?
