

The Roundup

By WILBORNE HARRELL

I resent this menace of atomic war threatening my future. Call it selfishness, if you will, but I'm looking forward to a peaceful old age, or rather a peaceful retirement. I have a backlog of writing and a mess of other things I have saved for these years of freedom from routine; and I look with a wary eye on the trend of world affairs, which if they reach the climax of war would spell finis for any plans of mine. Or yours, for that matter; for if and when an atomic holocaust should materialize, we'll all retire—permanently.

Long ago when I was a lad I was all for knights and Sir Galahad; But now that I'm grown My youthful errantry has flown— And I really wish I had what Sir Galahad had.

Here's a line I ran across not so long ago in my reading that has stuck with me ever since. Happiness? Why are they al-

Aces Win 15th Straight Game

While all of the Aces appeared to be very much improved, the work of Forehand, Dixon and Ashley was little less than spectacular at times in the offensive department. Defensively, Joe Mitchener, Walter Small, Boots Lassiter, Donald Forehand, Charlie Cuthrell, Hurley Mitchell and Mac Wright caused trouble all night for the Yellow Jacket ball carriers.

For Roanoke Rapids Sonny Pruette was the big gun, who was ably assisted by Roger Cooke.

A large crowd of Edenton fans followed the Aces to Roanoke Rapids, and before the game and at half time a splendid program was presented by the Edenton and Roanoke Rapids bands.

First Quarter
Cooke kicked for Roanoke Rapids and Mitchener downed the ball on the Edenton 32. Dixon made a yard through the line and Forehand crashed through for 8½ yards. Dixon then made first down on the Roanoke Rapids 49. Lassiter was smothered for an 8-yard er anywhere near him. A pass was broken up as the half ended.

Third Quarter
Forehand kicked for the Aces and Dean returned to his own 39. A pass was short and Pruette picked up 3. Cooke then hung on to a pass which was good for first down on the Aces' 48. The Jackets were thrown for a 3-yard loss, but Pruette then got loose to the Edenton 37 for first down. A pass was broken up and then Cooke was thrown for a 10-yard loss. Another pass failed and the Jackets kicked. Forehand returned to his 25, but due to a penalty the Jackets kicked again and this time Dixon was downed in his tracks on his own 21. In two plays, Dixon drove to a first down on the 33. Ashley added 3 and Dixon drove to the 46 for first down. Forehand added 2 and Dixon was held for no gain. A pass was broken up and Forehand kicked with the Jackets returning to their own 18. The Jackets were penalized 5 and Cooke picked up 7. Pruette then made it to the 35 for first down. On the next play he lost 2. Wood lost 4 and Cooke 4, but the Aces were penalized 15 yards. After picking up a yard Cooke kicked and it was the Aces' ball on their own 29 as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter
In two plays Dixon rammed through the line for 6 yards, after which Forehand made it to the 42 for first down. Dixon, Mills for 40 yards, having recently retired.

No compromise with communism! Cooke was thrown for a 3-yard loss as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter
A pass went wild and the Aces took over on their own 25. Dixon crashed the line for 3 yards but on the next play Forehand fumbled and the Jackets recovered on the Aces' 23. Pruette made 2 yards and Cooke then snagged a pass and raced for the game's first touchdown. Pruette was stopped by the Edenton line for the extra point try, so the Jackets led 6-0. Dail returned the Roanoke Rapids kick to the Edenton 40. A pass was broken up and Forehand then bulled his way to the Jackets' 38 for a first down. Dixon rammed through the line for 3 and Forehand picked up 4. Mitchener then held on to a pass and went to the 27 before he was hauled down. Ashley cracked the line for 6 and Forehand made it to the 13 for first down. A pass was wide of its mark and on the next play a pass by Lassiter was intercepted in the end zone, so the Jackets took over on the 20. Pruette was held to 6 yards in three plays and the Jackets kicked, with Dail returning to the Aces' 47. Forehand added 5 and Dixon 3, after which Forehand made it to the 37 for first down. Forehand then broke loose to the 20 for first down. Mitchener snagged Lassiter's pass which was good for 5 yards. A pass to Forehand was broken up. A pass was completed to Twiddy and was good for first down on the 7. Another pass was broken up, after which Forehand bulled his way to the 4. Forehand was stopped on the 1-foot line and on the next play Ashley crashed through the line for the Aces' first touchdown. Forehand's boot for the extra point was perfect and the Aces took the lead 7-6. The Jackets returned Forehand's kick to their own 26. Pruette then uncorked a beautiful piece of running and reached the Edenton 31 before he was finally yanked down by Dixon, the last Edenton played up 4 and Dixon 4 and Dixon then made it to the 33 for first down. Forehand then clipped off 13 yards for a first down on the 20. Forehand ripped off 8 and Ashley carried to the 4 for first down. Dixon was thrown for a yard loss, but Forehand then clinched the game and thrilled the Edenton fans when he crashed through the line, jumped over a Jacket player and slipped into the end zone untouched. Forehand made his extra point kicking perfect for the night as the ball sailed through the uprights and the Aces went ahead 14-6. The Jackets returned Forehand's kick to their own 30. Wood picked up 6 but on the next play he was thrown for a 10-yard loss. A pass netted 10, but the Jackets were forced to kick with the ball downed on the Edenton 29. In two plays Forehand netted 9 yards but the Aces were penalized. Ashley made it to the 40 for first down. Forehand added 5 and Dixon was pulled down on the 50 for a first down. Forehand gained 7 and Dixon chalked up a first down as the game ended.
