

The Devil's Workshop

By TERRY JONES

"For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." I John 2:16.

As we come to the final of the "5 I's" of Satan we come probably to the most dangerous of all. It is simply the little pronoun "I." "I" stands for the sin of pride. Everyday almost every hour we hear someone telling what "I" did or what "I" have such as, "I have a large home, or 'I have a new car." Most Bible theologians agree that this sin of pride is the beginning of all sin. It was the sin of Lucifer or Satan that made him rebel against God. Satan has used pride to cause arguments from everything to little children playing in the backyard to disagreements in the United Nations building.

The results of pride are broken hearts, broken homes and the downfall of nations. Pride keeps men from coming to an understanding agreement of each other. Satan knows just how hard it is for you to swallow your pride and apologize. I dare you to conquer the pride in your life.

This concludes the series of "The Devil's Workshop"; next week this column will be under a different title once more, but as we go about life let us be on guard in a prayerful manner to watch for the "5 I's" of Satan which are as follows:

1. Idleness
2. Ignorance
3. Incognito (Satan's power to disguise evil)
4. Inconsistency (what others see in you)
5. "I" (pride).

and has done additional graduate study at Appalachian College, N. C. State College, Duke University and has attended Cornell University on a Shell Merit Fellowship. She has had extensive teaching experience and has proved most successful in a supervisory capacity.

The Edenton schools, realizing the importance of mathematics in today's educational trends, are making every effort to sustain and broaden the study and teaching of mathematics in the local classrooms, and the administration feels particularly gratified at having Miss Williams visit the schools at this time.

Miss Williams will be the guest of Mrs. David Holton, teacher of mathematics in John A. Holmes High School during her stay in Edenton.

Firemen Called Three Times In December

Fire Chief W. J. Yates reports that during December Edenton firemen answered three alarms, two in Edenton and one in the rural section.

For the Edenton fires the firemen were out one hour and 25 minutes and 30 minutes out of town. They were on the air 25 seconds in Edenton and 10 seconds out of town. In Edenton the firemen traveled two miles and four miles out of town.

Hose laid in Edenton totaled 600 feet and 300 feet out of town. A ladder was raised 12 feet in Edenton.

For the Edenton fires 34 volunteers responded and 21 for the out of town fire. Property involved in Edenton was estimated at $15,000 and $4,000 out of town. Damage in Edenton was $750 and $50 out of town. Insurance in Edenton was $10,000 and $2,000 out of town.

During the month the firemen held one fire drill, answered four still alarms in Edenton and two out of town, and stood by for four plane landings at the air station.

VFW MEETS TUESDAY

William H. Coffield, Jr., Post No. 9280, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet Tuesday night, January 16, at 8 o'clock. Commander Bill Harris urges a large attendance.

Over 200 Attend Sunday's Reception By Eastern Star

A reception was held at the Masonic Temple Sunday, January 7, from 2 to 4 o'clock. The honorees were Robert Spence, Associate Grand Patron of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star; Mary T. Carter, Associate Grand Matron; Maude Reaves, Margaret Bell and Rae Emery, Grand Representatives; Audrey Kirkwood, District Deputy Matron, and Obie Reynolds, District Deputy Patron.

There were seven Past Grand Matrons and two Past Grand Patrons among the 200 guests who called during the afternoon.

The temple was beautifully decorated with pines, red berries and white candles used throughout. In the center of the refreshment table there was a five-branch silver candelabra with white candles and beautifully decorated with red berries and greenery.

Refreshments were served by the hostess chapters; Indian Ridge No. 319, South Mills No. 270, Elizabeth City No. 44 and Edenton No. 302.

Commissioners Hold Brief Meeting On Wednesday Morning

Chowan County Commissioners, meeting Wednesday of last week due to the New Year's holidays, had a lean agenda so that the business was transacted long before the noon hour.

Golden Frinks, representing the NAACP, appeared at the meeting relative to desegregating the Shepard-Pruden Memorial Library. The request was denied, the Commissioners stating that they have no responsibility except financial in the operation of the library.

Henderson Ray Bunch asked the Commissioners to request the State Highway Commission to move a store which is located on the state's right of way.

The Commissioners agreed to have two telephones installed in the county agent's office in the Hotel Joseph Hewes building.

During the meeting the Commissioners approved the applications for an on-premise beer license to Joseph K. Swanner for Joe's Place. Approval was also given to an off-premise wine license to William Jake Stallings at Jake's Place on Route 3.

Over 50 At Meeting Of Farm Bureau

A membership meeting of the Chowan Farm Bureau was held Tuesday night at the Advance Community Building when over 50 members were present.

A very interesting and informative program was presented which was highlighted by an address by Hugh Liner, Extension economist from State College. Mr. Liner explained farmers' income tax returns and emphasized the importance of keeping records.

The next Farm Bureau meeting will be held Monday night, February 5, at which time the membership will vote on an expanded program within the Farm Bureau.

Marines Accepting High School Seniors

S-Sgt. Schumaker, local Marine Recruiter, announces high school seniors graduating this semester may enlist in the Marine Corps now and leave after graduation. This is under the Marine Corps 120 day delay program which enables high school seniors to serve up to four months of their military obligation while still in school.

Sgt. Schumaker may be contacted at the Edenton Post Office on Thursdays from 10:30 until noon.

TRY A HERALD CLASSIFIED

CARD OF THANKS

I am so grateful to the good people of Edenton and Chowan County who tendered me kind words, love and understanding, recently. Without your kindness and words of encouragement I could not have gone on. MAY GARRIS.

Aliens Required To Report Addresses

Lewis Dale Barton, District Director of the Washington District Office Immigration and Naturalization Service has again reminded all aliens to report their addresses during January. Cards with which to make the reports are available at Post Offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service throughout the country. The reports must be submitted to one of those offices. Parents or guardians submit reports for alien children under 14 years of age.

Mr. Barton urges all aliens to report before the end of January, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious penalties.

RED MEN MEETING

Chowan Tribe No. 12, Improved Order of Red Men, will meet Monday night, January 15, at 7:30 o'clock. Obed Lee, the new sachem, requests a good attendance.

Health And Safety Tips

From The American Medical Association

HEALTH RECORD

This is the week for New Year's resolutions and we have a suggestion. Resolve to begin in 1962 keeping a family health record.

How many times have you needed basic health facts about members of your family — for school records, for insurance forms, for a doctor's medical history?

A family health record is your compilation of these facts. Like vital statistics in the family Bible, notations on family health—kept accurately and up to date—can be of permanent value.

The record should contain pertinent facts on immunizations, illnesses, injuries and physical examinations. The record will prove its worth only if kept carefully. Start immediately to jot down basic information you know already. Enter accurately all injuries and illnesses. When you next see your physician, take the family health record along so notations can be made while they are fresh in your mind.

A small school boy's notebook will do for a record book. Or you can obtain a small account book or ledger from a stationery shop.

Begin with a brief listing of the family history. Date and place of birth of each member. If any are deceased, date and cause of death. Pertinent medical facts about each family member, such as chronic diseases or illnesses (cancer, diabetes, epilepsy).

Next should come a section for dates of immunizations, with spaces for each member of the family. The columns should allow room for listing immunizations against whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, typhoid, polio and smallpox. There should be space for noting dates of booster shots.

A section on general information should include such data as the blood type of each family member, whether the RH blood factor is known to be present in any of the family and special allergies or drug sensitivity of each.

A check list of the more common diseases — chicken pox, measles, German measles, whooping cough, mumps, scarlet fever, diphtheria—should be included. Most of these are childhood diseases, but sometimes an adult is exposed. German measles can be very serious in an expectant mother. Mumps is a serious disease in adults.

Another section should provide a place for noting dates of physical examinations, with a line or two to make note of special advice or instructions that followed the checkup. Illnesses requiring hospitalization should be recorded, listing nature of the illness or injury, name of physician, name of hospital, dates of entry and discharge, length of illness, if surgery was performed describe it briefly. Illnesses at home should be recorded also. Finally, a section listing the family's health and accident insurance information will be helpful.

Relatively few families keep health records, but everyone sooner or later finds need for the information. Keep your family health record up to date at all times as an added safeguard to your family's health.
