

Eighth Annual Livestock Show And Sale Scheduled To Be Held March 28th

Sponsored By Jaycees, Event Will Again Be Held at American Legion Building

Edenton's Junior Chamber of Commerce will again sponsor a Livestock Show and Sale, which is scheduled to be held at the American Legion building Wednesday, March 28. It will be the eighth annual event and the Jaycees extend to Chowan County farmers an invitation to attend and participate.

In the swine division, there is a class for adults and youth. All hogs entered must be in place by 8:30 A. M., on the day of the show. Hogs may be weighed at the Edenton Feed and Livestock Market or M. D. Baker Hog Market beginning at 1 P. M., on March 27. State graders will be at both of these markets to assist farmers in grading their hogs to enter the show. Any hogs grading below number 2 will be eliminated at this time.

The schedule is as follows: Hogs may be entered beginning at 1:00 P. M., on March 27 and until 8:30 A. M., on March 28. Judging will begin at 9:30.

The fitting and showmanship contests for steers and hogs for junior exhibitors begins at 11 A. M., beginning at 2:00 P. M., Continued on Page 4—Section 1

Macedonia Revival March 26 To April 1

Rev. Carl Hart Pastor Of Ballard's Bridge, Guest Evangelist

Macedonia Baptist Church will be in revival Monday, March 26, to April 1, meeting each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The visiting minister for these services will be the Rev. Carl Hart of Tyner, pastor of the Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church. Mr. Hart has been at Ballard's Bridge Church for the past year and is well loved by those who know him. He is a man of God who will bring God's message in a very inspiring manner.

There will be good congregational singing in each service led by Woodrow Lowe. Also there will be special music at each service. "Come worship with us in these services," says the Rev. Gordon Shaw, pastor of the church.

20 Years Ago

Town Council again considered street and sidewalk improvements in the cotton mill village and ordered a WPA project to be made up.

J. L. Pethus, chairman of the Zoning Commission of the Town of Edenton called for a public hearing for the purpose of adopting zoning in Edenton.

Edenton was scheduled to have a blackout with blinking of electric lights and blast of siren to signal that the blackout was in progress.

In an address at a Lions Club meeting, D. M. Warren told the

Fisheries Committee Seeking To Extend Season For Shad To May 1 Instead Of April 25

Recommendation will be made by the Commercial Fisheries Committee of the State Board of Conservation and Development to the full board when it meets on April 2 at New Bern to the effect that the closing of the shad season be set for May 1 instead of April 25, the present regulation.

It also will be recommended that beginning this spring there will be no closed season on herring. Heretofore the closed season on herring had run consecu-

Secretary 25 Years

W. J. TAYLOR
With the Edenton Lions Club celebrating its 25th anniversary at a banquet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple, W. J. Taylor will round out 25 years as secretary-treasurer. He was the first secretary and served continuously since the club was organized.

Extra Features Scheduled For Edenton Trade Fair April 5 - 6

The Edenton Trade Fair, in addition to sponsoring entertainment by the nationally known group, the Ink Spots, also promises a fashion show and a beauty pageant, states H. A. Campen, entertainment committee chairman. Mr. Campen and his committee are also lining up other local talent groups for the two big days of the Trade Fair, April 5th and 6th, it is announced by General Chairman W. J. P. Earnhardt. An auto show and a boat show have al-

41 Students Make Honor Roll At John A. Holmes High School

Cecil Fry, principal at John A. Holmes High School, early this week released the honor roll for the fourth six weeks period. There are 41 students on the select list, who are as follows:

Grade 7 — Wesley Chesson, Danny Hassell, Donna Billings, Gail Cozzens, Anne Graham, Ann Harrell, Linda Hollowell, Ann Jordan, Sylvia Jordan, Kay Kramer and Ivy Lowe.

Grade 8 — Joe Conger, Bill Mitchener, Norfleet Pruden, Ann Castelleo, Suzanne George, Becky

Contract Is Let For Breakwater

Councilmen Concerned About Federal Aid For Sewage

To further improve and beautify the foot of Broad Street, Town Councilmen at their meeting Tuesday night awarded a contract to repair the present breakwater and continue it across the former Willis ware-

Continued on Page 7, Section 1

Eastern Star Installs New Officers Monday

Edenton Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Monday night, March 19, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting new officers will be elected, so that Mrs. Anita Tarkington, retiring worthy matron, urges all members to be present.

Shackelford Re-election For Solicitorship

Served Since December When He Was Appointed to Succeed William Privott

John Shackelford on Tuesday afternoon announced that he will be a candidate for re-election as Recorder's Court solicitor in the May primary election.

Mr. Shackelford has served in this capacity since December, when he was appointed by the County Commissioners to fill the unexpired term of William Privott. Mr. Privott was appointed Judge of Recorder's Court following the resignation of Weldon Hollowell, who was appointed to a federal judgeship.

Mr. Shackelford says he will, to the best of his ability, discharge the duties of solicitor and solicits the support of the voters of the county.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DANCE AT CHOWAN HIGH SCHOOL

Sponsored by the sophomore class at Chowan High School, a St. Patrick's Day dance will be held in the school gymnasium Friday night, March 16, from 7:30 to 11:30 o'clock. A small admission will be charged.

Thirteen New Members Admitted to Local Club at Meeting Held Last Week

The Cancer Drive, sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club, was tentatively set for April 9-13 at a meeting of the club Wednesday, March 7, at the Edenton Restaurant. This will be the 14th year that the club has sponsored the drive. Mrs. Warren Twiddy is the 1962 chairman and Mrs. Leo Katkavek, co-chairman.

Mrs. W. H. Hollowell, Jr., the following business firms in Edenton have signed up for exhibit space in the armory, according to Henry Quinn, chairman of the finance committee: Albemarle Motor Co., Belk-Tyler Co., Byrum Hardware Co., Byrum Implement & Truck Co., Colonial Broadcasting Co., Co-

Teenagers Guilty On Trespassing Count

In Recorder's Court Tuesday Judge William Privott found 10 teenage Negro people guilty of trespassing and sentenced them to 30 days in jail, suspended upon payment of a fine of $25 and court costs. Through their attorney they entered an appeal to Superior Court.

The arrests were the outgrowth of sit-ins at Mitchener's Pharmacy, where they sat at the soda and lunch counter and asked to be served. They were released service and subsequent-

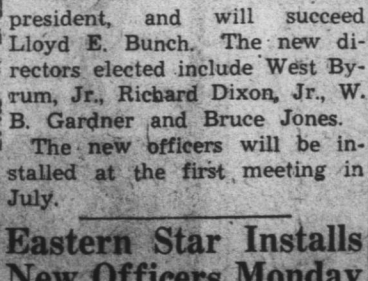

10 Negroes Sentenced To 30 Days In Jail In Court Tuesday

The 57th annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Chowan Baptist Association will be held Tuesday, March 20, at the Center Hill Baptist Church. The theme of the meeting will be "That Thy Way Be Known."

The meeting will begin at 10 A. M., when the principal speaker will be Miss Willa Dean Freeman, state GA director.

The afternoon session will begin at 1:15 o'clock. The principal speaker for this session will be

Guests At Lions Club Celebration

Two prominent Lions will be guests of the Edenton Lions Club when the 25th anniversary of the local club will be observed at a banquet in the Masonic Temple Thursday night, March 15, at 7:30 o'clock. John L. Stickley of Charlotte is a past international president and Wallace I. West of Wilmington, N. C., is a director of Lions International.

Ryland Ruritan Club Officers

A Ruritan Club was recently organized in the Ryland community. The officers elected and pictured above are, left to right, Hubert Byrum, treasurer; John B. Byrum, president; R. C. Ward, vice president, and M. L. Bateman, secretary.

Chowan Cancer Drive Set For Week Of April 9 To 13 By Edenton Woman's Club

The Cancer Drive, sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club, was tentatively set for April 9-13 at a meeting of the club Wednesday, March 7, at the Edenton Restaurant. This will be the 14th year that the club has sponsored the drive. Mrs. Warren Twiddy is the 1962 chairman and Mrs. Leo Katkavek, co-chairman.

Baptist Revival Begins Sunday

The annual spring revival opens at the Edenton Baptist Church on Sunday, March 18, with the 11 o'clock morning worship service and continuing through the 7:30 evening worship service on the following

Chowan River Fishermen Form Association To Protect Interests

A group of fishermen met Wednesday night at the Rocky Hock Community Center, at which time the Chowan River Fishermen's Association was organized. The organization was formed for the primary purpose of protecting the interests of the fishermen, especially regarding any proposed legislation which might be deemed detrimental to the industry.

57th Annual Session To Be Held at Center Hill Church

The 57th annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Chowan Baptist Association will be held Tuesday, March 20, at the Center Hill Baptist Church. The theme of the meeting will be "That Thy Way Be Known."

Guest Speaker At St. Paul's Church For Lenten Services

Lenten luncheons continue Tuesday, March 20, at 1 o'clock in the Parish House of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, with the Rev. Frederick Egelhoff as the guest preacher.

Mr. Egelhoff is from the Eastern Shore of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, a former business man who entered the ministry while married.

He is a graduate of Nichols School Buffalo, New York, received a BA at Williams College, Mass., an MBA at Harvard, and a BD at Virginia Theological Seminary. He is currently a member of the Department of Christian Education in his diocese.

BPW Club Changes Meeting For March

There will be a change in the date of Edenton Business and Professional Women's Club March meeting. A dinner meeting will be held at the Barker house on Thursday night, March 29, at 7 o'clock.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Meet Friday

The Chowan Hospital Auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon, March 16, at 3 o'clock in the nurses' home.

A feature of the meeting will be a tour of the hospital in order to acquaint members with the various items of equipment which has been purchased by the Auxiliary. For that reason Mrs. J. D. Elliott, president of the Auxiliary, urges all members to attend.

Mrs. Leary Seeking Re-Election In May As Clerk Of Court

Opposed October 1, 1961 to Fill Unexpired Term of Thomas Shepard

Mrs. Lena Leary late last week announced that she will seek re-election as clerk of Chowan Superior Court in the May Democratic primary election.

Mrs. Leary was appointed Clerk of Court to fill the unexpired term of Thomas Shepard, who resigned as of October 1, 1961. She was appointed by Chester Morris following the unanimous endorsement of the Chowan County Bar and the Democratic Executive Committee. She also had the endorsement of many individuals.

Prior to her appointment she served as assistant Clerk of Court for 13 years under the late E. W. Spires and Mr. Shepard.

In announcing her candidacy, Mrs. Leary stated that if re-elected she will continue to exert her efforts in conducting the office in an efficient manner.

Governor Sanford Names 14 On Edenton Historical Commission

Governor Terry Sanford has named 14 persons to the Edenton Historical Commission, in addition to the Mayor of Edenton and the Chairman of the Chowan County Commissioners, who serve as ex-officio members.

The Historic Edenton Commission was created by the North Carolina General Assembly in July to acquire, repair and maintain local historical sites. A petition requesting the commission was made by the Planning Committee of the Edenton Woman's Club to Representative Albert Byrum, who introduced

Chowan Entrants Win Honors In Conservation Poster Contest

Chowan County took top honors in the annual Albemarle District Conservation Poster Contest again this year. The final judging was completed Friday, March 9, in Elizabeth City. Winners were listed as follows:

Fourth Grade: First place, Jessica Spruill, Edenton Elementary; second place, Bill Long of Weeksville.

Fifth Grade: First place, Jo Ella Copeland; second place, Shelia Byrum, both from Chowan High School.

Sixth Grade: First place, Emily Peele, Chowan High; second

WMU Will Meet Tuesday, March 20

The district-wide contest was sponsored by the Elizabeth City Chamber of Commerce along with the district supervisors.

Judges for the contest were E. L. Norton, district agricultural agent, Raleigh; Rod Amundson, editor of the Wildlife Magazine, Raleigh; and Hall Campbell, assistant state soil conservationist, Raleigh.

Week Of Revival And Missions Scheduled To Begin On Sunday At Rocky Hock Baptist Church

A week of revival and missions emphasis will be held at the Rocky Hock Baptist Church Sunday, March 18, through Sunday, March 25. The theme of the series of meetings will be "For God So Loved The World."

The speaker for the first service Sunday morning, March 18, will be the Rev. Robert S. Harrell, Chowan Association promotional secretary. Mr. Harrell was reared in the Rocky Hock section of Chowan County and is married to the former Miss Janie Mitchener of Edenton. He had served as pastor of the

Edenton Lions Club Will Observe 25th Birthday Masonic Temple Tonight

Edenton's Lions Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary at a banquet held tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. The meal will be served by members of the Eastern Star.

The principal speaker for the event will be John L. Stickley of Charlotte, who is a past president of Lions International, and in his climb to the highest office he has served in many capacities on the local, district and state levels. An enthusiastic and indefatigable leader, he traveled more than 250,000 miles during his year as president, visiting Lions and Lions projects throughout the world. He was decorated by several governments.

Mr. Stickley will be introduced by another prominent Lion, Wallace I. West of Wilmington, N. C. Mr. West is a director of Lions International. He is a Key Member, has received the International President's Award and has 15 years of perfect attendance.

Mayor John Mitchener, president of the Edenton Club, will

Edenton Lions Club Will Observe 25th Birthday Masonic Temple Tonight

WMU Speaker

MRS. JOHN A. POE
Featured speaker at the Women's Missionary Union annual session at Center Hill Baptist Church Tuesday, March 20, will be Mrs. John A. Poe, Southern Baptist missionary to South Brazil.

John L. Stickley, Past International President, Will Be Principal Speaker

Edenton's Lions Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary at a banquet held tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. The meal will be served by members of the Eastern Star.

The principal speaker for the event will be John L. Stickley of Charlotte, who is a past president of Lions International, and in his climb to the highest office he has served in many capacities on the local, district and state levels. An enthusiastic and indefatigable leader, he traveled more than 250,000 miles during his year as president, visiting Lions and Lions projects throughout the world. He was decorated by several governments.

Mayor John Mitchener, President of the Edenton Club, Will Be Introduced

Mr. Stickley will be introduced by another prominent Lion, Wallace I. West of Wilmington, N. C. Mr. West is a director of Lions International. He is a Key Member, has received the International President's Award and has 15 years of perfect attendance.

Ruritan Club Is Formed At Ryland

A Ruritan Club was recently organized in the Ryland community and at a meeting a charter was presented. The charter was presented by District Governor C. L. Brewer.

John B. Byrum was elected president of the club, with R. C. Ward vice president, Hubert Byrum, treasurer and M. L. Bateman, secretary.

In assuming the presidency, Mr. Byrum challenged each member to be present at each meeting and to work together as Ruritans so that the club can accomplish the goals set forth by Ruritan National and endeavor to make the Ryland community a better place in which to live.

CIVIC CALENDAR

Edenton Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Trade Fair in the Edenton armory April 5 and 6.

Edenton Lions Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.

Woman's Missionary Union of the Chowan Baptist Association will meet Tuesday, March 20, at 10 A. M., at the Center Hill Baptist Church.

Revival services will be held at the Macedonia Baptist Church

Continued on Page 3, Section 1

Brookside Baptist Church At Nashville, Tenn., Prior To His Coming To His Present Position.

At the Sunday night service the speakers will be Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchiner of Oxford, N. C., missionaries extraordinary. The Mitchiners have visited many of the Southern Baptist mission fields and plan to leave March 21 for a tour which will take them to Hawaii, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Philippines, Indonesia, Malaya, Vietnam, Thailand, Pakistan, India, Iran, Turkey, Hungary, Russia

Continued on page 5—Section 1