

Elliott Candidate For Education Board

intermittent affiliations with the PTA, the Band Parents Association, and the training program of the Baptist Church. He is currently a Sunday School teacher and for a period of years served as the director of the Baptist Training Program from three levels—local, associational, regional. He is the immediate past vice moderator of the Chowan Baptist Association and is a past trustee of Chowan College and a past trustee of the N. C. Baptist Orphanage. In the local Baptist Church he serves as chairman of the scholarship committee, as a member of the church education committee, and as chairman of the Deacons.

certified therapist—Hazel Dow practicing occupational therapy and Mary Ann having practiced physical therapy prior to her marriage. His wife is the former Audrey Martin of Rich Square, N. C.

For 27 years Elliott was affiliated with Byrum Hardware Company, in an executive capacity and is now the owner and operator of Elliott Oil Company, designated as marketer of Sinclair Petroleum Products for home, farm and industry. He is a life-long Democrat—55 years of age—and states he has no axe to grind; is not obligated to any group or faction other than the school children of Chowan County. He says "I sincerely feel that our boys and girls are entitled to the very best education the county can provide and, if re-elected, I will conscientiously place the education and welfare of the individual child above every other consideration".
