

Town Councilmen In Long Session

Trash Cans, Trucks And Base Consume Considerable Time

Though few matters were on the agenda for Town Councilmen at their meeting Tuesday night, they remained in session until near the midnight hour. A goodly amount of the time consumed was devoted to matters pertaining to base property which was considered in executive session.

Nick George appeared at the meeting in the interest of annexing to the town property he recently purchased on NC route 32, a short distance from the city limits. No action was taken pending more compliance with the provision of annexation.

The matter of trash cans remaining on the streets was aired. The Councilmen are appealing in the interest of a more attractive town, to citizens for removal of the garbage cans as soon as possible after they are emptied. The police were instructed to notify persistent offenders about an ordinance pertaining to removal of garbage containers.

Adding facilities at the M. G. Brown tract along Pembroke Creek was again discussed and after a lengthy discussion it was voted to approve the plat and classify it as a subdivision.

Heavy trucks using Grahville Street also came in for some consideration due to a number of tickets recently issued. An ordinance forbids heavy trucks using the street as a through thoroughfare and police were instructed to see that the ordinance is complied with.

Some thought was given to improving and possibly replacing town property in a long range program. Mayor John Mit hener will appoint a committee to make an investigation and submit recommendations at a subsequent meeting of Town Council. Before going into executive session permission was given for use of the bleachers at Hicks Field in connection with the forthcoming water carnival at the old fish hatchery property. Permission has been given to erect the bleachers on the property by the owner, Col. C. L. Capehart. It is planned to charge admission to use the seats in order to help raise money to help cover expenses of the water carnival.

Progress Shown For Golf Club

Continued from Page 1. Section 1 timistic that a full 150 membership will be signed up.

The club has already secured an adequate amount of land at the former Edenton Marine Air Station for a golf course and country club. It is pointed out that a good golf course and country club will not only be of great benefit to Chowan County people, but that it will be a decided asset to attract tourists as well as new industry.

It is hoped that the goal of 150 will be reached in very short order so that work on the golf course can be started as soon as possible.

Always Business
An insurance claim agent was teaching his wife to drive when the brakes failed on a steep grade.

"I can't stop," she screamed. "What should I do?"
"Brace yourself," advised her husband, "and try to hit something cheap."

Cordon Donates Mortar, Pestle To Pharmacy School

An antique mortar and pestle has been donated to the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy by Norman Cordon of Chapel Hill.

Dr. Cordon is director of the N. C. Music Program of the UNC Extension Division and is a former star of the Metropolitan Opera.

The old mortar and pestle were originally owned by his grandfather, who studied pharmacy in Baltimore and later practiced in Edenton.

Thomas E. Houghton, Cordon's grandfather, left the practice of pharmacy after 10 years and studied for the ministry at the Episcopal Seminary in Alexandria, Va. He was chaplain of the 50th North Carolina Regiment during the Civil War.

Providence Revival May 14 Through 18

A spring revival will be held at the Providence Baptist Church Monday, May 14, through Friday, May 18, with services each night at 8 o'clock.

The speaker for the series of meetings will be the Rev. J. W. Whitaker, noted evangelist, singer and pastor of the Mount Vernon Baptist Church at White-stone, Va.

Gospel singing will be held every night and the public is invited to attend by the pastor, the Rev. F. H. LaGarde.

20 YEARS AGO

Chowan County Commissioners went on the war path as the result of what was termed "professional jealousy" among Edenton's doctors, having to do with sending emergency cases to hospitals.

In conjunction with National Immunization Month, the Chowan County Health Department sponsored free vaccination for typhoid fever, diphtheria and smallpox at various clinics held by local physicians.

Consumers of gasoline were required to register for the purpose of securing ration cards to purchase gasoline.

Officers of Kadesh A.M.E. Zion Church announced that sufficient funds were raised to complete payment of a mortgage that plagued the church for the past 19 years. A mortgage burning ceremony was planned. Dr. Phillips Russell of the University of North Carolina was speaker at a public forum sponsored by the Edenton Rotary Club, when he discussed the field of journalism and current affairs.

An instructor mobile unit of the Red Cross was organized and ready for any emergency first aid work. Instructors were Miss Gladysteen Hester, Miss Frye Pettus, Mrs. William Averette and Mrs. Eva C. Cox.

A change in ownership of the Hobbs & Ward building, which housed the Chas. H. Jenkins Motor Company for a number of years, was effected when it was purchased from Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hobbs by Mrs. W. D. Holmes.
