

The Roundup

By WILBORNE HARRELL

Well, the weather is busting new earth just wrapping itself out all over with Spring, and it's about time to go barefoot—if you are one of the small fry clan. Remember those early days of Spring, the buzzing of bumblebees and the keening of the many insects and the croaking of frogs? And the warm damp feel to your feet of the

AFTERTHOUGHT — Come to think about it, wasn't World War I plugged as the war to end all wars?

Am I (are you) an honest man? I don't know for sure and it worries me. I have often wondered what I'd do if I were ever placed in a position to accept or refuse a large sum of money by just looking the other way, with no risk involved. What would you do? I believe, to get the answer to that, one would have to be placed in such a position. So, most of us will never find out if we are honest or not.

TIDBITS—Watch it—you're getting old if you find yourself becoming impatient with the antics of the young folks... Statistics are amazing things. Have you ever figured out how many eggs you ate in a year, or how many times you've smoked, or how many cups of coffee you have quaffed? And the little things you buy, that may cost only a few cents a day—have you figured how much they would total over a stated period

Seniors Guests At Worship Service

Center Hill Methodist Church had as special guests on Sunday, May 6, at the regular worship service the senior class of Chowan High School and their sponsor, David Johnson.

The Rev. C. T. Wilson welcomed the seniors and used as his sermon topic "Decisions," and Mrs. E. P. Jones.

He cautioned the seniors against making decisions without first seeking Divine help now that the time has come for each one to make decisions which they will have to make themselves.

Immediately after the service the seniors, members and visitors of the congregation were invited to the parsonage for a reception which was given by Mrs. C. T. Wilson, Mrs. J. S. Turner and Mrs. E. P. Jones.
